

DAY'S DOINGS AT HARRISBURG

scope of the aforementioned resolution which defied its power and Whereas, precedents have been established by this house...

Mr. Towler, of Forest, said the vast majority of the members of the house are honorable men and they ought not to be dragged before this committee.

Mr. Young, of Tioga, a member of the committee, said the resolution was offered to ascertain the sense of the house...

Mr. Keatts, of Somerset, a member of the committee, said it was a gross mistake to say that all the evidence was furnished by the press.

Mr. Skinner said as a matter of courtesy to the committee and to reflect it from any responsibility in the investigation he would withdraw his amendment...

Mr. Baldwin, of Delaware, reoffered the amendment as offered by Mr. Skinner. The amendment was defeated by a viva voce vote.

Harrisburg, March 22—Governor Stone today approved the following bills: House bill making constables of boroughs and townships ex-officio judges...

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, March 22—The stock market had a highly professional appearance today. An earlier tendency to rally in the specialties where interest centered and moderate improvements in the railroads, which were comparatively neglected. An earlier tendency appeared early, sympathetically with London quotations, and prices moved nervously in the general market, while among the specialties irregularity was in many cases sensational.
