THIEF SNATCHED WOMAN'S POCKETBOOK AND RAN.

He Dropped It, However, When Pursued by Onlookers-Money Was Recovered-Entertainment and Social in Simpson M. E. Church. Meeting of Webster Literary Society-Open Air Concert This Evening-Two Funerals Yesterday. Another Burglar Caught.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hineline, of 207 Hallstead court, while on her way to Clarke Bros.' stores at 4 o'clock yesterday af-ternoon, was relieved of her pocketbook by a thief in front of Peter Ross' hotel on West Lackawanna avenue, near Ninth street. The lady was carrying a hand bag, in which was her pocketbook containing $16.

The thief snatched the bag and ran through a passageway alongside of the Ross building, and when he reached Cathedral cemetery. Ninth street in the rear of the hotel dropped the purse. Frank Flora, an Italian, who conducts a barber shop underneath the hotel, picked up the purse and returned it to the woman.

Meantime a large crowd collected, and in the excitement of the moment several women interfered and it is claimed some of the money was taken from the woman. The police were notified and are working on the case.

SOCIAL AND ENTERTAINMENT. The annual entertainment of the men's Foreign Missionary society connected with the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church was held last evening. The programme consisted of a piano selection by Miss Grace Cramer, which was cleverly executed; a history of the Young Ladies' auxiliary by Miss Edith Fowler mave a selection. A march; piano solo by Susan Markwick, and a Hash, recitation by Miss Minnie Roberts closed the entertainment. A social session followed, which was enjoyed by a large number of young people. cream was served during the evening.

ACCOMPLICE ARRESTED.

Walter O'Malley, of Lonergan court, who escaped from Patrolman McColligan Thursday night when John Me-Hale was arrested for breaking into a barber shop on West Lackawanna avenue, was arrested yesterday afternoon and locked up in the police station. O'Malley was implicated in the burglary and when the officer attempted to arrest him he ran away. McColligan fired two shots at him, but did

LUTHERAN PASTORS BID FARE-WELL TO REV. H. F. LISSE.

Reception Was Held at the Christ Lutheran Church-Addresses Were Made by Several of the Attending Ministers-Many Wishes for the Future Success of the Departing Pastor Were Expressed-He Will Preach His Farewell Sermon Tomorrow Morning-Smaller Notes.

Rev. Henry Lisse, the retiring pasor of the Christ Lutheran church on Cedar avenue, was given a formal fare well reception by the Lutheran minis ters association of this city last night at his church. The reception was at tended by members of the several Lutheran congregations in the city. The clergymen present were: Rev. Dr. A. L. Ramer, Rev. W. C. L. Lauer, Rev. C. G. Spieker, Rev. J. W. Randolph and Rev. John Kowala.

The exercises incident to the affair were opened with a hymn. Rev. Mr. Randolph made the address of the evening in German. He spoke upon the calling of the Rev. Mr. Lisse to another fold, his work and his inevitable trials. Feelingly Rev. Randolph referred to the loss the congregation of the Christ church would sustain.

Rev. A. L. Ramer, Ph. D., followed with an address in English, and referred to the many brilliant achieve ments of the Rev. Mr. Lisse during his present pastorate. The church property has been largely improved, the membership increased, and the church debt greatly diminished. The speaker also stated that the Rev. Mr. Lisse was a great organizer, and especially among the young people. Rev. Mr. Spieker, Rev. Mr. Lauer and Rev. Mr. Kowala made brief but interesting remarks, paying a high tribute to the worth of the departing minister,

The church choir sang several authems and those present joined in the hymns. Rev. Mr. Lisse concluded the service and pronounced the benedic folk apropos of the women telegraph clerks of England. The duke always makes traveling an occasion of observ-ing the working of rural offices and he noticed with pain that the young lady in charge was very cross and snappish, especially to a poor old woman. When his turn came he handed in his telegram, signed "Nerfolk." The operator threw it back to him. "Put your name." she snapped. "I have signed it." said the duke. But the young person, whoseemed to have been ignorant as well a discourteous, said: "Nonsense! We don want the name of a county, we want a man's name. Larry up." "I will trouble you for another blank, please," said the duke, with studious politiciess. He filled up the fresh form as follows: "Permaent Secretary, G. P. O., London: Clerk this office exceedingly insolent to the ublic. Reprimand severely, in second complaint. The Postmaster Second. rom the Chicago Inter-Ocean. Arrangements have just been completed with a band of forty Creek Indians to go o Paris in 1900 and give the visitors therein ehibition of the toll game, which is the most exciting and rude game among the indian tribes. The Indians are now en-saged in practice on their reservation near Eufaula, and reports from there say that a number have been fatally wounded while going through the game. Only about twenty Indians are required to play the game, but the redskins are gong to take along enough extra players to complete the series of fifty games for which they have been ergaged. The same is similar to golf, excepting that is much ruder. The Indians are divided sides, and the scramble commence then the leader throws a wooden ball nto the air and the players start after i with their sticks, on the end of which there is a little basket. They are supused to catch this ball with their stick efore it reaches the ground and carry i bout three hundred yards to the goal; hen, with one mighty threw, hand it over a high pole, and the game is won. This trick is not so easily accomplished, when the facts are brought to mind that twenty other Indians, with heavy clubs, are pur-suing him and attempting to beat him to earth, which is oftener done than he escapes. The swiftest rungers are chosen for this game, so that when they once get the ball it can be carried to the goal
