TOLD OF THE REDEMPTION.

Father Huntington Spoke at Midday Service at St. Luke's.

A fair sized congregation, the majority being men, attended the twenty minute mid-day service at St. Luke's Episcopal church yesterday. The sermon was delivered by Rev. Joseph O. S. Huntington, superior of the Order of the Holy Cross, who is conducting a series of special services at St. Mark's hurch in Dunmore,

Father Huntington's theme was the sacred story of the redemption. referred to the love which passed all understanding and led Jesus, the perfeet man, to sacrifice Himself that the sins of the world might be atoned. He used many biblical truths to draw out and throw into relief the beautiful sentiment underlying all of the Savfour's acts. At the conclusion of the sermon prayer was offered by the Rev. Rogers Israel. Father Huntington will speak at today's mid-day service.

District Attorney Jones Prepares a Law Dealing with Witness Fees.

District Attorney John R. Jones has drawn up a bill to be presented to the legislature by Hon. P. E. Timlin, providing that costs be paid by the county in criminal cases where the defendant absconds, the same as in cases where sentence is imposed. At present witnesses, aldermen and constables must whistle for their fees, when a defendant skips his bail, or go to the trouble of collecting from his bondsman.

Mr. Jones' bill stipulates that the county shall be reimbursed if the costs are afterwards collected.

INSPECTION OF

MAJOR W. S. MILLAR HAS PRE-PARED HIS SCHEDULE.

Members of the Old and the New Guard Will Be Inspected at the Same Time Whenever It Happens That Companies of Both Are in the Same Place-Dates on Which the Various Inspections Will Be Conducted-Old Guard Will Wear Citizens Clothes and White Gloves.

Major W. S. Millar, Inspector of the Third brigade, National Guard of Pennsylvania, has arranged and submitted his schedule for the inspection dates of the several companies of the Seventh and Eleventh regiments of the above brigade. His first inspection will occur on April 17, and the Seventh regiment will be the first to be inspected. Lieutenant Harry L. Rise, of Lebanon, will act as orderly.

Two very important and entirely new features will have to be considered in this year's inspection. Many men must be dropped, as there are at present two guards; being the original guard and the provisional guard. Out of these it seems to be the intention to form one, that being the limit of the state. In connection with this fact, the men who were in the "old guard" and volunteered into the United States service were mustered out and have reformed into the original guard and are to be inspected. The Fourth, Ninth and Twelfth regiments are thus af-
