EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

SERMON TO KNIGHTS OF MALTA BY REV. J. B. SWEET.

Electric City and Washington Councils Attend Simpson Church In a Body-Slight Fires That Did Little Damage-Abram Thomas' Death Was Accidental-Won a Costly Violin-St. Paul's Pioneer Corps' Smoker-Miss Mabel Phillips Entertained Friends-Other Notes and Personals.

The members of Washington and Malta, attended the evening service at the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church last evening. The organization was well represented, and the men wore the regalia of the order and carried a beautiful silk American flag and the banners of the respective lodges.

The services were opened with the and prayer was offered by Rev. L. C. Harned. The church was crowded to the doors when the services began. Miss Leah Britton, of Reading, who is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. George B. Reynolds, rendered a violin solo with exquisite taste and skill.

The pastor, Rev. J. B. Sweet, supplemented his talk to the members of the order by making a patriotic reference to his prize. He has been offered a large the American flag. He welcomed the knights as brothers, as he himself is a member of the order, and paid of glowing tribute to their fraternity and patriotism. Rev. Sweet spoke along the lines of the three primal ideas of the order-ancient, fraternal and religious, but did not take any special text for his address

He related the history and origin of the order, and contrasted its age with the famous landmarks of days gone by, It was founded in 1048, and its members championed the cause of Christianity then as they do today. God used this organization as a leverage to perpetuate the cause of humanity, the speaker said, and behind it all are the benefits of the Lord Jesus Christ.

The fraternity of the order as based on Christ's fraternity and taught by His followers can only be true when based on Christ's fraternity. The ambition of each member is to measure up to the highest possible standard, and thus it must be attained by a Christian life. Earthly honors are effervescent, They are of naught to us, and no matter how much applause we receive in this life, it will avail us nothing unless ward Traupe, at 427 North Main ave-we enter into the only true fraternity nuc.
