

EASTER

Cards, Booklets and Novelties, Devotional and Prayer Books, in large variety and popular prices.

The April Magazines

Ladies' Home Journal, Scribner, St. Nicholas, Strand, Harper's, Leslie's Popular, Argosy, Self Culture, Metropolitan, Woman's Home Companion, Ledger Monthly, Judge and Puck Monthlies. All the Spring fashion Periodicals are now ready at

NORTON'S,

322 Lackawanna Avenue.

See Our Great

EASTER DISPLAY

Fine Pictures

THE GRIFFIN ART STUDIO

200 Wyoming Avenue.

WE DELIVER

Fresh Pure Milk 5c a Quart.

LACKAWANNA DAIRY CO

322-327 Adams Avenue.

DR. A. A. LINDABURY.

Specialties—Surgery, Diseases of Women

Office Hours—9:15 to 10 a. m. 1 to 3 p. m. At Residence—8 p. m. Office—Williams Building, Opp. Postoffice. Residence—210 South Main Avenue.

Chas. McMullen & Co.

Have opened a General Insurance Office in the

Traders' National Bank Building

Best Stock Companies represented. Large lines especially solicited. Telephone 1862.

P. J. REAP,

Plumbing, Steam and Gas Fitting. Jobbing Promptly Attended to, Corner of Penna Avenue and Linden Street. Under "The Windsor."

KEELEY CURE

For Liquor, Drug and Tobacco Habits. Pamphlet free. THE KEELEY INSTITUTE, 725 Madison Ave., SCRANTON, PA.

SCRANTON TRANSFER CO.

Baggage called for and delivered day or night.

Office, 109 Lacka. Ave. Phone 525

LACKAWANNA

THE LAUNDRY

705 Penn Avenue, A. B. WARKAN.

PERSONAL.

The current number of the Medical Record of New York contains an able article on "Eruptions of the Face Due to Nasal Pressure," by Dr. G. D. Murray, of this city.

Rev. Charles E. Kelly, D. D., until recently in charge of the parish at Scranton, is a guest at the Episcopal residence on Wyoming avenue. He sails for Europe shortly, where he will visit the Jesuit order.

John Leitenberger, Harry C. Canney, John Jones and Charles F. Smith, of Morristown, will visit this city today and make arrangements for the accommodations of the Fairmount Hotel and Ladies' company's visit to this city next October in connection with the annual state farmers' convention.

Hon. L. A. Waters entertained the following officials of the County Savings bank at a dinner in the Scranton club Saturday night: A. H. Christy, Hon. R. W. Archibald, Hon. H. M. Edwards, Hon. F. W. Gunster, Everett Warren, E. E. Kingsbury, W. E. Hallett, John P. Kelly. The dinner was in celebration of the deposits of the bank reaching the million mark.

What Is "Red Ribbon"

If I hear you say? It is the finest of Mocha and Java coffees, blended scientifically. Demonstration at Goldsmith's Bazaar.

Dr. S. C. Snyder Will Move.

His well known dental office on April 1st to Masonic Temple, 429 Spruce

Don't Fail to Attend the auction sale at F. L. Crane's stable farm tomorrow, Tuesday, March 28, at 10 o'clock a. m.

We have several small lots of Key West Havanas we wish to close.

For a time we offer them at factory prices. Gardner, Brown & Co.

A Card.

We the undersigned, do hereby agree to refund the money on a 5-cent bottle of Green's Warranted Syrup of Tar if it fails to cure your cough or cold. We also guarantee a 5-cent bottle to prove satisfactory or money refunded. J. G. Bonn & Son, Scranton, Pa.

MENTION OF SOME MEN OF THE HOUR

GOVERNOR W. A. STONE'S OPINION OF NEWSPAPERS

Believes They Are Great Educators and in the Main Mean to Be Fair and Honest—Troubles That Beset Mayor-elect Moir—The Place Hunters Are Making His Life a Burden. Major J. B. Fish Pleas Over the Result of the Fight for a Pave, Thompson Out of Business.

Governor W. A. Stone during the years he has been in public office has not always received the most considerate treatment from newspapers, but he has nevertheless, the most profound respect for them. In his conversations and in speeches the side lights he is so fond of throwing on the subject under consideration reveals this fact. He is not the man to be intimidated by newspaper abuse, he is too sure of himself for that. He does not jump to wrong conclusions or decide any important matter for himself until he has all the evidence marshaled before him. When his mind is made up he is true to the line of duty he maps out for himself. He appreciates honest, sincere criticism of his official conduct and acts and is big enough to feel sorry for the men who try to besmirch journalism that they may exploit a short lived sensation. In conversation with a Tribune man when he was in the city Thursday the governor said:

"My experience leads me to the conclusion that newspapers and those who make them are in the main honest and reliable. One in a while you find a fellow who is not particular what he says about you or how he quotes your expressions, but, as a rule, he does not last long. As in everything else the fittest survive. No man in public life can afford to underestimate the grip power of the press. It is growing rather than diminishing and will continue to grow if newspapers are at all wisely directed. They will be, for it is my observation that journalism is constantly calling to its ranks the best and broadest minds of the day.

"I have frequently been astonished at the shrewdness and keenness of newspaper men with whom I have come in contact. When I was in Washington, where matters of great moment were constantly coming to the surface, it was not times little than marvelous the way the correspondents there anticipate the various moves in national politics or national legislation, and often times in matters of more than national importance. Frequently they were compelled to have their articles on nothing more substantial than their own knowledge of men and the ambitions or impulses that stirred them, supplemented by their general knowledge of affairs and a certain intuition that seems to be a part of every successful newspaper man. With only these to rely on the certainty with which many intricate and sometimes far distant moves would be predicted and explained filled me with no little admiration and respect for the men who were capable of performing such feats.

"One thing that has often impressed me is a certain family resemblance, so to speak, among newspaper men. There is something about the alert, wide-awake life that he leads and the confident manner in which he comes in contact with the world at various points that leaves its impression and marks him as a man of the Fourth estate. The newspaper is undeniably a great educator, a greater factor in that direction than most persons are willing to admit, or perhaps it is better to say, care to admit, and, as I said before, I believe in the main newspapers mean to be honest and fair. Public men are public servants and it is the proper province of the newspaper to direct and comment on their actions. When this is honest, whether favorable or unfavorable, the public man has no just reason to complain. We cannot all see the same proposition alike."

Mayor-elect Moir is having his own troubles these busy March days and he is beginning to fully realize the trials and tribulations that greatness carries in its wake. The mayor-elect has his first message to write into shape, for he must read next Monday when county reorganizers, he has heads of departments to select and offices of various kinds to fill. He is expected to appoint out those offices so judiciously that the public services will be properly attended to by the men he selects and at the same time proper recognition be afforded to those who bore the brunt of the fighting in the late election.

It is a comparatively easy task to select good, capable men for all the offices in sight, the Republican party is filled with good material. That is not the spot where the shoe pinches. Captain Moir has too many warm personal friends. They labored for him early and late during his campaign for the office of mayor, and now that the time for distributing the plums has arrived, they are clamoring with right good will for recognition. They propose to secure it or know why.

All portions of the city are alive with candidates, the West Side probably thirty or forty per cent more alive than any other portion of the city. The ends of the city are also clamorous and even in the central city there are men who would accept a public position if strongly urged. With all the strains the army of place-seekers are pulling on him, he is doing nothing of the men who want to retain the office they now hold, it is easy to preserve that the mayor-elect is having some difficulty to get his accustomed eight hours of sleep each night.

One of the strong advocates of a pave on North Main avenue is Major J. B. Fish, the superintendent of the Electric Gas and Water company, which, under his careful management, has become a great institution. Major Fish recently celebrated his seventieth birthday, but he does not look his age by ten years. For many years he was active in the National Guard and was the captain of Company H, of the Thirtieth regiment. He was afterwards promoted to the position of major and held that office when he retired from the guard.

Major Fish is one of the oldest residents of North Scranton and is greatly interested in its progress, not only because it is his home, and is dear to him from associations, but for the further reason that he has large interests there and he knows these interests will be more valuable if wise public improvements are systematically carried forward.

Since the inception of the movement to lay a pave on North Main avenue and Providence road it has had no warmer or more earnest champion than the major, and whenever it was in peril in council, Major Fish was always a member of the committee of prominent North End men who came down to see that justice was done their pet measure. When the anti-pave agitation was at its height, his prominent part in promoting the meetings held in Company H armory to combat the opposition. Through all the trials and tribulations of the movement he was confident they would ultimately triumph and that the much longed for pave would be laid. Now that the pave is practically an assured fact his satisfaction may well be imagined.

The retirement of Frank Thompson from the liquor business has set about any number of stories about him during the early days of his business life in Scranton, when he was practically the only wholesale liquor dealer in this end of what was then Luzerne county. It is about thirty years ago since Mr. Thompson came to this city from Philadelphia and engaged in the liquor business. He was bright, engaging and companionable and soon became one of the best known young men of the city. His business grew rapidly and for many years it reached large proportions.

His office became the meeting place of some of the best known Democrats in the early days of Lackawanna county and the informal talks there had a great influence on the policy of the party in local affairs. Gradually Mr. Thompson withdrew from any active participation in politics, as did the men with whom he associated, and the conferences that had made his office at No. 18 Lackawanna famous came to an end. Of recent years Mr. Thompson has not been so active in business as he was during his early life in Scranton and finally he decided to retire altogether, though he intends to continue his residence in this city. For many years Mr. Thompson had the unique distinction of being the only liquor dealer who did not keep his place of business open after 7 o'clock in the evening.

GERSON'S NEW MILLINERY.

Formal Opening of the Display of Spring and Summer Hats.

Last Thursday, Friday and Saturday were great days in Gerson's millinery establishment, those being the days of the formal opening for the display of their unparalleled stock of spring and summer hats. Those who did not avail themselves of the opportunity of inspecting this veritable hove of splendor and loveliness should do so at once. The beautiful hat creations do not come about the attention, but the general appearance of the stock is excellent and than which was never seen in this city—rare bound to attract and bring forth expressions of admiration.

That Gerson's store is bound to retain its proud position as a leader in the millinery line is very evident from the superb and extensive display now on exhibition in their beautiful store. No woman who has an eye for the beautiful, and there are few, if any, who have not, should fail to inspect this wonderful display of dainty creations.

SCHOOL BOARD WILL SCRAP.

Superintendency of the Supply Room Will Be the Cause.

At tonight's session of the school board a lively fight between the rival factions is anticipated on the matter of substituting Harry C. Carling for B. Jennings, superintendent of the supply room. Mr. Roche, the chairman of the supply committee, who last week told Mr. Carling to resume his old duties, takes the stand that it would be unjust and unpractical to accept of any other young man who responded to the call for volunteers when his country wanted assistance. To this plea Mr. Jennings will yell "Jingo."

Special Episcopalian Services.

Rev. Joseph O. S. Huntington, superior of the Order of the Holy Cross, and known throughout the east among Episcopalian as "Father Huntington," is here once more, conducting special services. The services are being held at St. Mark's church in Dunmore, of which Rev. J. M. Huntington is rector. He conducted two services yesterday in the above church, one at 4 p. m. for children, the other at 8 p. m. for adults. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of this week a service will be held at 8 o'clock, on those same nights, at the school meeting will be held at mid-day at St. Luke's church, Wyoming avenue.

What a Mistaken Idea of Economy.

It only costs you 5 cent per meal more to get the best coffee than the cheapest packages offered. "Red Ribbon" Mocha and Java is the best and cheapest. Demonstration at Goldsmith's Bazaar.

T. B. McClintock,

the florist, will open today at 425 Spruce street with a full line of Easter plants and novelties.

GILT EDGE BUTTER!

Coursen's Fresh Creamery Print Butter delivered every morning, will be found the sweetest, firmest and most delicious butter made. When used on bread made from our "Wheaten" Flour you have the strongest and best food known.

Our 3 and 5 lb. boxes are less expensive, and are sold this month at cost of production to introduce this make.

E. G. COURSEN.

ESTIMATES BILL IN COMMON COUNCIL

PASSES TWO READINGS AFTER AN ACROMONIOUS DEBATE.

Mayor-elect Moir Assails the A Phat Repair Contract and Tells How He Was "Bounced" Into Supporting the Measure Before Election—Says Now That It Is a Damnable Measure and Full of Corruption—Mr. Keller Says "Bosh" in an Indirect Way to Mr. Moir's Remarks.

Common council met Saturday night in adjourned session, passed the annual appropriation ordinance on two readings. It then adjourned to Tuesday night to pass it on final reading.

The meeting was an extremely lively one, a red-hot speech by Mayor-elect Moir on the asphalt repair contract being the main feature. The ordinance was introduced by a motion by Mr. Walker to take $18,000 from the $2,000 appropriation for the repairs of sewers and drains and transfer it to the repair of the Hyde Park avenue sewer. Mr. Keller moved to lay the amendment on the table.

Mr. Walker wanted to make an explanation, but the chair ruled him out of order on the ground that a motion to table was not debatable. Mr. Grier tried to put in a word, but the chair would not receive him. Mr. Grier insisted upon talking, but the chair insisted just as strongly that he shouldn't talk.

Chairman Moir threatened to adjourn the meeting if Mr. Grier did not subside. Mr. Grier made some retort about "bossism," and the chair, with some show of anger, said that if there was a sergeant-at-arms at hand he would have Mr. Grier removed.

CHAIR WON OUT.

The chair finally won out, and the vote on the amendment was taken. The amendment was lost and the chair thereupon declared the whole ordinance lost. He then moved to amend the ordinance so that the measure itself is also tabled.

There was no end of confusion following this ruling. Members rushed hither and thither, all talking at once and all demanding to be heard. Mr. Grier succeeded in securing the attention of the chair and moved to reconsider action on the amendment. This was done and then a motion prevailed to not adopt the Walker amendment.

GAVE MOIR THE CUE.

Mr. Keller then attempted to bring the ordinance up on first reading, but T. F. Morris got ahead of him with an amendment to transfer the item of $17,520 for asphalt repairs from the city engineer's department to the street commissioner's.

This was Captain Moir's cue for a rabid anti-asphalt speech. Calling Mr. Keller to the chair, he took the floor and demanded to be heard. He said that the company should be allowed to contract in no uncertain terms.

He had been "bounced" into voting in favor of the contract, he said, but now that his eyes had been opened, he demanded to be heard. He said that the company should be allowed to contract in no uncertain terms.

COUNCILMEN WERE BADGERED.

Last summer, when the asphalt repair matter was before council, the Mayor-elect went on to say, the councilmen were so badgered that they could not make use of their common sense. Mr. Roche introduced an ordinance looking to the repairing of asphalt streets for $12,000 a year, but notwithstanding that it was a perfectly practicable and legal ordinance, it was killed.

To enter upon this contract would bankrupt the city, Captain Moir protested. Something should be done to call a halt to the Barber company. He had an idea as to how this company maintained its hold on the city council and it was a crying shame, he said, that the council should be allowed to prey upon the public and bulldoze everybody. The contract was a damnable measure, full of corruption, and he wanted to put himself on record against it.

Mr. Keller, who introduced the ordinance providing for repairing asphalt streets by contract, replied to Captain Moir's speech in equally virulent terms. He was surprised, he said, to hear the mayor-elect admit that he was bounced, and he would like to know any company that would place him in a position where he would have to admit that he had been bounced.

He then went on to say that Captain Moir's talk about the repair contract being a big steal was ridiculous. The city would not repair the streets for $20,000 a year, he contended. The contract was advertised and the Barber company was the lowest bidder. He had given the subject careful study and was satisfied that the bid was a very reasonable one. The vote on the amendment was then called and resulted in its defeat by this vote:

AMENDMENT DEFEATED.

Ayes—Messrs. Walker, Zielemann, Nagels, Wirth, Jackson, Oliver, T. F. Morris, Grier, Griffiths, Galpin, Gilroy, Monaghan, Wenzel, Coleman, Keller, Sheridan, Grier.

The ordinance was called up on a second reading and passed by a vote of 15 to 7. Mr. Nagel charging over.

The New York, Ontario and Western Railway Excursion to New York city will be run on Monday, April 19th, 1929. Tickets will be sold at greatly reduced rates and will be good for return passage any time up to and including April 15th. The rate from Scranton to New York and return for this excursion will be $4.50.

The indications are that the excursion will be exceedingly well patronized. Fine equipment, excellent service, fast time, picturesque scenery and the lowest of rates—what more could be asked for or desired!

WHAT PEOPLE SAY about Hood's Sarsaparilla is that it cures when all other remedies fail. Therefore you should take Hood's Sarsaparilla in preference to all others.

Hood's Pills cure biliousness. Mailed for 25 cents by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

ODD FELLOWS INSTALLATION.

Dates Upon Which Lodge Officers Will Be Formally Seated.

District Deputy Grand Master David Cadogan has announced that the officers of the several lodges in this district will be installed as follows: Electric City lodge, No. 498—Saturday, April 1. Apollo lodge, No. 965—Monday, April 2. Lily Lodge, No. 58. Tuesday, April 3. Dunmore lodge, No. 1816—Wednesday, April 3. Green Ridge lodge, No. 695—Thursday, April 6. Lackawanna lodge, No. 291—Friday, April 7. Taylorville lodge, No. 683—Saturday, April 8. Celestial lodge, No. 833—Monday, April 10. Robert Burns lodge, No. 539—Tuesday, April 11. James Connell lodge, No. 176—Wednesday, April 12. Alliance lodge, No. 549—Thursday, April 13. Robert lodge, No. 965—Friday, April 14. Slocum lodge, No. 956—Saturday, April 15. Lincoln lodge, No. 62, Monday, April 17. Resident lodge, No. 313—Wednesday, April 19. Silurian lodge, No. 763—Friday, April 21. Milwaukee lodge, No. 267—Saturday, April 22. Moscow lodge, No. 703—Monday, April 23. Lincoln lodge, No. 62, Monday, April 17. Resident lodge, No. 313—Wednesday, April 19. Silurian lodge, No. 763—Friday, April 21. Milwaukee lodge, No. 267—Saturday, April 22. Moscow lodge, No. 703—Monday, April 23.

RECITAL TOMORROW NIGHT.

Mr. Riley Will Be Introduced by Judge Archibald.

While it is perhaps for his dialect verse that James Whitcomb Riley is best known by the newspaper reading public, those people who believe his fame rests on that alone should read some of his sonnets, for instance, "Dusk," or "Art and Love," or "Time." Yet, after all, the tender, homely verses such as "Grigsby's Station," "Ch' Fashioned Roses" and "Little Orphan Annie," will be often asked for and often found in the scrapbooks, where people keep "just a little thing we happened to see in the newspaper you know."

Judge Archibald will introduce Mr. Riley tomorrow evening at the Lyceum, and among the taking features of the programme will be several vocal numbers by Mrs. Joseph O'Brien, Miss Timberman, of the Conservatory of Music, and Mr. Williams, of Wilkes-Barre.

The programme is to be one that will enthrall an audience. Seats are selling rapidly and many parties are planned for the occasion.

WILL ARRIVE TOMORROW.

President Truesdale and Superintendent Fitzgibbons to Come Here.

J. W. Fitzgibbons, of Topeka, Kan., who has been appointed to the newly created office of superintendent of motive power of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad company, will arrive here tomorrow night and enter upon his duties. President Truesdale will come on the Rock Island tomorrow and will remain for a week. It is said, to get the new department in working order and attend to some matters connected with the coal department.

Mr. Fitzgibbons is a former Scranton man and worked as a mechanic for the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company. He was discharged by one of the officials (who will now be under him) and, going west, worked himself up from one position to another until he became assistant superintendent of motive power on the Rock Island road, of which Mr. Truesdale is vice-president and manager.

Mr. Fitzgibbons is a former Scranton man and worked as a mechanic for the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company. He was discharged by one of the officials (who will now be under him) and, going west, worked himself up from one position to another until he became assistant superintendent of motive power on the Rock Island road, of which Mr. Truesdale is vice-president and manager.

SISTER CITY VICTORS.

Elks' Bowling Team Vanquished by the Wilkes-Barre Wheelmen.

Total scores alone counting, the bowling team of the Elks lodge of this city, lost the series of six contests with the team of the West End Wheelmen's club of Wilkes-Barre. The winning team led with 109 points. Three contests of three games each were played in each city alternately, the last being played at Wilkes-Barre Friday evening.

The wheelmen's team won the contest with a lead of 61 points. The scores by games were: First game—Scranton, 97; West End, 97. Second game—Scranton, 87; West End, 93. Third game—Scranton, 87; West End, 94. The teams were made up as follows: Scranton—Fowler, Phillips, Reuhl, Wharton, Weichel and Madenspaeh; West End—Rhodes, Smith, Weicht, Bull, Greene and Weigand.

COUNCILMAN NORTON DEAD.

Succumbed to Typhoid Fever After a Four Weeks' Illness.

Thomas Norton, common councilman from the Twenty-first ward, died at his home, 297 Jackson street, at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, after a four weeks' sickness from typhoid fever. It was not until a week ago, however, that anything serious was anticipated.

Deceased was thirty-four years of age and is survived by his mother, Mrs. Mary Norton, three sisters and five brothers, Catherine, Mary, Bridget, James, Michael, Peter and William, of this city, and Richard, of Terrace, Utah.

Mr. Norton served two terms in council and was elected to succeed himself at the last election. His death will cause a vacancy which cannot be filled until after the reorganization on April 2.

The arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made.

CHEMICALS' EFFECTIVE WORK.

Put Out a Basement Fire on South Washington Avenue.

At 10:55 o'clock yesterday morning, the Phoenix Chemical company was called on a still alarm to 33 South Washington avenue, where an over-heated stove pipe set fire to the basement of a dwelling house occupied by A. P. Cohn, and owned by Mrs. Catherine Miller, proprietress of the Eagle hotel, 330 Penn avenue.

The quick response and effective work of the chemicals confined the flame to a small area and the damage in consequence was slight.

T. B. McClintock,

the florist, will open today at 425 Spruce street with a full line of Easter plants and novelties.

Steam Heating and Plumbing.

P. F. & M. T. Howley, 221 Wyoming ave.

Smoke The Pocomo Cigar, 5c.

Dr. Bull's

The best remedy for children and adults. Cures all colds, coughs, whooping cough, asthma, grippe, bronchitis and incipient consumption. Price 25c.

TRUST IS AFTER SCRANTON TOBACCO

WANTS TO BUY THE THREE LOCAL FACTORIES.

Continental Tobacco Company, the New $70,000,000 Syndicate That Gobbled Up the American Tobacco Company Is Negotiating for the Purchase of the Clark & Snover, Clark & Scott and Leonard Tobacco Factories—Makes Tempting Offers, but Are Not Satisfactory Ones.

That Scranton's tobacco industries are somewhat of a factor in that particular corner of the commercial world is evidenced by the fact that their control is being sought for by the big tobacco trust.

The Continental Tobacco company, the title of the new tobacco syndicate, has representatives here now negotiating for the purchase of all three of the local tobacco factories, Clark & Snover, Clark & Scott and Leonard's. J. B. Russell & Co., the Washington avenue brokers, are said to be their representatives.

James B. Scott, of the firm of Clark & Scott, when approached upon the subject admitted the report was true. His company had been offered a very tempting figure for its plant and good will, and he was reliably informed that the other two companies had also been approached. From Mr. Scott's conversation it was gathered that the Scranton companies were not likely to accept the offers.

The Continental Tobacco company is one of the most gigantic of all the trusts, being capitalized for $50,000,000. It has absorbed the original trust, the American Tobacco company, and is reaching out to secure absolute control over every tobacco factory of any importance in the country.

ROOF FELL UPON HIM.

Miner Was Injured in the Mines at Peckville.

Frank Drenock, employed as a miner in the Peckville colliery of the Scranton and New York Coal company, was seriously injured Saturday afternoon while at work. A portion of the roof fell and he was caught beneath it.

Fellow workmen removed him from his perilous position and he was brought to the Lackawanna hospital, where it was discovered that the right thigh was fractured. His body was otherwise contused and cut.

Don't Take Our Word for It.

but buy a sample pound of "Red Ribbon" Mocha and Java. We are sure of a steady customer if you will. Demonstration at Goldsmith's Bazaar.

The Wilkes-Barre Record may be had in Scranton at the news stand of Redman Bros., 401 Spruce and 363 Linden street; Mac, Lackawanna avenue.

The Richard & Sanderson Oil Co.,

SELL THE CELEBRATED IONA SAFETY OIL.

Installed on getting it. Made entirely from the Tiona Crude.

High Grade Lubricating and Barring Oils of every description. 1321 CAPPOUSE AVE.

The Climax

$1.50

Window Awning.

There is no one feature which can so distinguish the home or be so productive of so much comfort and enjoyment to the family as

Awning at the Windows

They have, however, heretofore been made to order only, and required the services of an expert to put up. It has practically been impossible to obtain them in some places remote from the makers, and everywhere the cost has been so great as to be almost prohibitive.

The Climax Awning

Is not only first