THAT PROPOSED ROAD.

What President Fowler, of the N. Y. & O. W., Says About It.

In railroad and financial circles the so-called "individual anthracite operators' road" was the topic uppermost in discussion yesterday. It is admitted by some of those connected with the project that it practically had been abandoned several months ago, as it had come to be understood that the railroad was disposed to concede the demands of the operators for an increased percentage, but so such disposition assuming definite form, the dormant scheme was resurrected. A prominent individual operator is quoted as saying:

"I am afraid it is too late now for the railroad companies to offer any inducements that will cause a suspension of construction. It is practically so, unless they take speedy action of a character favorable to the independent coal men, because the latter feel that they have been treated with scant contempt; but there is no likelihood of better terms being given than are provided for in the contracts existing on May 1. My judgment is that the stones will finish and operations will be continued on good authority that the heads of the several anthracite roads have determined not to offer any better terms than those heretofore accorded the operators. President Fowler of the New York, Ontario and Western, has this to say on the subject:

"I, of course, do not know whether the so-called individual operators will or will not build a railroad, but my opinion has been, and still is, that they will not. They have nearly all made money, and collectively they have made more money than the railroads which have been doing their business. As an association, the coal miners are a very able body of men, and know how to care for their own interests. Individually they are friendly and agreeable gentlemen. I know most of them personally and like all of them, but I have never taken any stock in their new railway and I don't believe that they have—or its friends, either."—Philadelphia Stockholder.

DEATH OF CASSIE ZIEGLER.

Considered by Coroner's Jury at Its Session Last Night.

The coroner's jury empaneled to investigate the circumstances surrounding the death of Miss Cassie Ziegler, who was killed in South Scranton Saturday, by falling off a wagon driven by Bernard Gilmore, a lad of 15 years, met in the arbitration room at the court house last night and heard testimony.

Bernard Gilmore, the driver, and Robert Welsh and John Overweiser, two other lads who were on the wagon at the time the accident occurred, and Hugh Gilmore, father of Bernard, were examined. The lads agreed in their testimony that they did not see the girl fall off, and did not know how she was hurt.

The three girls who were on the wagon with Miss Ziegler, were not present so the jury adjourned to meet tonight in the arbitration room at 7:30 o'clock to hear further testimony.

ALDERMAN KASSON'S TRIALS.

Ex-Soldier Runs Amuck, Other Man Is Charged with Disorderly.

Thomas Coyne, an ex-soldier, was given a hearing before Alderman Kasson yesterday, charged with "wilful and malicious mischief" in throwing stones and breaking down and windows of the residence of John J. Coyne of Minooka. The latter appeared as prosecutor and alleged that the other Coyne had made trouble in the house and when put out, began the primitive stone and brick throwing. The defendant was held in $200 bail for his appearance at court. Coyne is one of the jurors on this week's quarter sessions panel.

WARREN TERWILLIGER, of 606 Adams Avenue, charged with desertion and non-support, by late Mrs. J. Terwilliger, was given a hearing before Alderman Kasson yesterday and held in the sum of $500 bail for his appearance at court. The defendant referred to the actions of his mother-in-law in offering his defense.

COOTCH DREW A GUN.

It Was Taken from Him Before Any Damage Was Done.

John Cootch, of Jones street, North Scranton, who was arrested by Patrolman Perry late Sunday night on a Providence car, for pulling a revolver on one of the passengers, was arraigned before Alderman Roberts yesterday and fined $10.

INDUSTRIAL JOTTINGS.

Two more carpenters, mostly single young men, will leave here today for Long Island to work for Contractor A. Van Orden. It is very probable that in the course of a few days several more men will go to the same contractor as the indications are very great and he wants about fifty more men.

It has been stated that the new Kelly car compiler will make an effort shortly to establish itself as a standard on the island.

The Philadelphia Ledger says: "It was announced that the Reading is to enter the rich coal fields of Fulton county by extending its connections to Milltown and those thereof."

Smoke The Pocomo Sig. Cigar.

DIED.
BARTLAN.—In West Scranton, April 24, 1899, Mrs. Eva Bartlan, aged 73 years, at the residence, 612 Hampton street. Services at the house this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Interment in Honolule to-morrow.

SCHOOL BOARD HAS A LIVELY MEETING

MINORITY BUYS PROPOSED EXPENDITURES.

Propositions to Purchase New Building Sites and Construct New Buildings Cause Bother—Messrs. Barker, May and Jennings Lead in Opposition—Minority Succeeds in Only One Instance in Overthrowing the Plans of the Powers—That-Be—Principal Is Charged With Abusing a Pupil.

From the call to order to adjournment it was one continuous scrap at last night's meeting of the board of control and several times some very heated arguments were indulged in. The opposing sides were lined up about as they were at the organization and the powers-that-be, in consequence, won out in each engagement. Most of the fighting centered about the following report of the building committee:

First.—That sites for new school buildings be purchased as follows: First Ward, four lots on Rainie tract on the boulevard, price $2,000, payable, one-third on the execution of contract, and the balance in two equal annual installments. Tenth ward, two lots at the corner of Prescott avenue and Myrtle street, at a cost of $5,000, 25 per cent. down, the balance in three equal annual installments. Twenty-first ward, three lots corner Lincoln avenue and Bulwer street, Tripp park, at a cost of $2,500, payable, 25 per cent. down, balance in three equal annual payments.

We recommend that Architect E. H. Davis be employed to prepare plans for a 12-room building to be known as No. 28, to be located at the corner of Prescott avenue and Myrtle street in the Tenth ward, the cost not to exceed $2,500 per room.

Also that Architect James Peasey be employed to prepare plans for an 8-room building to take the place of old No. 9 in the Seventh ward, the cost not to exceed $2,000 per room.

We recommend that W. J. Price be appointed janitor at No. 22 school in the Fifteenth ward in the place of the present janitor, Mrs. Hannah Lewis.

We recommend that the janitor at No. 28 be paid $5 additional per month on account of the opening of two additional rooms in that building since the beginning of the year.

That the contract for erecting fire escapes at No. 25 school building be let to Fred Murch for $50, he being the lowest and best bidder.

That the board advertise for bids for No. 26 school property.

A competent surveyor has made a survey of the lots on which No. 3 school has been erected and reports that the lots purchased of the owner of the property are only 55 feet front instead of 60 feet as called for by the contract, and we recommend that the secretary be instructed to write to Mr. Maloney for an explanation.

LED THE OPPOSITION.

Messrs. Barker, May and Jennings, who led the opposition to the report, attacked scathingly nearly every recommendation it contained. In substantiation of the claim that the First ward lots were not needed, Mr. Barker said that buildings Nos. 25 and 27, which now accommodate that portion of the city have room for 248 pupils more than the average attendance for last month and that the city schools all through can accommodate 3,487 more pupils than are attending at present.

Captain May said he investigated the matter and was satisfied that there would be no need of a school there for three or four years. No. 26 school is only 2,000 feet away from the site which it is proposed to purchase, and No. 27 is only a few hundred feet north of relieving the district from the rental of temporary annexes should first claim the attention of the board, Captain May believed. If the committee's recommendation should prevail, it would work a great injustice to the taxpayers. "If you start that sort of thing you might as well throw the flood gates open at once and let everybody get in on it," he concluded.

Mr. Jennings said he would never oppose the erection of a building where one was necessary. In this case, however, there was no necessity of a building. The attempt of the majority to carry this recommendation through was a piece of high handed work, he said. The board is now owing $2,000 on lots and that was enough, he thought.

Mr. Shires disputed the assertion that there was no immediate necessity for the lots and said it was unjustified for Messrs. Barker, May and Jennings to set their judgment against that of the controller of the ward, the building committee and the people of the ward who had petitioned for the purchase of the site.

Mr. Gibbons said the opposition wasn't minor, but the proposition was opposed simply because it had come from the building committee. Ever since reorganization these same gentlemen, he said, had opposed everything the committee offered. It is simply an effort to obstruct and to upset their work. He suggested to those who are now crying so loudly against extravagance to go back over the records of the board for four or five years.

Mr. Barker took this as a direct address to him and raising slowly to his feet he said: "It is true there was extravagance in the past, I have made mistakes but that is no reason
