The Earth Drops Out of Sight on Lambert Street and Terrorize the Residents—A Fortunate Runaway on Main Street—A Fire Up at Cork Lane.

The residents of that portion of the city known as "Frogtown," are in what some people would term "Hard Luck." In the vicinity of Lambert street, the seams of coal which underlie it, have been honeycombed to such an extent, that for several weeks the surface has been settling, and so much so that many who have invested their life savings in snug homes are beginning to wonder where they are.

THE PLAY HOUSES.

"Pudd'head Wilson." That delightfully droll character, "Pudd'head Wilson," was exploited at the Lyceum last night by a company headed by Edwin Mayo, son of Frank Mayo, who dramatized Mark Twain's story and created the character.

"The Telephone Girl" Today. The success of "The Telephone Girl" in part due to the fact that the entertainment is completely characterized by the Casino in point of archness, of motif and ensemble, and, moreover, in prodigality of color, and material in the stage presentation.

Sousa's Novelties. American audiences demand novelty, always novelty, even in their concert programs, and it is skill in catering to the musical preferences of his public that has insured a large proportion of John Sousa's popularity and success.

Miss Robe and Company. At the Academy of Music, commencing Monday, for the entire week, with daily matinees, Katherine Robe, New England's greatest favorite light comedienne, will present all New York successes that have never before been played at popular prices, using all special scenery, electrical effects, and the most gorgeous costumes, direct importations from Paris at a cost of many thousands dollars.

Little Egypt for Three Days. "Little Egypt," the dancer, will be the attraction at the Gaiety theater next week for three days. She has been touring the country appearing before audiences that fill every available space in the theater.

Crane Tuesday Night. William H. Crane is underlined to appear at the Lyceum theater next Tuesday, when he will present his latest successful comedy, "The Head of the Family." Any one with any knowledge of the stage will readily admit that this latest addition to his repertoire is a most interesting, if not humorous, it is clean and it does hold the mirror up to nature in presenting a series of pictures of modern society life.
