THEIR ANNUAL CONCERT.

Given by the Second Presbyterian Sabbath School Orchestra.

One of the many excellent musical features of the Second Presbyterian church is the annual concert by the Sabbath school orchestra. An interested and well pleased audience met in the lecture room of the hurch last evening to enjoy the aristic programme prepared for the evening's entertainment. The execution done by this body of musicians is remarkably fine and the work given at last night's concert was far above the average. The attack, shading and blending of tone were excellent, and Mr. Chance seems perfectly at home with the baton.

His directing is done with art and grace. Especially fine was the ensem-I his box is worth $75. We will ble playing of the "Minuet from Mili-sell it, including twelve tunes, for taire Symphony," by Haydn, and the "Turkish March from Ruins of Ath-

A clarinet solo, "Air with Variations," by Thornton, was superbly rendered by Mr. McAndrew. He elicits a wonderfully pure and sympathetic tone from this instrument. A trombone solo, "Werner's Parting Song," by Hessler, was beautifully rendered by Mr. J. S. Turn with orchestra terompaniment.

"A Fantasie," by Doppler, a trio for dano, clarinet and flute, was given with fine execution by Messrs. Doorsam, McAndrew and Bauschmann.

DEATH OF HON. J. B. VAN BERGEN

ONE OF CARBONDALE'S MOST PROMINENT CITIZENS.

At 10.30 Last Night the End Came. He Is Survived by a Wife and Two Sons, Dr. Harry Van Bergen, of Los Angelai, Cal., and Robert B. Van Bergen, of Carbondale. Was Mayor of Carbondale and a Treasurer of Lackawanna County.

Hon, Joseph B. Van Bergen died last night at 10.30 at his home in Carbondale, age 72 years. Mr. Van Bergen had been for years one of the most prominent men in the upper valley and was for some time Mayor of Carbondale. He also served a term as ounty treasurer. He is survived by his wife and two sons, Dr. Harry Van Rergen, of Los Angeles, Cal., and Robrt B. Van Bergen, who was associated with his father in conducting a foundry and machine shops at Carbondale. No arrangements have yet been made about the suneral, Joseph B. Van Bergen, the head of the Van Bergen company, limited, one of the leading manufacturing enterprises of Carbondale, was born in Bainbridge, Chenango county, N. Y., Feb. 28, 1828. His father, who was born in Catskill, Greene county, N. Y., in July, 1800, engaged in the mercantile business in painbridge until 1822, when he came to Carbondale and began as a merchant and in the lumber business. After four years he ic moved to Cincinnati, Ohio, where he was interested in the lumber trade until 1858. From that place he went to New York city, afterward to Newark, N. J., and until his death in 1877 was connected with the Delaware and Hudson Canal company as sales agent.

CAME FROM HOLLAND. As the name indicates, the Van Beren family originated in Holland. Its representatives were among the earest settlers along the Hudson River in New York, and from that day to this they have been known as honorable, energetic people, a credit to any community in which they may reside. The grandfather of William Van Bergen was a native of Catskill, N. Y., and kept the first hotel in the now famous Catskill mountain region, where he remained until his death. He was a regular attendant at the Dutch teformed church.

The mother of Mr. Van Bergen, whose naiden name was Emma L. Benjamin, was born in South Egremont. Berkshire county, Mass., in 1899, and died in Cincinnati. Ohio, in 1839. Her brothr. Joseph Benjamin, for whom her son vas named, engaged in the foundry ouncil last night considered the bids and mercantile business in Carbondale for many years, and after retiring from active labors went to New York city. where he died. At the time of his denise he had interests in Carbondale and Scranton.

In the schools of Cincinnati and at Marietta college, Ohio, Joseph B. Van Bergen received a good education. From 1846 until 1859 he was clerk in Laurel, Ind., where his father had business interests, but in the latter year be returned to Cincinnati and entered the insurance business with Samuel and the work they wish to do. E. Mack. In 1856, he went to Davenmmend that the contract for paving port, Iowa, and was engaged in business for two years, but returned to Cincinnati and accepted a position tendered him in the Ohio Valley bank. Jan. 1, 1860, he became a partner in the foundry and machine works with J. Benjamin & Co. in Carbondale. Out of that then small business the establish. We will make a backbone for the maynent that bears his name grew. For thirty-eight years he was the leading factor in its management. Aside from business Mr. Van Berger as interested in matters affecting the velfare of Carbondale, and filled many ositions of trusts. For eleven years he was a member of the school hoard. for some time served as a member of the city council and for four years was mayor. In 1863-65, he was deputy collector of United States internal revnue for this district of Pennsylvania NATIONAL DELEGATE. In 1876, he was a delegate to the Na ional Republican convention which nominated Hayes for the presidency. He was elected treasurer of Lackawanna county in 1886, and served for me term. In the Republican party he cas an active worker. He was a Knight Templar Mason naster of the blue lodge, high priest of the chapter and commander of the Knights Templar. In the order of Odd Fellows he was a past chief patriarch. In religious belief he was a Presbyter

In October, 1851, Mr. Van Bergen married Miss Mary F. Boal, daughter of a retired merchant of Cincinnati. Five children were born to them, three f whom died in infancy. The other wo, both sons, are Robert B., associated in the business, and Henry, a graduate of Hackettstown Collegiate institute and the Homeopathic Medical ollege of New York city. The mothr of these children died in June, 1888. and in August, 1890, Mr. Van Bergen married Mrs. Mary Helen Watt, widow the late Andrew Watt. Mrs. Van Bergen is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Dickson, Deceased was interested in many of the local enterprises of Carbondale and was for some time president of the Crystal Lake Water company, having been one of its organizers. He was
