and affection for Dr. Olmstead and respect at his departure.

Bishop Joyce read a telegram from Bishop Newman stating that the condition of the latter was no worse when he left Kingston, Dr. Lippincott, of the Philadelphia Methodist hospital, was introduced and made a brief address. Dr. Hard reported for the Methodist hospital committee, recommending assistance to be given the institution.

L. B. Weeks made a statement of Sayre church finances; $52 was still needed. An appointment was made and the amount raised at once.

John Humphries was appointed agent for the Conference Examiner, William North Rice, professor of theology in Wesleyan university, spoke in the interests of that institution.

A resolution was offered by Dr. Gifford, thanking Mrs. S. M. Decker, of Honesdale, who had given $1,000 to the Preachers' Aid society fund. It was also resolved to call this gift the "S. M. Decker Fund." Secretary Sweet read a proposition relating to equal lay representation at general conferences. The resolutions provided that certain sections be amended to grant equal lay representations. It was voted to spread the resolution on the minutes for the reference of the conference and Methodist in general.

BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

Bishop Joyce made an address at the close of the morning session in which he expressed his regret that he must send so many men to $100, $500 and $600 appointments. "I do not see," he remarked, "how you have lived the past year. Many of you are worth four times as much as you will receive. It pains my heart at the core when I go over the lists and see your meagre support. I wonder at your bravery and at the blessed women who are so heroic in the paragonies. In the New York conference I just left there were 150 charges paying less than $300 and not a man complained. A woman hardly ever complains. I wish I were in China today. Don't you?"

He then spoke of his longing to do work in Shanghai, where there was no strife over appointments, and where one touches one-third of the population of the earth. He remarked that he was in no hurry to go, and that if they desired to keep in session until Wednesday he would be content. It was voted, however, to continue the order of business for the adjournment in order to adjourn at noon tomorrow. The session adjourned with the benediction.

The Difference

IN PARIS—$50 to $100 for the new creations of the fashionable tailors and gown makers.

HERE—$14.98 to $69.50 for copies of these foreign conceptions, exact in every detail of material, style, trimmings, workmanship and linings. Of course the foreign designers receive something for their creative genius, and another portion of the difference is eaten by the Paris label and the customs. But there are no copyrights on Fashion and American tailors build perfect counterparts of the imported models, and the best of these find show room in our model Suit Department. But show room for a few days only, for it's "touch and go" with these high class sorts and buyers must be active and prompt. Some new styles came Saturday. They'll all be gone before this ad. disappears. So, be early.

Black Crepons

No need to urge buying of these popular black goods at these two special prices—goods sell themselves. It's not often that such values come right at the height of the season when the demand is greatest. There's nothing the matter with these, only that the manufacturer had small lots and closed them at a price.

new demand in our acquired possessions. J. B. Sweet made a motion that Rev. Harned be appointed agent for the American Bible society in the conference. Secretary E. E. Pearce, of the Church Extension society, made a report showing a decrease this year 14 churches contributing nothing; 18, $1; 35 charges, $2. The sum of $12,575 was paid out to twenty-eight churches and parsonages.

Approval is given to the proposition of raising as a part of the twentieth century fund at least $100,000 additional endowment and a scholarship fund of $30,000, the interest of which shall assist young men of high character. THE EPISCOPAL FUND.

Secretary C. E. Sweet, of the Episcopal fund, reported for this year $419, the apportionment for the coming year is $2,250. The report of the conference stewards was read by the secretary, C. H. Sackett. The three classes of claimants for the allowance of $300, $200 and $100 was given and two special claims were recognized, allowing the stewards to pay 563 per cent. The whole amount of claims permitted was $12,750. The sum of $8,000 was recommended as next year's apportionment.

The aged members of the superannuated list came forward and received their pittance, which in most cases was $2.25. The report of the conference stewards was read by the secretary, C. H. Sackett. The three classes of claimants for the allowance of $300, $200 and $100 was given and two special claims were recognized, allowing the stewards to pay 563 per cent. The whole amount of claims permitted was $12,750. The sum of $8,000 was recommended as next year's apportionment.

Officers of conference societies were reported as follows:

The report of the committee on observance of the Sabbath was read by C. P. Tiffany, and created a ripple of excitement. He enumerated a lot of things which weren't proper employment for the Sabbath, and at the close of his report offered a resolution which deprecated in strong terms the proposed action of running Sunday trains on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad and recommending sending a protest to President Treadwell.
Rev. L. C. Murdoch immediately made objections to the adoption of such a resolution against a railroad that had offered the ministers so many courtesies in the way of low rates. Murdoch, he declared, that it would come in bad taste from the members of a conference and church whose chief officials frequently made use of Sunday train service, as indeed had been done during the present sessions.
OPPOSED DISCRIMINATION.
He felt that it would be extremely unjust to discriminate thus in a criticism of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western when the other roads in the vicinity were employing Sunday service. Mr. Tiffany then made a redemptive speech, full of lofty sentiment. However, a number of other clergymen took Mr. Murdoch's view of the question and when a vote was taken the resolution was pretty unanimously snowed under, thus vindicating the common sense of the majority.
At the evening session Dr. J. F.

Berry was persuaded to speak at the popular meeting. As not in the history of recent years has conference held over until Tuesday, no program had been prepared.
The service was largely attended and at its close a business session was held, when the remainder of reports were read. The bishop and his cabinet were in session until an early hour this morning. The appointments will be read this forenoon. A land slide struck the Wyoming district and few pastors were not shaken up and set down in a new spot, more or less satisfactory to themselves and the "spots."
At one time it seemed that Dr. Floyd would go off the Binghamton district, to be succeeded by Rev. G. A. Place, but the plan was changed.

Philip Schneider, of South Washington avenue, was defendant in a suit brought by a neighbor, Herman Schaffer, before Alderman Millar. Schaffer alleges that Schneider trespassed upon his property and forcibly tore down and partly destroyed a fence built thereon. This occurred yesterday morning, and no time was lost in bringing the suit. Attorney J. F. Scragg appeared for the prosecutor and the defendant was represented by Attorneys S. H. Price and John J. Murphy. The plot of land in question is known as Schaffer's Island, and has been the fruitful source of much litigation in the past. Alderman Millar reserved his decision.

Hopeless Sufferers

"Hope Deferred Maketh the Heart Sick."

In a city like Scranton there must be many hundreds of disease-stricken mortals who, after having been buoyed up by unfulfilled promises made by unskilled or catch-penny doctors for several years, have almost resigned themselves to their fate, and grown sick at heart in despair.

Cheer Up Suffering Ones

Do not let hope die. There are no two physicians in this state that have had more experience or are more thorough insight with every form of disease that flesh is heir to than the undersigned have had, and while we cannot cure in every case, we stand ready to prove that the percentage of perfect recoveries to our credit is phenomenally large, and we will at least be honest enough to tell you at the outset whether or not we can cure your case.

Some Lace Hints.

Old Yak Laces Real Yak Laces
Fifteen years ago this announcement would have created a sensation—Yak laces were used in great quantities then, especially for trimming ladies' petticoats and underskirts. Haven't been used much lately—rather out of style, but good, nevertheless. Yak laces are all wool and their washing and wearing qualities are unsurpassed. We found a New York importer who had 1,500 yards packed away, and, like every other good thing that smacks of the real bargain flavor, they found an entrance into this store. They are on sale now, as long as they last—intrinsic worth 40c, 50c, 60c yard. To close..... 12 1/2c yard

Real Hand-Made Linen Torchon Laces
Here we gathered another bargain lot of laces—real Torchon Laces, with insertions to match; medium and wide widths. You'll want some to trim those new curtains, likely. Here is the new schedule:
20c qualities.....12 1/2c
25c qualities.....15c
30c qualities.....19c

Machine-Made Torchons
Look like the hand-made goods—much cheaper; of course not as good, but very excellent for the price. A varied lot of all widths and grades came to our hands at about half their real value. They go to you on the same basis. Prices from 3c to 12 1/2c yd. A lot worthy of your attention.

Handkerchiefs.
