DICKERT WILL NOT GET A DIVORCE

JURY THOUGHT HE WAS NOT ENTITLED TO IT.

Dickert said his wife threw things at him, tried to stab him, threatened to poison him and was guilty of many other cruel acts, which she denied in toto. Jury evidently believed the story of Mrs. Dickert—Other Common Pleas Cases.

The domestic trouble of S. J. Dickert and his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Dickert, formerly Miss Elizabeth Rider, of the Twenty-first ward of this city, were related in the main court room yesterday, where the divorce case brought by the husband was on trial before Judge R. W. Archibald and a jury. The jury was out but fifteen minutes deliberating on the case and returned a verdict denying Dickert the divorce prayed for.

A jury was sworn and the case opened Tuesday afternoon, and when court opened yesterday morning, the libellant, S. J. Dickert, was called to the stand by his attorneys, John F. Scragg and John R. Edwards. He said he was married to his wife in the cathedral in this city in June, 1886, and they lived together for seven years and two children were born to them.

She abused him in various ways he said. One of her pastimes was to throw stove lifters, poker, stove lids and like articles at him and she also frequently called him all manner of vile names. One night in 1892 she came out late, and when he returned home he found the doors locked and the keys in the locks, so that he might not open them. He called to his wife to open the doors, but she refused and after calling him many unpleasant names she told him to go elsewhere and seek shelter for the night, and he was compelled to do it.

TRIED TO STAB HIM.

On another occasion he alleges that his wife tried to stab him in the neck with a butcher's knife and at another time she made a dash for him while armed with a brace of table knives. She also threatened to poison him, he said.

In 1894 Dickert says he could stand the treatment he received no longer and went to New York, where he remained for nine months. Upon his return they resumed their relations as man and wife, but she soon fell into her old way of treating him and he again left her and was absent from the city for two years, which he spent in New York and Philadelphia.

While he was absent his wife lived with his mother on Prospect avenue and when she returned he also went there. He did not occupy the apartment that had been placed at the disposal of his wife.

Mrs. John Biglin testified that Mr. and Mrs. Dickert lived in her house on Carbon street. They quarrelled frequently, but she never knew of any acts of violence.

Mrs. Theophine Dickert, mother of the libellant, said she frequently heard her son abused by his wife. She was in her son's house the night his wife locked him out. Mrs. Dickert said her husband could go to the devil if he wanted to, but at all events she would not let him in the house that night.

Andrew Steinmetz testified to some unimportant matters and Mrs. Angelina Steinmetz, Mrs. Rose Gillespie, Mrs. Mary Mazorkootz, Mrs. A. G. Knece and Martin Woyshner testified that Dickert asked them to see his wife for him and endeavor to have her return and live with him. They said Mrs. Dickert refused to return to her husband and called him improper names.

MRS. DICKERT'S STORY.

That closed the testimony for the libellant and Attorney J. F. Gilroy opened the case for the respondent. Mrs. Dickert was the first witness called in her own behalf. She denied that she had thrown things at her husband or been cruel to him or that she had ever tried to stab him or threatened to poison him.

When he came home from work and found that his supper was not quite ready he said he was going out to get his supper and demanded money to pay for it. When she refused to give it to him he drew a revolver and compelled her to give him the money. She denied having used vile or abusive language to him, and said he had willfully deserted her.

The quarter sessions docket was offered in evidence to show that Dickert was convicted of deserting his wife and is now by order of the court paying $10 per month toward her support. Mrs. Mary Dougher testified that she was a neighbor of the Dickerts when they lived on Penn avenue, and remembers that Dickert drew a revolver and threatened to shoot his wife. That closed the evidence.

The jury was of one mind about the case and a few minutes after it went out agreed upon a verdict to the effect that Dickert is not entitled to the divorce he seeks. Mrs. Dickert has the custody of their two daughters.

LOWER POOR TAX PROBABLE.

Finance Committee Contemplates Cutting Down the Levy.

The finance committee of the poor board is figuring on the annual tax levy and hopes to be able to make a good-sized cut in the rate.

Last year it was four mills. This year it will not be over three and one-half mills and possibly as low as three and two-tenths mills. The rate will be fixed at the next meeting of the board, Friday, April 21.

The school tax levy will also be fixed at the next meeting. It is expected that it will be fourteen mills, as at present.

DR. HILL & SON will do all kinds of Dental work at lower prices than any other dentist in Scranton.

We have been in Scranton over 15 years; we are here now; we intend to stay here. Our business is not a mere speculation. We will not do work today that you can't call us to account for tomorrow. We compete with the cheap advertising dentists who are here today and gone tomorrow, but we do not compare our work in a contest. So do not make a mistake; all our operators are experts of skill and experience, and not mere students. Still our prices are lower than the lowest.

Beware of impostors and charlatans who can afford to ruin your teeth because they are not financially responsible. How can we do better than they? The answer is easy: We have a dentist in nearly every city in the United States, and we buy our supplies at wholesale for cost. No wonder we can give better prices than anyone else. Experience counts also, and we have experience besides our diplomas. Don't be deceived; get the best, the most reliable, the most comfortable and the most durable. The newest methods! The latest applications! The best materials! These are attractions worth considering. Besides, nervous people and those with heart weakness can have their teeth filled or crowned with absolute safety and positively without pain. We are the only up-to-date Dental establishment in Northeastern Pennsylvania. Teeth extracted in the morning and a new set furnished in the afternoon is an old practice of ours. We are the original; all others are mere imitators. We are the originators of vitalized air.

Hopeless Sufferers "Hope Deferred Maketh the Heart Sick."

In a city like Scranton there must be many hundreds of disease-stricken mortals who, after having been buoyed up by unfulfilled promises made by unskilled or catch-penny doctors for several years, have at last resigned themselves to their fate, and grown sick at heart in despair.

Cheer Up Suffering Ones

Do not let hope die. There are no two physicians in this state that have had more experience or more thorough insight with every form of disease that flesh is heir to than the undersigned have had, and while we cannot cure in every case, we stand ready to prove that the percentage of perfect recoveries to our credit is phenomenally large, and we will at least be honest enough to tell you at the outset whether or not we can cure your case.

Pennsylvania's Largest Carpet Stock Outside of Philadelphia

We think there is not another such Carpet Store in Northeastern Pennsylvania, and there are patrons in Wyoming, Lackawanna, Luzerne, Wayne, Susquehanna, Sullivan, Columbia, Northumberland and Lycoming counties whose opinions bolster up this impression. For years we have been recognized as leaders in floor coverings in this corner of the state. It is this leadership and the expectations it engenders in the public's mind that prompts us this season to gather such a stock, as only the largest exclusive Metropolitan stores can compete against in extent and lowness of price.

Our invoices since the first arrival of Spring orders, shows

A Stock of Over 90,000 Yards Divided up among something like 650 Patterns.

This is not intended for BRAG—it argues the benefits this store extends to the purchasers.

The advantages are two-fold for us—and you. Our large purchasing power enables us to command the out puts of the largest mills of the country, and get first and exclusive choosing of patterns, and further commands the extra discounts which go far in lessening the cost to the final purchaser.

Further—in this great gathering you'll find none but standard makes—dependable sorts that the makers guarantee by weaving their mill marks in the back of every yard. And to this we add our personal guarantee that the quality will be right, and back of this personal guarantee is a thirty-year reputation of honest dealing.

Our salesmen will come to you with samples, and a completeness and ability to satisfy you; and without any extra expense to you on account of your foreign residence.

Making and laying done under the superintendency of competent workmen.
