

CARBONDALE.

DEATH OF MRS. JUDGE.

Mrs. Owen Judge, of Wyoming street, succumbed to heart failure yesterday. Her death had been expected for several days. She had been a resident of Carbondale many years, and was a member of St. Rose church and the Ladies' Catholic Benevolent association. A husband and six children survive her. The daughters are: Mrs. John Campbell, Mrs. John Fawcett, Kate and Mary Judge; the sons, Michael and Dominick.

NEW OFFICERS.

The Home and Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church have elected the following officers: Mrs. Frank Kilpatrick, president; Mrs. S. T. Burnett, vice president; Mrs. Charles Evans, secretary; Mrs. W. R. Moon, treasurer; Mrs. J. T. Petrick, corresponding secretary; charity committee, Mrs. T. C. Robinson, Mrs. L. D. Wolfe, Mrs. E. Meyers, Mrs. F. C. Whitlock.

DR. PLACE WILL REMAIN.

In all probability Dr. Place will remain with the local Methodists another year. His annual report has been approved and general satisfaction with his services is being expressed. Miss Ida Snyder has been elected organist, vice, Miss Rose Strickland, resigned.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Mary Male will return from New York today. Miss Jessie Moore, of Terrace street, will entertain the Young Ladies' Cooking club this afternoon. All members and friends of the Hendrick Mission society are invited to meet at the home of Mrs. Aaron Fowler, of Canaan street, this afternoon. Ex-Mayor O'Neill has taken an office in the Burke building and will continue the practice of law in this city. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Lowry are visiting in Windsor. Mrs. James Nicol is ill at her home on Spring street. Miss Blanche Bryant has returned to Wymant. J. C. Munn and E. B. Avery were in Scranton on business yesterday. Hayden Evans' singing class will give a recital at Jermyn on the seventeenth inst. The young ladies of Trinity will repeat their minstrel performance in two weeks. John Coyle, of Philadelphia, is visiting relatives in this city. The board of trade will meet again and all citizens interested in the town are urged to be present. The meeting will be open to everybody.

JERMYN.

The reason the Patterson Silk manufacturers are so slow in clinching their bargain with the Jermyn people is that besides our own town they are carrying on negotiations with Mahanoy City, Muncy, Bloomsburg, West Chester, Bellefonte and Hallstead. The committee were evidently wise when they postponed canvassing for the funds until the firm had replied to the communication sent them. Frank Collins is again out of the hospital, where the recent skin-transplanting operation was performed upon him and which is regarded as a complete success. His friends will be glad to learn that the use of his leg will be fully restored. The Cecilia club of Carbondale consisting of twenty-two ladies, under the direction of Professor Hayden Evans, assisted by Mrs. Hannah Leonard, soprano; Howell Davis, tenor, and Lewis Herbert, basso, will give a grand concert in Enterprise hall on the 17th, under the auspices of the Crystal Fire company. The concert will be a musical treat and will no doubt be largely attended.

W. Trotter has joined the regular army, and left yesterday for Columbus, Ohio. Miss Emily Rich, of Main street, was a Scranton visitor yesterday. William Merritt, a former Jermyn resident who for some time has been outside foreman at the Rendham colliery, has moved back to his farm at Scott. Miss Clara Waring, of Scranton, is the guest of the Misses Osborne, of Main street. Thomas Jones, of this borough, who for some time has been training at Scott, has given up his farm there and moved on Mr. Bray's farm near Honedale. T. E. Griffiths was at Scranton visitor yesterday. C. H. Sears, adjuster of the Home Insurance company of New York, was in town yesterday adjusting the loss on the recent fire. Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Hill, of Main street, were in Scranton yesterday. The borough council will hold their regular monthly meeting this evening.

In 1888 my wife went East and was attacked with rheumatism. She received no relief until she tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Since that time we have never been without it. We find it gives instant relief in cases of burns and scalds and is never failing for all rheumatic and neuralgic pains.—D. C. Brant, Santa Ynez, Cal. For sale by all druggists. Matthews Bros., wholesale and retail agents.

TUNKHANNOCK.

The officers of Tunkhannock lodge, No. 699, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, were installed on Tuesday evening by D. D. G. M., N. E. Overfield, of Meshoppen lodge, No. 529, as follows: N. G. Harry E. Cortright; V. G., Wallace G. Haynes; secretary, J. F. Sicker; assistant secretary, W. U. Shaw; treasurer, F. C. Burgess; W. E. S. Wintermute; C. Giles H. Ross; O. G. Edwin Furman; I. G., Freeman J. Welch; R. S., Henry Harding; R. S., W. J. Scutt; R. S., Alex. Smiles; R. S., S. S., George H. Jones; chaplain, C. E. McVicar; R. S. of V. G., Anderson Dana; L. S. of V. G., B. D. Gardner. The following dates are fixed for the installation of officers of other lodges in the county: Mill City lodge, No. 890, special meeting April 7; Red Jacket lodge, No. 524, Factoryville, regular meeting April 8; Nicholson lodge, No. 857, regular meeting April 10; Laceyville lodge, No. 439, regular meeting April 15. W. Dean Sampson, now burgess of Tunkhannock borough, was an old-time member of Triton Hose company. His father was a charter member of the company and Dean joined the Tritons when they were located in the wooden building on Putnam street, and helped to build wood fires in the old stove and haul the old four-wheel truck, all the old leather hose and performed the various pleasant duties which fell to the lot of the firemen in those days. He afterwards moved to Emporium and became a member of the company at that place. He returned to Tunkhannock and again joined Triton Hose company, this time as an honorary member. At the meeting on Tuesday evening the company unanimously, and without solicitation on the part of Mr. Sampson, voted to make him a life member of the company, with all dues remitted, in recognition of services to the company.

Mrs. J. S. Turn, of Scranton, who has been visiting with her mother, Mrs. Catherine Townsend, returned home on Wednesday. In the estate of Lavina Champion, late of North Branch township, deceased, letters testamentary were yesterday issued to Henry R. Champion. William M. Platt, Jr., of Lafayette college, who has been spending Easter with his parents here, has returned to Easton.

Dr. D. W. Sturdevant, of Laceyville, was in Tunkhannock on Wednesday. J. T. Kothledge, justice of the peace, has moved his office to rooms in the Platt block on Bridge street. As an experiment I finally bought a fifty cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at a drug store and gave them to him. Almost immediate relief was given and after he had used four boxes he was to all appearances fully cured.

There was no more acidity or sour, watery risings, no bloating after meals, the appetite was vigorous and he has gained between 10 and 12 pounds in weight of solid, healthy flesh. Although Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are advertised and sold in drug stores, yet I consider them a most valuable addition to any physician's line of remedies, as they are perfectly harmless and containing nothing but fruit and vegetable essences, pure pepsin and Golden Syrup.

Without any question they are the safest, most effective cure for indigestion, biliousness, constipation and all derangements of the stomach, however slight or severe. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are made by the F. A. Stuart Co., of St. Louis, Mich., and are sold by druggists everywhere at fifty cents per package. Little book on stomach diseases mailed free, address F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. Knights of Malta, will meet this evening in their rooms. Dr. and Mrs. James E. Thompson have returned home from their week-long tour, which included New York and other resorts. John H. Fern, of Sumner avenue, Hyde Park, was a caller on friends in this place the forepart of the week. All members of the Taylor Silver Cornet band are requested to meet on Monday evening in their rooms in Weber's hall at 7:30 o'clock sharp. Mrs. Thomas Evans, of Eynon street, Hyde Park, was a guest of friends in this place on Wednesday. The funeral of the late Mrs. Thomas M. Davis, of Plymouth, occurred from the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Davis, of Main street, yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Services were held at the house by the Rev. Ivar Thomas, of the Welsh Congregational church. Burial was made in the Presbyterian cemetery. A neat suit was realized by the Ladies' Branch, No. 442, C. M. B. S., from their banquet held in Weber's rink on Monday and Tuesday evenings.

Mrs. David T. Davis, of Hazelton, has been the guest of relatives in this place for the past few days. Taylorville Lodge, No. 668, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will install officers at tomorrow evening's meeting. Mrs. Daniel Jones, of Pittston, is visiting relatives in this place. Mrs. William Davis, of South Scranton, was the guest of relatives in this place. Peter Lally, the popular druggist, of Rendham, has received the appointment as postmaster of that place, to succeed Mr. George B. Jermyn. Mr. W. J. Davis, of North Taylor, has purchased a beautiful team of blacks, which can trot a mile in 2:50 or better. Don't forget to attend the baby show to be held in the Price Library hall this evening under the auspices of the Junior League of the M. F. church. Mr. David J. Davis, who is employed as a miner in the North Taylor mine, was quite seriously injured yesterday afternoon by falling from a ledge taken to his home on Main street. His injuries are quite serious. Little Ruby Gagner is able to be around, after a severe attack of diphtheria. Funeral Director John E. Davis is much improved.

WHAT PEOPLE SAY about Hood's Sarsaparilla is that it cures when all other remedies fail. Therefore you should take Hood's Sarsaparilla in preference to all others. Hood's Pills cure biliousness, Mailed for 25 cents by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

FECKVILLE. The antics of a crazy man created great excitement at Bell Place yesterday morning. The man is a Hungarian and at his boarding house he assaulted a boarder and then jumped through a second-story window, taking sash and all in his flight. He alighted on the ground apparently unhurt. Special Officer L. B. Thomson was notified and he undertook to capture the man, who was whooping and yelling like an Indian, but he would not let the officer get near him and at last Thompson started in to run him down. Meanwhile a large crowd collected and joined in the chase. The Hungarian led the officer to the mountain, and last seen of him he was at the Ontario shaft. Every effort is being made to capture the man. Merchant W. F. Ketcham was a visitor at Scranton yesterday. The funeral of the late Phillip Keller will take place from the residence of Mr. C. D. Keller, of Main street, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mr. I. F. Hoyt has been made general manager of the Scranton Coal company stores located at Scranton.

The Most Popular Bicycle The Baldwin FLOREY & BROOKS, Agts.

INTENSE SUFFERING

FROM DYSPEPSIA AND STOMACH TROUBLE.

Instantly Relieved and Permanently Cured by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

A New Discovery, But Not a Patent Medicine.

Dr. Redwell relates an interesting account of what he considers a remarkable cure of acute stomach trouble and chronic dyspepsia by the use of the new discovery, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. He says: "The patient was a man who had suffered to my knowledge for years with dyspepsia. Everything he ate seemed to sour and create gas in the stomach; he had pains like rheumatism in the back, shoulder blades and limbs, fullness and distress after eating, poor appetite and loss of flesh; the heart became affected, causing palpitation and sleeplessness at night. I gave him powerful nerve tonics and blood remedies, but to no purpose. As an experiment I finally bought a fifty cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at a drug store and gave them to him. Almost immediate relief was given and after he had used four boxes he was to all appearances fully cured. There was no more acidity or sour, watery risings, no bloating after meals, the appetite was vigorous and he has gained between 10 and 12 pounds in weight of solid, healthy flesh. Although Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are advertised and sold in drug stores, yet I consider them a most valuable addition to any physician's line of remedies, as they are perfectly harmless and containing nothing but fruit and vegetable essences, pure pepsin and Golden Syrup. Without any question they are the safest, most effective cure for indigestion, biliousness, constipation and all derangements of the stomach, however slight or severe. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are made by the F. A. Stuart Co., of St. Louis, Mich., and are sold by druggists everywhere at fifty cents per package. Little book on stomach diseases mailed free, address F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. Knights of Malta, will meet this evening in their rooms. Dr. and Mrs. James E. Thompson have returned home from their week-long tour, which included New York and other resorts. John H. Fern, of Sumner avenue, Hyde Park, was a caller on friends in this place the forepart of the week. All members of the Taylor Silver Cornet band are requested to meet on Monday evening in their rooms in Weber's hall at 7:30 o'clock sharp. Mrs. Thomas Evans, of Eynon street, Hyde Park, was a guest of friends in this place on Wednesday. The funeral of the late Mrs. Thomas M. Davis, of Plymouth, occurred from the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Davis, of Main street, yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Services were held at the house by the Rev. Ivar Thomas, of the Welsh Congregational church. Burial was made in the Presbyterian cemetery. A neat suit was realized by the Ladies' Branch, No. 442, C. M. B. S., from their banquet held in Weber's rink on Monday and Tuesday evenings.

OLD FORGE.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Edsall attended the funeral of a relative in Wyalusing on Wednesday. The Ladies' Aid society of the Brick church will meet on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. L. Santos. Mr. Charles Repp has returned home after spending a few days with his parents in this place. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dolph attended the funeral of Mr. A. M. Ridgeway, in Scranton, on Wednesday. Mr. William Drake returned to his studies at Lehigh on Tuesday after spending his vacation at the home of his parents. Professor and Mrs. Santos, of Wilkes-Barre, visited the past week, at the home of his brother, Rev. E. L. Santos, from Lehigh, but throughout the Lackawanna and Wyoming valleys. The services were conducted by Rev. J. J. McKilpin Fletcher, of the East Side, assisted by a quartette from the same denomination. The floral offerings by the members of the poor board, the Knights and Ladies of Honor and the Christian neighbors and a fond and affectionate wife and mother. The funeral arrangements were under the supervision of the members of the Knights and Ladies of Honor and the pall-bearers were members of that order and the school board, of which the husband of the deceased is an honored member. Among those in attendance were Mayor Harding, James Young, Dumas, C. C. Deason, of Luzerne borough; Prof. Shiel, Alex. Sloan, William Abboth, Andrew Bryden, Adam A. Bryden, Alex. Craig, Alex. Thompson, William Simpson and John Scrimgeour.

PITSTON NEWS.

The Sad and Solemn Obsequies Attending the Funerals of the Late Mrs. Gilbert S. Jones and John W. Smiles—Members of the Select Council in Trouble, and the Probable Outcome—The Very Latest Local News Picked Up Last Night.

The obsequies of Mrs. Gilbert, which occurred from the residence on Frothingham street, were attended by a large concourse of people, not only from here, but throughout the Lackawanna and Wyoming valleys. The services were conducted by Rev. J. J. McKilpin Fletcher, of the East Side, assisted by a quartette from the same denomination. The floral offerings by the members of the poor board, the Knights and Ladies of Honor and the Christian neighbors and a fond and affectionate wife and mother. The funeral arrangements were under the supervision of the members of the Knights and Ladies of Honor and the pall-bearers were members of that order and the school board, of which the husband of the deceased is an honored member. Among those in attendance were Mayor Harding, James Young, Dumas, C. C. Deason, of Luzerne borough; Prof. Shiel, Alex. Sloan, William Abboth, Andrew Bryden, Adam A. Bryden, Alex. Craig, Alex. Thompson, William Simpson and John Scrimgeour.

Another sad funeral yesterday afternoon was that of the late Mrs. John W. Smiles, which took place from the family residence on the West Side, and owing to the prominence of the mourning friends a large attendance was present to pay a last tribute of respect to one who in her life had given tokens of the esteem in which she was held and who was known by a wide circle of friends as a kind and Christian neighbor and a fond and affectionate wife and mother. The funeral arrangements were under the supervision of the members of the Knights and Ladies of Honor and the pall-bearers were members of that order and the school board, of which the husband of the deceased is an honored member. Among those in attendance were Mayor Harding, James Young, Dumas, C. C. Deason, of Luzerne borough; Prof. Shiel, Alex. Sloan, William Abboth, Andrew Bryden, Adam A. Bryden, Alex. Craig, Alex. Thompson, William Simpson and John Scrimgeour.

Most anxious men in the city today are Paul Bohan and James Henegan, of the select council. The former will have to face two warrant proceedings, and District Attorney Martin will ask the court how it comes about that Bohan is a member of the council and also a member of the poor board. It is very unfortunate for Mr. Bohan that this very important matter should be sprung at this particular time, from the fact that on Monday evening next there will be a joint session of the council for the purpose of electing a city solicitor and Attorney Bohan, who is the present incumbent, is a prominent candidate for re-election. The contest will be a close one, with Attorney Donnelly as the opposing candidate, and as this is a case where every vote counts, it is not surprising that both look to one "up a tree," that there are both lively times and trouble ahead. Henegan, who was deposed by Chairman Langan, and who in return was succeeded by the ever-watchful and cozy F. J. Joyce, believes he will yet have his innings and can yet see before him the day near at hand when he can once more resume his seat and get even with those who tried to "nlp in the bud" his highest ambition. At any rate there is fun ahead at next Monday night's session, and Chairman McDonough is busily engaged reading up Cushing's manual for the event.

Mrs. Livy Richards and family, of Scranton, are guests of Mrs. William Bechtold, her mother. Mrs. Bowman and wife were entertained yesterday morning for a quiet exercise, and attracted considerable attention by their excellent horsemanship.

There is a rubber-tired vehicle in the city, the first one, and a cracker jack at the Pittston office. A world tourist struck the town yesterday with his bike and pushed his wheel through Main street, because he had lost his lamp down in the vicinity of Port Griffith. The sun was shining.

Charles Sheppard, D. D., will install the officers of Pittston Lodge I. O. O. F., this evening. A. H. Boys, a member of Company B, Two Hundred and First regiment, New York volunteers, and who has just been mustered out of Greenville, South Carolina, was in the city last evening and is the guest of Del Terrell, at the Sinclair house. He will go to his home in Ithica this morning.

"The London Gaiety Girls," with their up-to-date extravaganza company will be the next attraction at Music hall. Their dates are next Monday and Tuesday. John Clark, a driver boy at one of the mines at Moosic and who had one of his limbs badly lacerated by the cars, was brought down here to the hospital yesterday.

Eather Armstrong, the little daughter of Thomas Armstrong, residing on Railroad street, and who was severely burned on last Tuesday by her clothes becoming ignited when playing at a fire in the garden, died yesterday after suffering excruciating pain. She was a bright and interesting child and the parents are nearly distracted over the sad and unfortunate occurrence.

F. Maloney, a member of the select council, having removed to Maryland, there is now another vacancy in the body. John Dempsey, ex-Burgess Burke, Peter Kimmy and M. McAndrews are already out as candidates. There is fun and plenty of it ahead for Oregon.

REPUBLICAN PARTY'S BIRTH.

The Part Played in It by the Late Joseph Medill.

From the Times-Herald. How Mr. Medill came to found the Republican party when he was but 32 years of age is a story but little known to the outside world. Shortly after General Scott's defeat and before Senator Douglas' Kansas-Nebbraska bill had set the abolitionists wild Mr. Medill sat down and wrote letters to the leaders of the disgruntled and disorganized Whig party, asking them if they would assist in the formation of a new Republican party on the ruins of the old Whig organization. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him. First of all he wrote to Joseph Greely, with whom he had for some years had a considerable intimacy. He had been a correspondent of the New York Tribune and had visited Mr. Greely in New York (it was on the occasion of one of these visits, over forty years ago, that young westerner who had been introduced by "the chief" to Mr. Dana, and when Mr. Greely in his lecturing tour had visited the Western Reserve it was Mr. Medill who had entertained him