FIRST GAME OF THE SEASON TODAY

WAY THE SCRANTON CLUB WILL LINE UP FOR CONTEST.

Its Opponent Will Be the Team from Wyoming Seminary-Players They Will Bring with Them Were Not Known Here Last Night-Dougherty Has Reported-He Is in Good Condition and Appears to Be a Very Fast Man-He Will Play Third Today.

The ball team is in good condition for their game with Wyoming Seminary this afternon. The work of yesterday was fast and satisfactory. Dougherty arrived Thursday and is showing up well. The team which has been selected to battle with the Seminary men this afternon is as foilows:

Nolan, center field; Lippert, right field; Eagan, left field; Dillon, first base; O'Connell, second base; Dougherty, third base; McMahon, short stop; O'Neill and Thackera, catchers; Shultz, Risley, Allen, Hodson and Keenan, pitchers.

The team selected by Manager Swift is a good one. The pitchers will all be given a chance in the box. It is not guite certain whether Hodson and Keenan, owing to their late illness, will be able to play.

Manager Switf said he thought, however, they would be in condition. Eagen is expected to give a good account of himself, both at the bat and McMahon at short is in left field. the pink of condition. His work of wonder, hand balancer and equilevesterday was very dast.

Dougherty's delay in not reporting sooner for practice was due to the ticket agent at New Haven, who did not notify him of the arrival of 1/s ticket, which was sent from this sity twelve days ago. Dougherty was very anxious to get here and get into condition. He appears to be a fast man.

Just how the seminary will line up their men could not be ascertained up to late hour. They will, however, put a strong team in the field and doubtless make things hum for Scranton. The game will be called at 3.39 p. m. sharp. A large crowd is expected owing to the fact that it is the first game and every one is interested and anxious to know how our men look and what they can do. This game should not be missed. It will be full of life. A large crowd witnessed the practice yesterday.
