

membered as one of great gaiety, distinctive in unusual elegance of its entertainments and exceptionally favornole as to sunshine. After the long winter, remarkable for the assorted varieties of bad weather, to have four few days longer. bright, unclouded days in succession, with sunshine and stars for the Easter bride and debutante is to be especially blessed. So far as recorded, no cry of a child or howl of a dog in the house of the wedding feast gave the omen of a dire future to any happy bride. The young people danced-the whole week through and the swift round of enjoyment leaves apparently no regrets in its train. The motto of Scranton soclety should be "A short life and a social events in a brief space of time, and the long and weary season of dull-ness which follows. The city is full of visitors this week, an unusually large of class mates in town.

Scranton people are very slow to adopt the custom of rising at a church wedding as the bride enters the door, They do manage to struggle to their feet more or less irregularly as the service opens, but the graceful, pretty tribute to the bride as she walks down the aisle so universal in most cities is not in vogue here. It is to be regretted, for in that trying moment as she passes between the divided throngs it would send a thrill of pride and delight to her heart if the friends who come to see her take the marriage yows would rise in a mass, thus giving a silent, expressive greeting as she steps out into a new life, leaving her girlhood behind. A seated throng at a wedding seems to partake of the character of cold curiosity, a standing congregation of friends has a pleasant atmosphere of dignified respect and affection. Please everybody rise for the sake of the fair bride as she enters at the next church wedding.

The marriage of Miss Frances Winton, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Winton, to Mr. Arthur Twitchell on Wednesday at the Green Ridge Presbyterian church was an event which attracted more than local attention and will long be remembered for its many brilliant features. Rev. Dr. Lansing performed the ceremony. The wedding music, which was to have been rendered on the organ, was given by Bauer's orchestra, which at the last moment was ordered from the home of the bride because of a sudden defection of the organ. The bride was given away by her father.

The bridal party, which was unusually large, was composed of Miss Dorr, of Saginaw, Mich., who was maid of honor; Miss Helen Winton, sister of the bride, who preceded the procession as flower girl; Miss Lowe, of Dayton, O.; Miss Twitchell, of Portland, Me.; Miss Eleanor Anderson, Miss Augusta Archbald, Miss Alice Belin, Miss Frances Hunt, Miss Elspeth Winton and Miss Ethel Boles, and the ushers: Messrs. D. E. Bird, Gordon Brown New York: Harry Syracuse; Harry Fenton, Jamestown, N. Y.; G. M. Alden, Troy N. Y.; L. WintonBarry, John Mairs Williamstown, Mass., and Mortimer B. Fuller, of this city, with the best man Mr. Robert Brown, of Portland, Me.

Many out-of-town guests and friends of this city filled the handsome family residence on Sanderson avenue, where at the close of the ceremony, the wed-ding breakfast was served by Purssell, of New York. The floral decorations were exquisite. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful and were shown in an upper room, making an elegant and costly array.

Upon their return from a journey Mr. and Mrs. Twitchell will occupy Dr. C. R. Parke's residence on Quincy

The Entre-Nous club held a sale on Saturday afternoon and evening at the home of Mrs. E. H. Ripple for the benefit of the Home for the Friendless The club is composed of a number of young girls, who have worked hard for this purpose and their efforts were a great success.

Miss Mary Nicol and her Sunday school class of the Green Ridge Presbyterian church gave a delightful surprise to the old ladies at ...e Home for the Friendless last Saturday afternoon in the shape of an Easter entertainment, when the matron and each of the ladies were presented with a potted plant. The young ladies sang several

Miss Dorr, of Saginaw, Mich., the maid of honor at the Winton-Twitchell wedding, and Miss Lowe, of Dayton, O., one of the bridesmaids, are two of the fairest young women who have ever visited Scranton. They have been guests of Mrs. H. M. Boles during their stay this week. Yesterday Miss Lowe was obliged to submit to

For nearly half a century we have been making and selling to the best trade the highest grade

women's shoes in theworld.

With our experience in this line we have been able to reduce the cost of a high grade shoe to a minimum.

The price of $4.00 is today recognized as the fairest

LEWIS, REILLY & DAVIES,

This Easter week will long be re- f an operation to her thumb, where a slight injury to the flesh near the nan had resulted in a painful abcess. She had expected to go to New York today, but owing to the necessity for immediate treatment may remain a

Miss Jessie Bates Johnson and Oscar King Davis, of New York, were married Wednesday morning at 11 at the First Presbyterian church, Binghamton, N. Y. The wedding was an event of social importance and for some time before the hour of the ceremony friends began to assemble at the church. The ushers, Fred-erick Ayres Johnson, brother of the merry one for verily that theory is John M. Davidge and William H. Hetully carried out in the spasmodic rush which characterizes the crowding in of was best man. The bridge and Vork, social events in a bridge and william H. Hetully was best man. bride, Albert H. Walker, of New York; Miss Elizabeth Mix, of Chicago, Miss Helena Knapp, Miss Agnes Weed and Miss Isabelle M. Winters, gowned alike in yellow. Miss Margaret Johnson, number of young women being guests sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The bride entered on the arm of her father, Hon. J. M. Johnson. Her gown, one of exquisite beauty, was made of white corded silk en train, elaborately trimmed with real old lace, with bow knot effect. Her bridal veil was daintly fastened with orange blossoms and her hand she gracefully carried a uquet of white orchids. Rev. Arthur R. Teal, assistant pastor of the church, and Rev. Henry Hallam Tweedy, of Utica, performed the cere-Mr. and Mrs. Davis will sail April 17 for Manila, where Mr. Davis will have charge of the New York

> A vast circle of friends of Mrs. Thomas Dickson will be pleased to learn that she has made a most unexpectedly speedy recovering from the recent operation upon her eyes and will return to her home in this city to-

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Smith gave beautiful dinner at their home on Clay avenue on Saturday in honor of Miss Galpin and her guests, Miss McGee, Miss Hurt, and Miss Savage. Among others present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Blackinton, Messrs, Frank I. Linen, Hugh Archbald, John B. S. Galpin and Clarke Guild. The table decorations were in white and green,

Mrs. M. R. Kays gave a protty tea at her home in Green Ridge Tuesday aftermoon. She was assisted in receiving by Mrs. J. B. Van Bergen, of Carbon-

Mrs. N. Y. Leet gave a luncheon Tuesday for Miss Galpin and her guests, Miss McGee, Miss Savage and Miss Hurt, Announcement has been made of the approaching marriage of Jacob Schwartz, of this city, and Miss Annie Friedberg, of New York city, which will occur Saturday, April 15, at the residence of the bride's parents, 127 Lewis street.

Miss Lucia Rittenhouse entertained

Mrs. E. L. Fuller gave a chicken nd waffle supper Thursday night at the Country club. Among those present were Mrs. John Ryon, of Pottsville; Mrs. Brewster, of Rochester; Miss Dorr. Miss Lowe. Miss Anderson, Miss Dale, Miss Belin, Miss Stenon, of Philadelphia; the Misses Archhald, Miss Hunt; Messrs, Robert Brown, of Portland, Me.; Morgan, of St. Louis, Huntington, C. A. Belia, William Torrey, Mortimer Fuller, Bliss, A. G. Hunt, J. B. Neale,

The Phi-Alphas will give a dance Monday night at the Country club,

Miss Mabel Schlager gave a card party Monday evening, when the guests were Miss Haentgen, of Bellafontaine, Ia.; Miss Stewart, Miss Simpson, Miss Amy Northup, Miss Emma Burns, Miss May Albro, Miss Emma Foster, Miss Helen West, Miss Cora Watts, Miss Salmon, Messrs, Harry Simpson, Harry Houck, Frank Leonard, Isaac Haslam, Warren Pierson, Howard and Ray Fuller, Ford Pratt, Charles Yeall, True Surdam,

Miss Amy Northup gave an informal dance Thursday evening in honor of Watts and Miss Salmon, of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Boyer will give cotillion and reading at the Bicycle club Tuesday evening.

The most superb dance ever given in this city was that of Tuesday ever. ing, when Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Fuller entertained at the Bicycle club. decorations were original and beautiful. There were many lovely Easter gowns and a great number of outof-town guests. Every detail was carried out to perfection and the oc.asion was a memorable one. Mr. and one should pay for the best shoes made. The

"Easefelt" shoes for women are $4.00 per pair - all styles.

Oxfords

Mrs. Fuller have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Brewster, of Rochester; Mr. and Mrs. John Ryon and son, of Pottsville; Miss Stenson, of Philadelphia, and Mr. Guerin, of New York.

The next event of importance after Rosenthal's appearance will be the much-talked of "Song Cycle," "In a Persian Garden," at St. Luke's Parish house. The beautiful programme entirely of vocal music will be presented on the 17th. As there is but a limited number of tickets sold only by subscription, they are in great demand,

"The Cooking Club," made up of emall maidens on the Hill, gave a dinner last night at the home of, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Platt. It is the custom of these young girls to each prepare something with their own hands for the menu. As one of the club remarked yesterday: "We all cook something and take it to some other girl's house and then we cat it up, Tonight we are each going to take a boy." Dear me!" exclaimed her mother, "you don't mean to say you will eat him up, too?"

The guests last evening were Misses Helen Holbrook, of Auburn, N. Y.; Helen Boies, Marjorie Platt, Helen Hulbert, Marjorie Collins, Louise Smith, Edith Holland, Masters Gorden and Essen Taylor, Curtis and Philip Platt, Kenneth Wells, Arthur Mat-

Mrs. J. Selden Bair entertained a large company of people at the Country club Tuesday night in honor of her children, Bessie and John.

Miss Cornella Galpin gave a charming reception Monday afternoon for guests, Miss McGee, Miss Hurt and Miss Savage. At the table during the afternoon were Mrs. E. S. Moffatt, Mrs. G. duB, Dimmick, Mrs. E. N. Willard and Mrs. N. Y. Leet. Others who assisted were Mrs. George Wesley, Miss Lois Schlager, Miss Leila Steell, Miss Nash, Miss Lewis, of West Pittston, and Miss Lydia Farrar. The gentlemen who acted as ushers were Messrs. Hugh Archabld, Frank Linen, Max Bessell and Douglas Mof-

Monday night which was largely at-

Many Scrantonians went to Wilkes-Barre Wednesday night to see and hear the Princeton boys.

The dancing party given by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Belin, Jr., for their daughter. Miss Margaretta, was one of the pleasantest events of the year. Many out-of-town guests were present, Miss Olive MacIntosh was married to Dr. Henry MacVeagh Brown, of Philadelphia, on Wednesday, The eremony took place in the First Presbyterian church, Rev. Dr. Logan officiating, assisted by Rev. Dr. McLeod, Miss Hope MacIntosh, of New York, was maid of honor. Misses Louise Connell and Eleanor Kingsbury were bridesmaids. The best man was Mr. George Platt Pilling, of Philadelphia. The ushers were Charles G. Wightman, Jr., Dr. Edward Elmslie Pyle Edward C. Dixon, Edgar Brown, a brother of the groom, all of Philadelphia, and Harry Simpson and Arthur Foote, of this city.

Movements of People

Photographer C. L. Griffin was in New Miss Mertice Bailey has returned from visit in Harford. as in Chinchilla this week.

Miss Gertrude Williams, of Ash street, visiting in Clark's Summit. Mrs. J. A. Robertson will spend the next fortnight at Atlantic City.

Mrs. John Ryon and son, of Pittsville are guests of Scranton friends. Assistant District Attorney W. Gay lord Thomas is ill with the grip.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Matthews returned from a visit in Buffalo. Mrs. James A. Linen and Miss Linen will go to New York on Monday Miss Helen Holbrook, of Yonkers, N. Y., is the guest of Miss Helen Boies. Miss Mabel Waterman and Miss Jennie the eaves."

Drum are visiting friends in Elmhurst. By that t

Quincy avenue.

York, this week.

ome in Orange, Miss Hope MacIntosh, who has been he guest of Mrs. George Chase, will reurn to New York today. ited friends here Thursday.

and Ella O'Connor, of Oswego, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Sanderson and Miss Elizabeth Sanderson will go to Atlantic next week to spend some time. E. Durkee, general baggage agent

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Griffiths and Miss Flora Matthews went to New York on Wednesday, from whence Mr. Griffith will go to Roston. James C. Conroy, proprietor of the Excelsior Glass works, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who was called here by the illness of his wife, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. I. . Williams, of Adams avenue, has re-

William D. Zehnder, assistant general manager of the Pennsylvania Belt and Nut company of this city, and E. Marshal Zehnder, superintendent of mills of the same company, tendered their resignations to the officers of the corporation his morning, to take effect at the pleasure of the company. The moving cau of the resignations is the promotion that each gentleman elsewhere, a new imilar industry to that they leave having been established in Scranton, known as the Scranton Bolt and Nut company, with i paid in capital of $150,000 W. D. Zenn-ter has been chosen president of the new ompany, while E. M. Zehnder b general superintendent.-Lebanon Report.

Where the Kicking Comes from. Indignant Patriot-Think of President confederate badge on his cont down there Elderly Man (wearing G. A. R. button) Oh, yes! Let's think of it. By the way, what battles were you in during the civil war? "I wasn't in any, but-"

"I thought not."-Chicago Tribune.

HER POINT OF VIEW

There are women who profess to abhor big teas and receptions. Possibly they are sincere. Some times it is mere affectation. To be sure one is apt to meet persons upon whom one does not call; the same may happen at church, at funerals and weddings, or even at carpet auctions and bargain sales. One may feel that it is not exclusive enough but then it is so hard to be truly ex-clusive in this world. About the only really exclusive place that I can call to mind just now is one's own grave, but there will be such a long time to occupy that in proud and silent security from undesirable acquaintances that one can really afford to attend a big tea now and then and rub shoulders against warm, living bodies in their pretty gowns and their spring hats. It is nice to be exclusive but it is rather lonely. The exclusive woman may excite envy but she isn't likely to be universally loved. But then probably she prefers to be envied.

But to return to the large reception It is a noisy place. Everybody talks at once, everybody gets into the crush at the entrance of the dining room and politely fights for the loaves and fishes served up in the shape of ices and little cakes. Every one takes the best um brella and the likeliest pair of overshoes when she leaves and goes home without an appetite for dinner to the infinite disgust of her husband. But after all it has certain most commendable features. You never hear unkind things about yourself or other people at a big tea. You are afraid to say unkind things lest the wrong ears hear, and so only the nice, pleasant complimentary remarks are made and you go away feeling complacent and satisfied with yourself and rather glad you are alive. You are civil to your enemy and speak smilingly to the woman who induced the milliner to copy your new hat, and accordingly entertain a highly virtuous opinion of yourself when it you stay away because "teas are so common you know," you will probably before night-fall look out and see the The "Rod and Gun Club" gave a happy throngs passing in the sunshine pretty dance at the Excelsion club and grow to thinking about your troubles and your worries which are so much worse than other people's troubles and worries, and will finally come to the conclusion that life isn't so very destrable and that not only your doll but all the other beautiful dolls in the world are stuffed with sawdust. If you really do like to mingle with other nice women and be pleasant and hear pleasant things about yourself, don't be afraid to acknowledge the truth and say that you like "teas" as the term is understood in Scranton,

People do such funny things at fires Not long ago a residence on the hill was being more or less devastated as to its interior, and kindly hands were swiftly removing the furniture when the house mistress suddenly remembered her jewels. Then she also remembered the burglar fright which had pervaded the air all winter and how she had diverted herself for months in searching out new hiding places which would puzzle the most enterprising bur-Then the realization that she couldn't remember the last place over-whelmed her. "Dear me!" she wailed. They aren't under the mattress for John objected. I did put 'em in the refrigerator one night, but the next day I heard that my neighbor's refrigerator had been broken open and the Sunday Ray Fuller has returned to Lafayetto turkey stolen, so I didn't put them there any more. Let me see! They Mrs. E. C. Lynde will spend next week aren't under the clock are they? No. Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Edgerton, have gone aren't in the hole in the table, where John keeps his poker chips, because was afraid he might forget and put them up for an ante. Oh, dear! I do believe the last place I put them was Miss Bertha Conover has recurred from the hollow in the back of McKinley's visit in Binghamton.

Miss May Powell, of Summit avenue, the library mantel." So a hasty hunt was made for McKinley and the lady of the house was pacified when he couldn't be found by the assurance that probably some neighbor had taken him and that her jewel case would be safe as no one would think of looking in that spot. Suddenly she cried: "Oh. oh, I know where it is, I remember The other night I took it out of McKinley's head because the newspaper said that the burglars always looked in the bric-a-brac the first thing, and I put the box in the attic back under By that time the attic was filled with Miss Detrick, of Wilkes-Barre, is the dense smoke. Two or three men rushed uest of Miss Van Dyke on Marion street. up there and after almost suffocating Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Simpson and Miss and nearly rendering themselves gibimpson have returned from New Mex- bering idiots for life by reason of re-Misses Cora Watts and Grace Salmon peated bumps on their heads from the guests of Miss Anna Salmon on low rafters, they found the jewel case and brought it to the owner. By this Miss Ethel Frothingham has been en- time she was on the verge of hysterics ed:

tertaining Dr. Raiman Fetty, of New and after opening the box she exclaim-"Oh my solitaire diamond ring Miss Clarke, who has been the guest isn't here. It must have dropped out Miss Archbald, has returned to her in that corner of the attic." Then there was another rescue expedition skyward with a repetition of the experience of the former party, but it proved fruit-General Passenger Agent of the Le-ligh Valley Railroad Charles Lee, vis-turned the lady happened to look at her hand and saw that she was wearing Mrs. W. F. Connors, of Mulberry street, the ring supposed to be missing.

A prominent citizen rushed into house where a fire was in progress the other morning intent on assisting in the removal of valuables. A handsome of the Delaware and Hudson railroad, table on which stood what he hastily called upon acquaintances here yesterday, decided to be a vase, caught his atten-Rev. G. W. Weish, the paster of the tion, and he proceeded to run out with the calvary Reformed church, has removed the latter, noticing as he did so that

Is no better cure than Dr. Humphreys' Specifies

For Neuralgia, No. 8. For Headache and Sick Headache, No. 9.

For Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Weak Stomach, No. 10. For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Rheum and Erysipelas, No. 14. For Rheumatism and Lumbago, No. 13 For Whooping-Cough, No. 20. For Kidney Diseases, No. 27. For Urinary Diseases, No. 30.

For other Specifics see Dr. Humphreys Manual: at drug stores, or sent free. At druggists or sent prepaid; 25c. & $1.90. Humphreys' Med. Co., Cor. William & ohn Sts., New York, He sure to get

BEST FOR THE SICK.

Nurses and Doctors Are Now Prescribing Paine's Celery Compound.

nurses The opportunity to try is certainly forced on every woman at some time in her life, and when the time comes and sickness enters her home, she should know exactly what to do. She can follow no better advice than the expert counsel of physicians and trained nurses who every day see before their eyes the wonderful results of Paine's celery compound among their sick, debilitated, and nervously exhausted patients. Paine's celery compound is the only spring medicine that has the confidence of, and is used and prescribed by physicians and nurses.

For years they have seen patients under their care rapidly recover healtn and vigor from the use of this wonderful restorative. Miss Cora Smith, whose portrait is riven here, tells of her experience with this great spring remedy. Miss Smith sensible to carry the vase filled, upon reaching the door he threw the water

I have often observed that where a patient has been very weak. Paine's celery compound has quickly returned nim to his wonted vigor, whenever the

She writes:

cago, says:

physician has prescribed it." Paine's celery compound is now the only spring remedy demanded by thoughtful men and women. It has pushed aside the countless unscientific. catch-penny preparations that have no

Hospital for Nurses at Minneapolis,

During the past five years I have found that where the system was run down, nothing was so good as Paine's celery compound. The doctors have often prescribed it to patients under my charge, and I have noted the very recommend it to my friends."

wonderful a record for effectively and astingly curing those diseases that result from deranged nerves and impure blood. It has displaced all other spring remedies, in the opinions of the best lass of druggists and physicians and the great mass of intelligent people who judge of a remedy by its results nore than by what it claims for itself. satisfactory results. I am glad to Thousands of letters have been re-Miss Georgiana Dean, who is a gradceived by the proprietors of Paine's uated nurse from the Francis Willard National Temperance Hospital of Chi-"In my experience as trained nurse, celery compound and by newspapers and medical journals from men and women in every walk of life, all telling one experience-the immediate relief and perfect cure effected by Paine's celery compound.

The best physicians openly endorse t, use it, recommend it and authorize the public use of their statements that Paine's celery compound, in case after case, cures rheumatism and kindred diseases, purifies the blood, regulates the stomach, liver, bowels and kidneys, and rejuvenates the fagged-out or standing among reputable physicians diseased nervous system, out, but was more than dismayed to discover that incidentally he had flung away a collection of gold fish which began to flop about in the grass and gasp uncomfortably after the manner of fish out of water. The subsequent efforts of the persons in the vicinity were devoted to catching the fish before they breathed their last, and then the prominent citizen and those who witnessed the entire scene sat down and laughed Home for the Friendless. until they cried. Saucy Bess.

MUSICAL GOSSIP.

The following teachers have very materially aided Mr. and Mrs. Pennington, of the Conservatory of Music, in the sale of seats for the greatly anticipated concert of Rosenthal, the famous planist, through personal influence with their pupils: Miss A. M. Ansley, Mrs. C. E. Ballentine, Miss Celia Brown, Mr. J. M. Chance, Miss Margaret Clark, Mr. J. Willis Conart, Miss Amy G. Decker, Miss Marie E. DeLong, Mr. Charles H. Doersam, Mr. Hayden Evans, Mr. A. L. Johnson, Mr. Reeve Jones, Miss Hall, Mr. A. E. Morse, Miss Florence Richmond, Miss Rosencrans, Mr. Silas Rosser, St. Cecelia's Academy, Scranton Conservatory of Music, Mrs. E. L. Smith. Mr. E. E. Southworth, Mr. F. H. Widmayer, Mr. Alfred Wooler. The result is shown by the fact that the entir Lyceum balcony is sold for Wednes day evening to teachers and students of music, which is the first time in the history of this city that this has occurred. This of itself speaks volumes in favor of Rosenthal's greatness. With every seat in the balcony taken and the floor seats going rapidly, there is every indication that a full house will greet the great artist. The sale of seats will be continued today at the Conservatory from 9 a, m, until 6 p, m,

Mr. Alfred Wooler's new song, "Mollie, I Love You," has been meeting with deserved recognition from the public. Many copies have already been sold and the demand is steadily increasing. Mr. Wooler has received overtures from several New York houses intend having a musical alliance in will probably close with one of them in a few days. In controlling the publication of the music, Mr. Wooler has greater advantage in this case than in some of his other popular compositions and is in a fair way to reap the profits of the talents that have heretofore to a large extent been absorbed by the music publishers. Mr. Wooler will sing "Mollie, I Love You" at the matinee and evening performances at the Lyceum today for the benefit of the

The members of the society known is the Plymouth Church Musical Culture class, of the West Side are requested to meet tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in the room adjoining Thomas' shoe store.

The members of the Elm Park church quartette did their work to perfection last Sunday evening, and the singing of the augumented choir was highly appreciated by music lovers.

Nathaniel Davis, of the West Side, possesses a remarkable high tenor voice.

That patriotic song of which J. Courer Morris is the composer, "Down Dewey's Way," will have its day on

Since the regular weekly prayer necting in many churches of the city is held on Wednesday evening, the Rosenthal concert will begin at 8.39 'clock. Several of the music-loving pastors of the city have announced their intention of having their prayer meetings begin earlier than usual that both they and their congregations may attend.

The organ grinder is on deck, but he man with the violin has not yet made his spring appearance. The lithe Jermyn band is also invisible.

The Princeton Glee club were the guests of Chester Derr at Wilkes-Barre on Wednesday evening.

The Welsh Congregational churches of Providence, Hyde Park and Taylor

it contained water. Not considering it that desire to wholesale the song and the early future for the purpose of elevating their congregational singing and to become more familiar with their new hymnal, "Y Caneidydd Cynnulliedfaol."

> Organist George B. Carter, formerly of Scranton, will soon leave Elmira and locate at Delaware, Ohio, where he will have charge of a conservatory

> Mr. Perlee V. Jervis, in the "Practicat Points by Eminent Teachers'" column of "The Etude," has given an excellent list of selections suitable for pupils' recitals and calculated to please a miscellaneous audience.

LOVE AT A DISTANCE.

Upon my bed-room mantel shelf, With many knick-knacks laden, Two figures stand, at either end-A china man and maiden.

So lovingly they sadly glance.
As if to say, "Come nearer;"
While each replies, "Alas, I can't! But, love, you're all the dearer?" She holds a crook in one plump hand,

Her hair is bright and golden. In dainty fashion olden. He wears a three-cocked beaver hat

And coat of satin yellow, With dark brown eyes and powdered cue-

A gun is slung neross his back, But you need never fear it.

A heart has long been his sole aim-An! If he were but near it!

And still they smile and sadly glance, As if to say, "Come nearer:"
While each replies, "Alas, I can't!
But, love, you're all the dearer!" -St. Paul's

Bicycle Perfection is in

