

GATHERED IN SOUTH SCRANTON

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MISS CARRIE REHNER.

Large Concourse of Friends Attend the Services at St. Mary's Church. Rev. Peter Christ, Rector of the Church, Overcome with Grief. Many Beautiful Floral Offerings Were Sent—Hearings Before Alderman Lentes—Dance at Natter's Hall—Smaller Notes of Interest.

Never before, perhaps, has the death of any resident of this side, and especially one so young brought together so large a gathering as attended the funeral of the late Miss Carrie Rehner yesterday morning.

At 9 o'clock the prayers for the dead were recited by Rev. Father Stopper, assistant rector of St. Mary's church, and at the close of the brief services the cortege moved to St. Mary's church, where a high mass of requiem was celebrated by the Rev. Father Christ.

A most touching incident occurred when Father Christ attempted to pronounce the eulogy of the beloved child. Facing the casket he remained immovable, overcome with grief. The services there ended and the procession moved to the parish cemetery at No. 5, where interment was made.

WITH ALDERMAN LENTES. John Orlovsky, of Maple street, was arranged before Alderman Lentes yesterday, charged by Adolph Aldakowski with attempting to defraud him of a most bill. Several months ago Orlovsky left the city, but returned recently. The butcher heard that his debtor was about to depart again, hence the arrest. In default of $300 bail Orlovsky was committed to the county jail.

REMEMBERED BY FRIENDS. Mrs. George Schautz, of 1429 Cedar avenue, was sixty-five years of age Sunday, and to commemorate the occasion many of her descendants and other relatives gathered at her home and spent the day with her, indulging in such pastimes as the day permitted.

A CARD OF THANKS. I wish to extend through the Tribune, many and most hearty thanks from the members of my household, and myself, to all friends and neighbors, regardless of creed and tongue, for the many kindnesses and marks of sympathy shown us in our sad bereavement by the death and funeral of little Carrie Rehner.

NUBS OF NEWS. The funeral services for the late Miss Cassie Ziegler, who was killed on Saturday while returning from a picnic trip at No. 5, will be held this morning at 11:30 o'clock at the rooms of the Young Women's Christian association, on Cedar avenue.

Miss Katie Briler of Hickory street, and Mr. J. J. Goham, of Pittston, will be married a week from tomorrow. The ceremony will be performed at St. Mary's church at 9 o'clock.

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

ELDERLY WOMAN ALMOST ASPHYXIATED IN HER ROOM.

Mrs. John P. Griffiths Found by Her Daughter, Mrs. John Reynolds, in an Unconscious Condition—Gas Had Not Been Fully Turned Off. She Is in a Critical State—Savings Fund Deposits—Committee Meets—Emerson D. Owen Bitten by a Dog—Personal and Otherwise.

Mrs. John P. Griffiths, of Taylor, who has been residing with Mr. and Mrs. John Reynolds, at their home on South Main avenue, for some time, was almost asphyxiated early yesterday morning and may not recover, although hopes are entertained.

The supposition is that Mrs. Griffiths arose shortly afterwards and turned on the gas, believing it to be the button of the electric light, which is on a combination fixture, and neglected to turn it off. When Mrs. Reynolds arose at 6 o'clock she tried to arouse her mother but failed, and when the odor of gas was detected, she aroused her husband, who immediately noticed the jet open, and turned it off.

Residents in the neighborhood of Bloom street and the "Corners" were aroused at an early hour yesterday morning by cries of "Murder" and "Fire" followed by a fusillade of pistol shots.

Investigation disclosed the fact that a party of foreigners, returning from a christening at Throop had missed their bearings and adopted this course to arouse some one to set them right. Some friends happening along took them away. The disturbed residents intent to deal summarily with whoever makes the next disturbance thereafter.

ALMOST SMOTHERED TO DEATH. William La Fontaine, sr., of Charles street, employed as a laborer on the culm dump of No. 1 washery of the Pennsylvania Coal company, was severely injured while at work yesterday afternoon. He was standing in front of a car rising the head blocks in order to dump the car, when his assistant, Antonio Durninco, withdrew the pin and dumped the car. La Fontaine was caught beneath the car and was almost smothered with the rush of culm. He was dug out and Dr. Hopkins rendered medical aid, and it is feared that the man is injured internally.
