

FIRST REPORT OF THE GRAND JURY

TRUE BILL RETURNED AGAINST SHANNON, THE BURGLAR.

He Is the Man Who Was Shot After Entering the Station of the Delaware and Hudson Canal Company at Peckville—The Other True and Ignored Bills That Were Presented to the Court—Final Testimony in the Spring Brook Water Controversy—Merely a Surmise as Yet.

The grand jury presented its first report to Judge Archbald yesterday morning. In the afternoon the jury did no business after 2 o'clock, having decided on Wednesday to observe the patriotic holiday.

As told in The Tribune of Wednesday a true bill was found against John Shannon, the burglar who was shot after entering the Peckville station of the Delaware and Hudson Canal Company. John and Peter Toole, of Miconka, were indicted for pointing a pistol at Charles Lydon, of the same place, whom they arrested in the Greenwood mines for alleged complicity in the murder of Michael P. Conroy at Duryea.

Joseph Kilpatrick, the boy who gave the police so much trouble during the winter, was indicted for robbery, and his mother for receiving stolen goods. The following is the report of the jury:

SOME EASTER FANCIES

Women's Top Coats

The name's from London and the style's from Paris; and from now until next winter there'll be hardly a week that the spring jacket will not be needed at home, in the mountains or at the shore. A word about a few.

- At $1.95—A jaunty reefer front jacket of Tan Covert. Tight fitting back. Finished with tailor seams and lapel pockets.
At 6.95—A Tan Covert double breasted "dip" front jacket; finished with tailor seams and lined with silk serge.
At $9.95—Black Clay Diagonal silk lined throughout, "dip" front with circle corners. Fancy Armour silk facings to revers.
At $14.95—A Tan Broadcloth, scolloped finished fly front, and tight fitting back. Double stitched tailor seams, and stitched cuffs. Fancy stripe and plaid silk linings.
Silk Waists

The combination of the new styles and our low prices are proving as attractive as we anticipated. There's a big gathering here, yet it changes daily for our policy of one-of-a-sort, doesn't permit of any one style remaining long. The charming originality of styles, the finish and trimmings are too well known to need especial comment. In these regards we set the standard for other people. Some recent arrivals in Black, Colors and Fancy Silks and Satins are priced at $1.98, $6.98, $8.49, $9.98, $13.98.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites is pure and palatable.

For years it has been used for coughs and colds, for consumption, for those whose blood is thin or colorless, whose systems are emaciated or run down.

For children it means health and strength, stronger bones and teeth, and food for the growing mind.

Baby gains in weight and thrives when Scott's Emulsion is added to its milk.

Tuesday an application was made to Judge Archbald for a capias for Shannon. This was immediately after the finding of the true bill. Judge Archbald ruled that the capias could not be issued until the indictment against him was reported by the grand jury.

District Attorney Jones said yesterday that he may apply for a capias today as a matter of precaution, but it is possible a capias will not be necessary, for from the reports he receives from the hospital, Shannon will not live to stand trial for his offense.

Shade Trees Were Destroyed. Several years ago a praiseword was filed in court in a suit against the Scranton Gas and Water company brought by Mrs. Belle Von Storch, of North Main avenue, North Scranton, but no details in reference to the reason for bringing the suit were given. Yesterday the declaration in the suit was filed in the prothonotary's office by Attorneys Nathan Vidaver and C. H. von Storch, representing the plaintiff.

The plaintiff sues the Gas and Water company to recover $500 damages which she claims is due her by reason of neglect on the part of the company. Plaintiff alleges that on or about April 29, 1898, a break occurred in the gas main of the above company running in front of her property, situated on North Main avenue, near Green Ridge street. The company was notified of the break, but neglected to repair it until the escaping gas had destroyed two very valuable shade trees on the property of the plaintiff and materially decreased the value of the property thereby.

That Water Company Tax Case. Yesterday morning the equity suit of the Spring Brook Water company against County Treasurer Kelly and the county commissioners was resumed before Judge Archbald.

The following witnesses were examined for the defense: Ex-County Surveyor A. E. Dunning, who made maps of the property it is desired to tax, and the following officials of Spring Brook township: Township Clerk Matthews, ex-Superintendent Smith and Secretary of the School Board Cobb.

The case was argued by Colonel L. A. Waters for the plaintiff and ex-District Attorney John P. Kelly for the defense.

SOUTH SCRANTON. Soldier Members Banquetted by the Century Hose Company—Large Attendance at Y. W. C. A. Branch Annual Supper.

The Century hose company gave a banquet at Naitor's hall last evening in honor of the members of the company who volunteered with the Thirtieth regiment. The hall was artistically decorated with hunting, running from the sides to a center-piece of national colors.

The members of the company and their lady friends sat down to an excellently prepared repast, served in a most creditable manner. Louis Schwans was toastmaster of the evening and in a brief address told of the noble spirit of patriotism which imbued in the hearts of the young men who sacrificed all ties and domestic happiness to serve their country in its time of need.

Speeches were made by others present and the soldier boys related tales of camp life. As a fitting close to the evening's pleasure a rising vote of appreciation was tendered the soldier lads. The committee in charge was as follows: President, Emil Bonn; Louis Schwans, Chief Hickey, William Schmidt and Louis Seheuer.

Y. W. C. A. ANNUAL SUPPER. The annual supper of the South Scranton Women's Christian association was served at the rooms on Cedar avenue from 5 to 9 o'clock last night. The decorations of the rooms were a creditable proof of the energy and taste of the young women.

Ported plants and ferns were seen in profusion, arranged in every possible place. The tables were beautifully decorated with posies and the effect was most charming. A large number of prominent persons from this side and elsewhere in the city were present.

The following menu was served. Cold Ham Potato Salad Cold Veal Scalloped Potatoes Cabbage Salad Cake Pickles Baked Beans Ice Cream Home-Made Candies

Music was furnished by several of the young women of the association during the evening and several vocal selections were rendered. A large sum was realized and the young women of the association have just cause to feel proud of the great success of the affair.

NEWS OF NEWS. times, and Keeler, of the Century Hose company, are ill. Arthur DeLondro is doing substitute duty at the Century quarters.

U. S. CONSUL CURED OF ECZEMA BY CUTICURA. I had an attack of Eczema, and ordered a box of ointment of zinc ointment. The first application changed the Eczema to hell-fire, which seemed unquenchable. The druggist had used a rancid cerate and I was poisoned. A local physician did not help matters, and everything either failed to help, or made it worse. I was becoming desperate, when I thought of CUTICURA. I bought, and dispatched my servant for a cake of CUTICURA Soap and a box of CUTICURA ointment. The first application relieved me and in three days I was well. CUTICURA, United States Consul, Dec. 15, 1897. Sold throughout the world. For Sale by C. C. Chase, Sole Proprietor, Boston.
