

BOGUS MONEY MAKERS ARE CAPTURED

Produced the Famous "Monroe Head" Silver Certificate.

ALSO MADE STAMPS

Chief Wilkie's Men Corner a Gang of the Most Skillful Counterfeiters Ever Apprehended at Lancaster.

Washington, April 19.—Probably the most important capture in the history of the secret service was made yesterday in Philadelphia by Chief John E. Wilkie and his agents when they arrested Arthur Taylor and Baldwin S. Bredell, the makers of the famous counterfeit "Monroe head" one hundred dollar silver certificates.

The silver certificate, which was first discovered a year ago last fall, by an official of the subtreasury at Philadelphia, was probably the most dangerous counterfeit in circulation and even the experts of the government for a long time were undecided as to whether the note was genuine or counterfeit.

GENERAL OTIS'S REPORT. Volunteers' Return Will Commence About May 5—Philippines Build Hopes—Rebels Much Scattered and Demoralized—Our Troops in Good Health and Spirits.

Washington, April 19.—The following cable has just been received from General Otis:

Adjutant General Washington, April 19.—Lawton returned from Lake County, Mo., bringing captured vessels, in our hands; awaiting opportunity to attack detachments. Better class of people than we desire peace. Enemy build hope of return of our volunteers to United States. Heavily demoralized and loss by desertion and death large. Will probably prosecute guerrilla warfare and burning country which it occupied. Heavy rain, much demoralized. Volunteers' return will commence about May 5. Will render willing services. Embarkation returns available. Embarkation will continue through June and July. Reports from Visayan Islands continue very encouraging. Inter-island commerce heavy, customs receipts increasing.

PATRIOTS' DAY. Observed by the Sons of Revolution of Boston.

Boston, April 19.—The Sons of the Revolution observed Patriots' Day today by the unveiling of a tablet placed upon a tomb in King's chapel burying grounds which marks the resting place of William Brewster, whose death during the night of April 18-19, 1775, was of the same character as the ride of Paul Revere.

HOT OLD TIME IN THE SENATE

NYCE RESOLUTION AROUSES A HEATED DEBATE.

Mr. Grady and Mr. Flinn Indulge in Side Remarks While Lieutenant Governor Gobin Raps in Vain for Order—The Resolution Calculated to Cast Further Propprobrium Upon Senator Quay Receives Only Six Votes.

Harrisburg, April 19.—The Nyce resolution calling upon the attorney general to prosecute all those, including ex-Senator Quay, who had been charged with receiving interest on state's money, precipitated a heated debate in the senate this morning. It was a bitter fight between the two factions, and finally the resolution was laid on the table by a vote of 33 to 6.

Following Mr. Grady came Mr. Brown, of Lawrence. He said there was but one real contention in the whole resolution and that was the line declaring state funds to be trust funds. For one, he felt that the proceedings were unprecedented, monstrous, for the legislature to pass judgment on a man whose liberty was now at stake in a court of justice.

Mr. Flinn took his seat, and Mr. Osborn arose and said: "I will offer a resolution censuring Mr. Flinn. I never saw such a scene in my life in the senate of Pennsylvania."

Mr. Flinn took his seat, and Mr. Osborn arose and said: "I will offer a resolution censuring Mr. Flinn. I never saw such a scene in my life in the senate of Pennsylvania."

PROSECUTION IN QUAY CASE RESTS

THE EVIDENCE CLOSED UNEXPECTEDLY YESTERDAY.

Court Adjourned in Order to Give the Defendant's Attorneys Opportunity to Prepare a Case—Meyer Goldsmith's Testimony Relied Upon by the Prosecution—Director of the Mint Henry K. Boyer on the Stand.

Philadelphia, April 19.—Unexpectedly to almost every person interested in the prosecution in the trial of ex-United States Senator Quay for conspiracy closed its case today after nine days full of argument, clashes of counsel, and testimony, largely of an expert nature. The general expression of opinion has been that the trial would drag through many more days, and when District Attorney Rothermel announced that he had concluded there were expressions of surprise from all parts of the court room.

Mr. Goldsmith's cross-examination was begun by Mr. Rothermel, and the points brought out by him were that the cash account and interest account of the bank were deficient by the omission of certain sums received as interest.

Mr. Flinn took his seat, and Mr. Osborn arose and said: "I will offer a resolution censuring Mr. Flinn. I never saw such a scene in my life in the senate of Pennsylvania."

Mr. Flinn took his seat, and Mr. Osborn arose and said: "I will offer a resolution censuring Mr. Flinn. I never saw such a scene in my life in the senate of Pennsylvania."

THE NEWS THIS MORNING

Weather Indications Today: UNSETTLED; POSSIBLY SHOWERS.

General—Important Arrest of Counterfeiters. State's Evidence All Heard in the Quay Case. Senatorial Battle Ends Without an Election. Heated Debate in the State Senate.

Local—Minkola Licenser One of Dewey's Men. President Will Attend the Letter Carriers' Convention.

Editorial. Evidence in Quay Case (Continued).

Local—Asphalt Repair Contract Has Disappeared. Busy Day for the Lackawanna Post-Office.

Local—West Scranton and Suburban. News Round About Scranton.

Local—Criminal Court Proceedings.

ANTHRACITE COAL OPERATORS MEET

Matters Relating to Termination of Contracts of Operators with Railroads Are Discussed

PENNSYLVANIA HAS BUT ONE U. S. SENATOR

The Battle at Harrisburg Ends Without an Election.

NO BREAK IN DEADLOCK

The Seventy-ninth Joint Ballot Gives Quay, 93; Jenks, 85, and Jones, 60. The Fight Which Has Been Distinctly Quay and Anti-Quay Will Be Carried Into Every County in the State Until Supremacy Has Been Established.

Harrisburg, April 19.—The great battle for United States senator ended today without an election, and unless Governor Stone calls an extra session, at which there should be an election, Pennsylvania will have only one representative in the United States senate in the next two years.

Quay received 93 votes, Jenks 85, and Jones 60. Necessary to a choice, 124 paired or not voting, 82, no election.

The senatorial contest began on Jan. 17, on that day Senator Quay received his highest vote, 122 senators and representatives casting their ballots for him. This was thirteen less than the number necessary to a choice, and he never came nearer an election during the more than three months of the struggle.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION. Will Be Held at Harrisburg on June 14—State Leaders Organize.

Harrisburg, April 19.—The Democratic state central committee met today for the purpose of organizing and electing a state chairman for the ensuing year.

TRIAL PROCEEDINGS. Incidents of the Ninth Day—Mr. Goldsmith on the Stand.

Philadelphia, April 19.—The ninth day in the trial of ex-United States Senator Quay began this morning with a request from the jury to Judge Biddle that he extend the adjournment each day beyond 3 o'clock.

THE HOUSE LEADER WILL LEAVE CONGRESS AND PRACTICE LAW

Mr. Reed, Speaker of the House, Resigns His Seat to Pursue a Career in the Law.

New York, April 19.—Thomas B. Reed, speaker of the house of representatives, this morning definitely concluded arrangements for retiring from congress and entering into the practice of law in this city.

Mr. Flinn took his seat, and Mr. Osborn arose and said: "I will offer a resolution censuring Mr. Flinn. I never saw such a scene in my life in the senate of Pennsylvania."

Mr. Flinn took his seat, and Mr. Osborn arose and said: "I will offer a resolution censuring Mr. Flinn. I never saw such a scene in my life in the senate of Pennsylvania."

Mr. Flinn took his seat, and Mr. Osborn arose and said: "I will offer a resolution censuring Mr. Flinn. I never saw such a scene in my life in the senate of Pennsylvania."

Mr. Flinn took his seat, and Mr. Osborn arose and said: "I will offer a resolution censuring Mr. Flinn. I never saw such a scene in my life in the senate of Pennsylvania."

Mr. Flinn took his seat, and Mr. Osborn arose and said: "I will offer a resolution censuring Mr. Flinn. I never saw such a scene in my life in the senate of Pennsylvania."

Mr. Flinn took his seat, and Mr. Osborn arose and said: "I will offer a resolution censuring Mr. Flinn. I never saw such a scene in my life in the senate of Pennsylvania."

Mr. Flinn took his seat, and Mr. Osborn arose and said: "I will offer a resolution censuring Mr. Flinn. I never saw such a scene in my life in the senate of Pennsylvania."

WILL BE MR. FLINN'S GUESTS.

Anti-Quayites Will Enjoy a Banquet. Permanent Organization.

Harrisburg, April 19.—The anti-Quay Republican members of the legislature at a meeting this morning decided to accept the invitation of Senator Flinn to be his guests at a banquet in Philadelphia on May 12, at which time the committee appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws for the organization will report.

Mr. Flinn took his seat, and Mr. Osborn arose and said: "I will offer a resolution censuring Mr. Flinn. I never saw such a scene in my life in the senate of Pennsylvania."

Mr. Flinn took his seat, and Mr. Osborn arose and said: "I will offer a resolution censuring Mr. Flinn. I never saw such a scene in my life in the senate of Pennsylvania."

Mr. Flinn took his seat, and Mr. Osborn arose and said: "I will offer a resolution censuring Mr. Flinn. I never saw such a scene in my life in the senate of Pennsylvania."

Mr. Flinn took his seat, and Mr. Osborn arose and said: "I will offer a resolution censuring Mr. Flinn. I never saw such a scene in my life in the senate of Pennsylvania."

Mr. Flinn took his seat, and Mr. Osborn arose and said: "I will offer a resolution censuring Mr. Flinn. I never saw such a scene in my life in the senate of Pennsylvania."

Mr. Flinn took his seat, and Mr. Osborn arose and said: "I will offer a resolution censuring Mr. Flinn. I never saw such a scene in my life in the senate of Pennsylvania."

Mr. Flinn took his seat, and Mr. Osborn arose and said: "I will offer a resolution censuring Mr. Flinn. I never saw such a scene in my life in the senate of Pennsylvania."

WEATHER FORECAST. Washington, April 19.—Forecast for Pennsylvania: For eastern Pennsylvania, unsettled weather and possibly showers; fresh to brisk; easterly winds; Friday, fair and warmer.