CITY NOTES

GOOD FRIDAY.—Service this evening in the First Presbyterian church. All the members of the church and congregation are requested to be present.

REGISTRATION.—Milk dealers must register with the food inspector today for their annual license. Those who neglect to register are liable to be held up and prevented from peddling.

RELEASED FROM COUNTY JAIL.—Nellie Palmer was released from the county jail yesterday, where she was imprisoned for eleven months for enticing minor females for immoral purposes.

HANNAWAY OBSEQUIES.—The funeral of the late Frank Hannaway will be held from the residence, 34 Franklin avenue, this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made at the Cathedral cemetery.

ALDERMAN MILLAR OFFICIATES.—Miss Annie Little and August W. Bassano, both of Wyoming avenue, were married yesterday afternoon by Alderman Millar. The couple were unattended and returned to Carbondale on the first train after being married.

FUNERAL TODAY.—The funeral of the late Mrs. Barbara Handegren will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services will be conducted at the German Methodist church, corner of Adams avenue and Vine street. Interment will be made at Forest Hill cemetery.

ARRESTED FOR BEGGING.—James Hogan and John Stipp, vagrants, were up in police court yesterday charged with begging on the streets. Hogan was drunk in addition to being a vagrant and was sent up for twenty days. Stipp was discharged with a reprimand.

CLASS SOCIAL.—The members of the Enterprise Dancing club of which Harry D. Taylor is instructor, conducted one of their pleasant socials in Economy hall last night. About seventy-five couples were in attendance and Miss Nellie Kern furnished the music.

SALE OF CAKES.—The young ladies of the First Presbyterian church have completed their arrangements for the cake sale which will be conducted in the lecture room of the above church tomorrow afternoon. Candy and other delicacies will be displayed for sale, but the cakes are the thing. All interested are invited to attend.

HAND AMPUTATED.—Though every effort was made to save it, it was found necessary yesterday to amputate John Moran's right hand just above the wrist. He was injured at the Forest Mining company's colliery at Archbald, March 29, while trying to block a car. He is only 36 years of age, but bears his awful pain bravely. He rallied well from the effects of the amputation.

NEW TWO-STEP.—Perry Brothers, the Wyoming avenue music dealers, have just published a new march and two-step, the title of which is "First Offense." The composer, Professor L. N. Perry, has cause to be proud of his "First Offense," as it is a composition of unusual merit. Upon the title page Professor Perry modestly says, "For those who survive after hearing this, I beg to dedicate my 'First Offense.'"

COMMANDER BOOTH COMING.—Baldwin Booth, founder and commanding general of the Volunteers of America, will visit Scranton this coming Sunday. He will speak at 10:30 a. m. in the Jackson Street Baptist church, Hyde Park, and at 1:45 in the afternoon in the Lyceum theater Young Men's Christian association

audience in the Nesbitt theater in Wilkes-Barre Sunday evening.

POINT WAS OMITTED.—In the statement of facts concerning the report of the miners' examining board of the Second anthracite district printed in yesterday's Tribune, it was set forth that $675 was paid for advertising and preparing questions. The amount paid was $675. The point was omitted in yesterday's report.

CAUGHT AT LAST.—Chief of Police T. H. Walter, of Stroudsburg, brought Asa Strecker, also of that town to this city yesterday to answer a charge of detaining a board bill of $25.30. He was given a hearing before Alderman Millar and in default of $200 bail was committed to the county jail. Mrs. William Gearhart, of Brook court, was prosecutor, and she has been looking for Strecker for some time.

RAINBOW SUPPER.—The ladies of the Penn Avenue Baptist church served a rainbow supper last night in honor of the returned soldiers. There were ten tables decorated with appropriate colors. Those in charge were Mrs. A. D. Stelle, Mrs. A. Capwell, Mrs. J. E. Stelle, Mrs. Whites, Mrs. D. J. Thomas, Mrs. Emil Weichel, Mrs. Andrew Warner, Mrs. W. H. Smith, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. John Waldins, Mrs. George Prutchey, Mrs. Brundage, Mrs. George Weeks, Mrs. Fassold, Miss Eva Short. Speeches were made by the soldiers who were present. The Browning Literary society had a candy booth.

CHANGES IN CITY HALL.

Two Very Efficient Deputies Are Threned with Dismissal. New Deputy Is Learning the Business.

Charles Hartley, son-in-law of Controller-elect Howell, who is to be deputy controller under the new administration, is engaged in acquainting himself with the business of the office under the tutelage of the present deputy, Edward Eisele. Mr. Howell and his son, John, will also be in the office.

Treasurer-elect Robinson has given no intimation of the make-up of his office when he moves to the front of the building. It is understood that Charles Rosar, who is now a clerk in the controller's office, will accompany Mr. Robinson to the treasury department. Deputy Eisele, who incidentally is regarded in city hall as the best man for the job, in addition to being in charge of the office, will, it is thought, find himself looking for a position.

Deputy Treasurer P. J. Ruane, who has been the actual director of the city's financial affairs, almost since its organization, has as yet received no intimation that he will be invited to continue under the new administration. Miss Dora Haag, it is understood, will succeed one of the present clerks in the treasurer's office.

The new assessors will not employ a clerk, having arranged to attend to the office themselves. They will divide the work so that one of them will be constantly at the office during business hours.

John Power O'Connor, clerk of the chief of police, will retire Monday morning and with his retirement the office is abolished. Under the new arrangement the mayor's secretary, who will be H. C. Hutton, the present common council clerk, will attend to the duties pertaining to the office now filled by Mr. O'Connor as well as those that attach to the office of mayor's secretary. To meet this additional work the salary of the secretary was increased from $900 to $1,200 per annum.

Hugh A. Jones will undoubtedly succeed Mr. Hutton as clerk of the common council. The salary of the office was reduced from $900 to $600 a year, but an effort will be made, it is understood, to put it back to its original figure.

TRIED TO RUN THE ST. DENNIS.

Proprietor, However, Had a Stalwart Bartender There to Do That.

Albert and Elmer Carson, of Keyser Valley, were locked up in the center street station house yesterday for raising a disturbance in the St. Dennis. They were trying to play a nickel-in-the-slot machine that was out of order, and when they discovered it would not work, demanded of the bartender that he return them the equivalent of the three nickels they spent ascertaining that the sign "Out of Order" posted on the front of the machine meant all it said. The bartender said them nay, and they proceeded to raise a rumpus. When Arthur McMullen and Neils rescued the belligerent brothers from the trouble they had brewed, they were a sorry looking pair. The hospital would be a fitter place than the station house for their detention. The main reason for locking them up was to keep them out of further bother.

WILL PLAY IN CHICAGO.

Keogh-De Oro Match to Come Off Next Month.

It will be with much disappointment that the pool and billiard enthusiasts of this city, and, in fact, of the entire east, will learn that the Keogh-De Oro match is not to take place here, as was first reported.

The Manhattan billiard parlors, of Chicago, where Keogh is now giving exhibitions, made a big bid for the game and Keogh accepted the offer. The match will occur April 10, 11 and 12. It will be for the championship of the world and $500 a side. Keogh is confident of retaining the championship and of bringing home an extra $500.

Challenge Accepted.

I accept the challenge issued by Harry White in yesterday's Tribune, to play a series of games of checkers, best out of seven, but will not play for money. If Mr. White cares to accept these terms let him meet me at the American club rooms, West Side, this evening at 7:30 and commence the match. Lyman W. Payne.

Announcement.

I will dispose of my entire stock of diamonds, solid silverware and valuable art display at auction this week. Thomas C. Parker. Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Easter Flowers.

Clark's Easter display is in their annex, No. 205 Washington avenue. First display of all kinds of flowers and decorating plants.

A Card.

We, the undersigned, do hereby agree to refund the money on a 50-cent bottle of Greenes Warranted Scurvy or Tar if it fails to cure your cough or cold. We also guarantee a 50-cent bottle to give satisfactory or money refunded. J. G. Bone & Son, Dunmore, Pa.; John P. Donahue, Scranton, Pa.

INTERESTED IN MISSIONARY WORK

MEETING OF WOMEN IN THE SIMPSON M. E. CHURCH.

It Was the Annual Gathering of the Women's Home Missionary Society of the Wyoming District. Mrs. T. H. Dale, of Elm Park Church, Presided Over the Sessions Held Afternoon and Evening—Was Re-Elected President. Delegates Were Entertained.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Wyoming district was held in Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, West Scranton, yesterday morning and afternoon. The sessions were presided over by Mrs. Thomas H. Dale, of Elm Park church, and the minutes were recorded by Mrs. W. H. Peck. The morning session was marked with the appointment of committees, reports of officers, papers by Mrs. A. Griffin and Miss Lillian C. Moore. The noon hour was occupied in the enjoyment of an excellent menu served by the ladies of the church, and the afternoon session was featured by papers by Mrs. C. M. Giffin, and Mrs. D. L. Rhone. Reports of committees and election of officers were also a part of the afternoon program.

The morning session was opened at 10 o'clock with devotional exercises, led by Mrs. J. E. Sumner, who read the twenty-fourth chapter of Luke. Rev. J. B. Sweet, pastor of Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, welcomed the delegates to Simpson church, and Mrs. Gideon Mosser extended the greeting to the ladies of the society. The response in behalf of the delegates was made by Mrs. G. F. Reynolds. The assemblage then sang a hymn, accompanied on the pipe organ by Miss Grace Acker. Mrs. W. H. Peck, the secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting held one year ago yesterday at Clark's Summit. The minutes, with two slight corrections, were approved as read. Mrs. R. G. Brooks, the treasurer, read the report of the finances, showing a balance in the treasury of $625. The corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. G. Simpson, read her annual report, and made several timely suggestions.

NATIONAL TRAINING SCHOOL.

Professor W. W. Jones, who was on the program for a solo, was unable to be present, owing to illness. Mrs. A. Griffin read a paper on the National Training school, and gave a history of the institution. The committee named Mrs. W. G. Simpson, Mrs. W. G. Simpson and Miss Lillian C. Moore, to look after the work in the Wyoming valley. Reports from the auxiliaries were then read by Miss Hawley, city missionary of Elm Park church; Miss Peck, of North Scranton church; Mrs. Edgar, of Tunkhannock; Mrs. W. G. Simpson, of West Pittston; Mrs. D. L. Rhone, of the First church; Mrs. Mogg, of Central church; Wilkes-Barre; Mrs. Card, of Kingston; Mrs. Woodward, of Clark's Summit; and Mrs. Lyman, of Court street city.

Mrs. C. M. Giffin, of Elm Park church, read a paper on "Our Southern High-landers," which was filled with bright thoughts and clever witticisms. Miss Beattie M. Sloat recited, and Miss Lillian Shively sang a solo. Mrs. D. L. Rhone, of the First church, gave an address of the afternoon on "The Pursuit of Ideals." Her talk was well given and showed excellent preparation. A hymn was afterwards sung by the assemblage.

The committee on place of meeting reported that the City Street church had invited the society to meet with them next year, and the invitation was accepted. The committee on resolutions reported as follows: Whereas, the ladies of Simpson church having extended to us so cordial an invitation to hold our annual district meeting in West Scranton, therefore be it Resolved, That we extend to the pastor and members of this church our sincere thanks for their delightful words of welcome and their generous hospitality.

DINNER IN THE CHURCH.

The ladies of the church served an excellent menu in the lecture room of the church, where six tables were arranged and decorated with cut flowers. The dining room was prettily draped with the national colors, and piano selections were furnished during the meal by Miss Grace Acker. The ladies in charge of the dinner were: Misses Lewis, Mason and Blair, Mrs. J. P. Acker, Mrs. F. C. Hall, Mrs. Thomas Leyshon, Mrs. H. L. Morgan, Mrs. Eyon Stone, Mrs. William Yoh, Mrs. John Whiting, Mrs. Joseph Parr, Mrs. Weldy, Mrs. Widener, Mrs. Cobb, Mrs. Frank Chase, Miss Maud Koerner, Mrs. R. J. Hughes, Mrs. William Hagen, Mrs. M. L. Blair, Mrs. George Carson, Mrs. Summerhill, Mrs. Addison Chase, and Mrs. George Friend.

The ladies from the different churches who sat at the several tables were: Mrs. R. G. Brooks, Mrs. B. L. Richards, Mrs. E. E. Stroehrer, Miss T. Hawley, Mrs. Amelia Smith, Mrs. A. P. Bedford, Mrs. S. Osterhout, Mrs. Arja Williams, Mrs. Sarah Slocum, Mrs. T. H. Dale, Mrs. G. P. Reynolds, Mrs. H. C. Wallace, Mrs. Aubrey Powell, Miss Leovina Birch, Mrs. Stephen Elwell, Mrs. W. H. Peck, Miss Ruth Dale, Mrs. Enos Hall, all of Elm Park church.

Kulp, Mrs. Bird, Mrs. William Williams, Mrs. Howell, Miss Stevens, of Towanda; Mrs. W. T. Litz and others.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The afternoon session of the society was convened at 1:30 o'clock, with the singing of "Take My Life and Let It Be." The devotional exercises were led by Mrs. Pierce, of Wilkes-Barre, who read the fifty-third chapter of Isaiah. Prayer was offered by Mrs. J. L. Race. The assemblage sang "Showers of Blessings," and Rev. Austin Griffin made a short address on "The Work of the Woman's Home Missionary Society." Mrs. W. G. Simpson, of West Pittston, read extracts from reports of the Buffalo Deaconess' Home.

Mrs. Llewellyn moved that a committee be appointed to act in conjunction with the secretary in reference to deaconess work. The committee named was Mrs. Llewellyn, Mrs. W. G. Simpson and Miss Lillian C. Moore, to look after the work in the Wyoming valley. Reports from the auxiliaries were then read by Miss Hawley, city missionary of Elm Park church; Miss Peck, of North Scranton church; Mrs. Edgar, of Tunkhannock; Mrs. W. G. Simpson, of West Pittston; Mrs. D. L. Rhone, of the First church; Mrs. Mogg, of Central church; Wilkes-Barre; Mrs. Card, of Kingston; Mrs. Woodward, of Clark's Summit; and Mrs. Lyman, of Court street city.

CLERK LAVELLE IN ROLE OF "WRINKLES"

SOME INTERESTING GOINGS-ON AT CITY HALL.

While the Republican Selectmen Are Having a Lengthy Wrangle Over the Election of a Candidate for Chairman Mr. Roche and Treasurer Boland Are Left Together in the Clerk's Office with City Clerk Lavelle the Only Relief for the Embarrassment.

City Clerk Lavelle last night enjoyed a "rehearsal" of the position in which George Thatcher's dog "Wrinkles" was wont to make himself useful, when Mr. and Mrs. Thatcher weren't on speaking terms.

It all came about through the unfortunate circumstance of the caucus of Republican selectmen failing on the same night and at the same hour when a meeting was scheduled of the special committee of select council to investigate the matter of interest on city balances.

This committee is composed of Hon. John E. Roche, J. A. Lansing and J. J. Schneider. They met at 8 o'clock in the city clerk's office, the city clerk being on hand to take any minutes of the meeting that might need to be recorded. City Treasurer Boland was requested to be present at the meeting to answer certain questions the investigators wished enlightenment upon, and he was there.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS.

Shortly after 8 o'clock the Republican selectmen assembled in their chamber across the corridor and word was sent to the clerk's office for Mr. Lansing and Mr. Schneider to give their attendance at the caucus. After some discussion as to the most expedient way of attending to both duties the two Republican committeemen arranged that they should attend the caucus and that Mr. Roche and Mr. Boland should await their return, when the remaining business of the committee could be dispatched.

Then it was that Mr. Lavelle served as a reminder of Thatcher's story, "Wrinkles," Mrs. Thatcher would say, "when she wanted cold ordered, 'you'll have a freezing time of it pretty soon if somebody doesn't order cold before long.' And if Mr. Thatcher intended to stay down town he would say, 'Wrinkles, you needn't expect your master home for dinner tonight.' And so on.

This pleasant occupation cut out for Mr. Lavelle would not have been so had it not been that the Republican caucus got into a deadlock. It was expected that the meeting would be over with in short order but it was found that the two candidates, Messrs. Williams and Wagner, were equal favorites. Each had six supporters and each set of supporters was steadfast. Ballot after ballot was taken with the same result every time, Williams, 6; Wagner, 6.

TOSSED UP A PENNY.

Finally it was suggested that the decision be made by lot. "Toss up a penny" some one said. Both sides agreed. "Heads," called Williams. "Tails will do," said Wagner. Mr. Thomas flipped the penny. It came down "heads" and the deadlock was broken.
