

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

MANY FRIENDS ATTEND FUNERAL OF ABRAM THOMAS.

Services were held at the First Welsh Congregational Church. Resolutions of Regret Read by the Rev. William Smith, of Nanticoke. Pupils of Miss Wade at No. 19 Have a "Mothers" Meeting. George Walker Charged with Embezzlement—Shorter Notes.

When the remains of the late Abram Thomas were borne from the residence of the relatives on Mullein street yesterday afternoon to the First Welsh Congregational church on South Main avenue, they were accompanied by many relatives and friends of the family. Deceased was a comparative stranger here and the accident which caused his death at Wilkes-Barre last week created added sympathy both here and in Nanticoke, being quite well known and highly esteemed by all who knew him in the latter town.

At the church, Rev. David Jones, the pastor, read a scriptural lesson and prayer was offered by Rev. William Smith, of Nanticoke. A quartette comprising Misses Margaret Jones and Edith James and Alfred Wooler and Richard Thomas sang "Jesus Is Mine" and Rev. James McLeod, of the First Presbyterian church, spoke words of comfort to the bereaved relatives. The quartette also sang "Abide with Me" and the Rev. Mr. Smith, in behalf of the church and friends who deceased had attended in Nanticoke, read the following resolutions:

Whereas, Our friend and companion, Abram Thomas, has been taken from us by death, and

Whereas, in our acquaintance with him we found him to be a young man of good habits and of an amiable disposition, we, the members of the choir of Bethel church, Nanticoke, deem it fitting to record our appreciation of him.

Resolved, That by his sudden removal we lose a pleasant companion and faithful member of this choir, and that we deeply mourn his death, and that with sincere sympathy for the bereaved relatives of the deceased we express our hope that even so great a loss to us may be overruled for good by the Heavenly Father, who doeth all things well.

(Signed) D. W. Thomas, chorister; John G. Griffiths, secretary; Thomas F. Jacobs, mayor of Nanticoke; Thomas D. Nichols and Rev. William Smith, committee.

Rev. Smith also spoke, particularly to the members of Washington Commandery, Knights of Malta, who were present. The floral tributes were a pillow and a necktie. The pallbearers were W. J. Thomas, David Evans, William Anthony, William Evans, David Johnson, Rhys Hawkins. Interment was made in Forest Hill cemetery.

COMBINATION SOCIAL.

The entertainment, cake walk, drawing and social of Navajo tribe, No. 106, Improved Order of Red Men, was held in the hall over Jenkins' pharmacy last evening and was well attended. The programme consisted of songs by Mrs. Randolph Jones, Miss Watkins, Thomas Boston, Village quartette, Rhoda Clark, Edward Reynolds and Maud Davila; recitations by Rose Griswald and Emma Lamb; phonograph selections by Mr. Pfeiffer; bird imitations by William Gaul, and an address by Alderman John T. Howe. Mrs. D. B. Thomas was the accompanist.

The drawing for the chair was conducted by Alderman Howe and Miss Rhoda Clark drew the winning number, 238, held by John Lohmann, of 219 Lackawanna avenue. In the drawing for the piano seat Miss Cora Watkins was selected to pick out the number, and check No. 90, held by Miss Emma Mayer, of 249 Tenth street, was the winner.

The cake walking contest was participated in by about twenty-five couples and the fancy cake, presented by Miss Lizzie Klein, was awarded to Carrie Wouch and William Kellerman, of South Scranton.

The social feature was very enjoyable and refreshments were passed about by the ladies in charge. At the auction of the cakes Alderman Howe again distinguished himself by disposing of the prizes in an acceptable manner. The affair was thoroughly enjoyable and profitable.

ELECTRIC CITY WHEELMEN.

An adjourned meeting of the Electric City Wheelmen was held at the club house on Jackson street last evening and the following new members were admitted: R. F. Post, Herbert DeWitt, H. E. Spencer, William P. Williams, Sydney C. Meers, Jr., E. M. Strong, Millard P. Wyley, A. W. Jurich, W. A. Hutton, Fred W. Strong, Dr. T. A. Eynon, Lester E. Morse, William Hall, Jr., Charles W. LaBar and David Jones.

President Will Mears presided and Secretary Guy Ralph recorded the minutes of the proceedings. Several matters pertaining to the welfare of the club were discussed and acted upon and the improvements being made on the building were noted with much pleasure. It is expected the building will be in readiness for occupancy by the first of May.

MOTHERS' DAY AT NO. 19.

Another "Mothers' Day" was delightfully observed at No. 19 school yesterday afternoon in the grade presided over by Miss Elizabeth Wade.

Almost all of the parents whose children attended in that particular grade were present and all expressed themselves as highly pleased with Miss Wade's painstaking work. "Mothers' Day" is one of the most pleasing adjuncts of the public school exercises and are enjoyed by parents and pupils alike.

FUNERAL OF GWILYM JONES.

Rev. James Beninger, pastor of the Hampton Street Methodist Episcopal church, officiated at the funeral of the late Gwilym Jones yesterday afternoon. The services were held at the home of deceased's brother, Walter

Biliousness,

Disordered stomach, constipation, etc., are remedied by using Carlsbad Sprudel Salt.

The Carlsbad Sprudel Salt is derived by evaporation from the celebrated springs at Carlsbad, and contains the same curative properties that have made the springs famous for five centuries.

Eisner & Mendelson Co., Agents for Carlsbad Salt. Gentlemen: "I do not suppose that you need any further words of commendation for Carlsbad Sprudel Salts, but perhaps my experience may be of use to some one. I had been for years a confirmed dyspeptic, principally from constipation. Medicine would relieve me for a time, only to lose its efficiency. Three years ago my doctor advised me to try the Carlsbad Sprudel Salt. I tried them, but thought the effect too great. After a little, I thought that I would try them again, using a smaller dose. I soon found the quantity that suited my case, and from that day to this I have used them steadily."

ARRESTED FOR EMBEZZLEMENT.

A warrant was issued by Alderman Moses, of the Fifteenth ward, yesterday, for the arrest of George Walker, of Hampton street, charging him with the embezzlement of $30 belonging to the Hyde Park castle, Knights of the Mystic Chain.

Some time ago the lodge gave an entertainment in St. David's hall, and Walker, among others, sold a large number of tickets for the affair. After a reasonable length of time Walker showed no disposition to make a settlement, and the members of the order caused his arrest.

Constable Joseph Dean served the warrant on Walker last evening, and he was locked up in the police station. He will be given a hearing this morning before Alderman Moses, when a settlement will probably be effected.

DISLOCATED HER SHOULDER.

Mrs. George Chase, of North Main avenue, wife of the well-known Dolawear, Lackawanna and Western railroad engineer, while descending the stairs at her home on Monday, fell down several steps and dislocated her shoulder.

The accident was a very painful one, and Dr. F. C. Hall attended her. The unfortunate mishap will necessitate Mrs. Chase's confinement to her home for some time.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

The members of the Sunday school and choir of the Plymouth Congregational church are preparing special exercises for next Sunday's services.

DAY'S DOINGS IN DUNMORE BOROUGH

MRS. EASTERLINE TENDERED A FAREWELL RECEPTION.

The affair was held at the Methodist Church by the Epworth League Members—Mrs. Easterline Was Presented with a Handsome Clock—She Leaves Here to Reside at Chambersburg, Pa.—Club Room In Robbed—Social at the Tripp Avenue Church.

Mrs. J. W. Easterline, who leaves here in a few days to reside in Chambersburg, Pa., was tendered a farewell reception last night in the parlors of the Methodist Episcopal church by the members of the Senior and Junior Epworth league chapters of the above church.

The rooms were artistically decorated for the occasion, and there was a large attendance. Mrs. Easterline has had charge of the Junior chapter for over three years, and by her painstaking work has accomplished much in league circles. As a token of the appreciation and love felt toward her the chapter presented her with a handsome china-mounted clock. Miss Beech, president of the Junior chapter, made the presentation in behalf of her associates in a few well chosen words.

Mrs. Easterline, in accepting, heartily responded and thanked the members of the chapter for their kind remembrance. Refreshments were then served and a short social session followed.

CHURCH SOCIAL.

Many persons attended the regular monthly social which was held last night at the Tripp Avenue Christian church by the members of the congregation and Sunday school. The membership of the church is growing.

The exercises comprised of recitations by the Misses Irene Warfel, Margaret Swartz, Ada Young and Martha Warfel; solos by Miss Ethel Brady, Robert Drake and Ralph Dexter. Instrumental selections by the Misses Laura Johler and Edna Heckman.

CLUB ROOMS ENTERED.

Person or persons unknown entered the rooms of Hobson Social club, in the building on Ash street, early yesterday morning and carried away a new punching bag and a pair of boxing gloves, valued at $15. Other smaller articles were also taken. No clue to the robbers exists.

Entrance seems to have been gained through a rear window which was left unlocked. This robbery adds one more to a series which have been committed in this place during the last few weeks.

Operations at the newly opened Von Sterck colliery will be resumed next week.

The members of the General Phil Sheridan council, Young Men's Institute, held a very interesting debate Monday evening on the subject, "Resolved: That the United States should annex the Philippine Islands." Those who argued the affirmative were: John J. Valley, William J. Hoban and Edward P. Kearney; the negative side was upheld by Luke Horan, A. F. McDonnell and Thomas Hayers. The decision of the judges was in favor of the latter. In addition to the debate a programme of select readings and essays was rendered.

The Misses Potter, of Monsey avenue, entertained a few of their friends Monday evening in honor of Edward Potter, of Colorado. The evening was pleasantly spent in the enjoyment of music and dancing. Among those present were: Misses Lillian Brooks, Pearl Lidstone, Alice Benson, Blanche, Maud and Martha Potter and Messrs. Owen Depew, Fred Liostone and Edward Potter.

Camp 25, Patriotic Order Sons of America, tendered Corporal Charles Geary, of Company D, Thirtieth regiment, a reception last evening in honor of his return. Major Pearce, Chas. MISS WINIFRED HIGGINS RETURNED

Miss Winifred Higgins returned to the coffee drinker. Coffee drinking is a habit that is universally indulged in and almost as universally injurious. Have you tried Grain-O? It is almost like coffee but the effects are just the opposite. Coffee upsets the stomach, causes indigestion, affects the heart and disturbs the whole nervous system. Grain-O tones up the stomach, aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. There is nothing but nourishment in Grain-O. It can't be otherwise. 15 and 50c per package.

Crepons. Are by far the most popular Black Dress Fabric on the market today, and it must be admitted that a hand-some fabric never came from a loom. Besides this, its adaptability to prevailing skirt fashions endears it to the hearts of lovers of style, while it has been amply demonstrated that no other weaves can be substituted, producing the same dressy effects. It is little wonder then that Crepons are again the rage, and are in greater demand than ever.

English Crepons. Are the best in the world, and their latest creations in silk faced goods are marvelously beautiful. But, this is not all, English Crepons wear as satisfactorily as plain weaves. They do not pull out or fray, and are, therefore, absolutely dependable under any and all circumstances. True, they are at present hard to get, but we have succeeded in getting delivery of a full range of the very latest imported novelties, to which we invite inspection. Prices $1.50 to $3.50 a Yard. Another Novelty.
