REPAIR CONTRACT HAS DISAPPEARED

NEITHER THE ORIGINAL NOR THE COPIES CAN BE FOUND.

When the Barber Asphalt Company Started Out Yesterday to Mandamus the City Controller It Ran Up Against a Snag—No One About City Hall Is Able or, at Least, Willing to Account for the Missing Documents—Delay, However, Will Be Only Short Lived.

Some one has stolen or mislaid with lapsis memoriae the asphalt repair contract. Neither the original nor the two copies can be accounted for by the city officials.

Yesterday morning General Manager West, of the Barber company, and the company's attorney, I. H. Burns, started out to have the contract certified, intending to present the contract to City Controller Howell for his signature and then, when he refused to sign it, to go into court for a writ of mandamus to compel him to show cause why he would not sign it.

At the very outset, however, they were stopped by an insurmountable object. The original contract should be in the possession of the controller and the solicitor and mayor should each have a copy. Controller Howell said the contract had never come into his possession and that he knew nothing of its whereabouts.
