FEES IN FUTURE.

Alderman Kasson Once More Is a Good Samaritan.

Those who have read "David Haram" will readily recall the pathetic yet intensely human story of John and Mary, who wanted to get maried, but a great difficulty stared them in the face. There was only one winister and he wanted the fee before he would act. All John had was his dothes and the promise of a job in short time. Mary had her clothes and a job from which there was due ninety cents at the week's end.

Yesterday David J. Davis and Mary Johnson found the same difficulty in the matter of lack of funds. They had clothes, even flowers (American beauty roses), and fifty cents to 1-ro- Montelcone at Duryea, cure the license, but had no more They went to Alderman Kasson and after being married told their story, The alderman listened and his memor undoubtedly reverted to that other Mrs. Elizabeth Evans and Charles Smith, both of Forest City, under almost similar circumstances.

DEATH OF F. S. PAULI. For Years He Was One of the City's

Prominent Merchants. Francis S. Pauli, for years one the prominent merchants of the city died last night at his residence, 1554

Sanderson avenue. Deceased was confined to his bed only two days, but there had been a general breaking down for several weeks. He was 76 years of age and came to this city from Reading in 1850 or thereabouts.

He was a direct descendant from a ong line of German Reformed church ministers. Steady and industrious while yet in the prime of life, he had amassed a fortune. When he first ame here he opened a millinery and tailoring establishment a few doors beow Washington hall (now Samters). on Lackawanna avenue

Becoming dissatisfied with the active pursuits of business life, and having purchased much valuable real estate Mr. Pauli retired from business some years ago, and thereafter looked after his real estate. Up to the last few years he frequently took long trips abroad for pleasure, and his home contained many beautiful works in art and literature which he picked up during his travels. He was a member of the Green Ridge Presbyterian church. His wife and one daughter, Miss Margaret B, Pauli, are the sole survivors. neral arrangements have not yet been fully completed, but it is expected will e held Monday afternoon.

The city councils held a joint session last night, but failed to elect a city solicitor. Common Councilman Morris V. Morris was elected a member of the board of revision and ap-

When the joint session was called to order at 8.10 o'clock by President Luther Keller the following members were present:

Common-D. H. Reese, M. V. Morris Common-D. H. Reese, M. V. Morris, W. V. Griffiths, John Watker, E. M. Tewkesbury, John Nagell, Fred Phillips, Alfred Harvey, Thomas M. Watkins, Wil-liam J. Thomas O'Boyle, T. J. Coyne, Jo J. McAndrew and R. H. Williams-11.

Mr. Phillips was the only Democrat present at the common council meeting ladies who so pleasantly entertained and Mr. Zizlemann the only Republican absent. A number of Democratic members were in the corridor, but refused to enter the meeting.

WERE AT THE FIRE Adam Schroeder and H. T. Fellows were the Republican members of select who were absent and O'Boyle, Coyne and McAndrew the Democrats present.

As soon as it was ascertained that ccurred yesterday afternoon about 3 a quorum was present, President Kelo'clock on the Delaware, Lackawanna | ler called for nominations for city solicand Western railroad about a quarter Ror. J. A. Lansing nominated A. A. of a mile above No. 7 reservoir of the Vosburg and John J. McAndrew, P. W. Scranton Gas and Water company. COMMON COUNCIL. Vosburg-Reese, M. V. Motris, Griffiths Walker, Towkeshury, Nagelt. Harvey, Watkins, Smith, Keller-II.

This made the total vote for Mr Vosburg 21. Mr. O'Boyle first voted for Vosburg, but immediately afterward changed his you to Sando President Keller ruled that there was no election for the reason that it requires twenty-two votes to elect a city solicitor. There was objection to this ruling. Messrs. Finn and Lansing held that Common Councilman Nor-

than half of forty-one Mr. Vosburg was elected. ME. KELLER'S OPINION. President Keller decided this was neither good logic nor gool law, and remained true to his original decision ton had not been sworn in, therefore councils consists of only forty-one members, and as twenty-one is more

After many motions to adjourn and numerous amendments therets, another ballot was taken which resulted the ame as the first. Although four ballots were taken Mr. Vosburg's vote remained stationavy at 21, and Mr. Gallagher's rose to three. After each of the ballots there was a great deal of argument heard for and against adjournment. When the result of the fourth ballot was announced Mr. Williams, chairman of the select council, moved that they proceed to elect a member of the board of revision and appeal. Common Councilman Morris V. Morris and E. J. Coleman were nominated, and the former was elected. There seems to be some question about the right of councils to elect a member of the board of revision at a joint convention. The act of the legslature specifies a joint session. There was a good deal of squabbling is to when the joint convention should adjourn to, and it was finally decided to adjourn to meet at the call of the president, Luther Keller. BOTH BRANCHES MET.

Only a Small Amount of Business

Was Transacted. After the joint session, short sessions of both branches were held. In the select, resolutions were introduced and passed providing for the transfer of a telephone from the Columbia hoshouse to South Main avenue and Eynon street and the placing of a new one in the Columbia Engine house; assessing the Nut and Bolt works at the rate of $100 per year for ten years; for the placing of a fire hydrant at Swetland street and Mountain drive. Mr. Chittenden introduced an ordi nance providing for the issue of bonds in the sum of $30,000 for the improvement of parks. It was suggested that the ordinance will first have to be introduced in common council, and the ordinance was thereupon withdrawn. Common council met and after M. J. Norton, the new member from the Twenty-first, was sworn in, the body on motion of E. M. Tewkesbury adfourned.

The Democratic members did no want to adjourn, but failed to call for the ayes and mays until after Chairman Keller had given his decision. It was the intention to make an effort to take from the hands of committee the ordinances granting franchises to the Scranton and Lackawanna Telephone companies and then kill these measures.

After council adjourned a call for special meeting of common council t be held next Monday night was prepared. It is signed by T. F. Morris John T. Monaghau, John J. Ruane Morris V. Morris, E. J. Coleman, M. J. Norton and D. H. Reese,
