BASE BALL.

THE SEASON OPENS TODAY.

Scranton Team Will Begin Its Battle at Paterson.

The Atlantic League of base ball opens its season today and every lover of base ball will watch from this time on the percentages of the various teams as they jump and fall. Scranton opens in Paterson and she is expected to do honor to herself and to Scranton, Our men are in the best of condition. They gained much practice while at Utica, which was beneficient to team work.

Hodson will doubtless go in the box. possibly followed by Risley. Thackara will go behind the bat in today's game, Paterson has a strong team, and from all reports the teams are evenly matched. Wilkes-Barre opens at home with Richmond. A spirited game is looked for. Allentown opens at Newark. Lancaster will battle with Reading. The Reading team is very strong, and every "fan" will watch her care-

Among these teams Wilkes-Barre and Richmond, are said to be the two strongest teams in the league. How true this is time will demonstrate. In many respects, Scranton leads. have the three fastest fielders in the league. We have Hodson, Risley and Keenan for the box, and they will show they have a right to be considered among the best in the league.

First School Game of Season.

The Scranton high school will play their opening game with the School of Lackawanna on Monday next, May at Athletic park. Both teams are working hard for this game. Captain Tropp, of the high school, is putting his men through hard practice this week and hopes to down the Lackawanna boys in base ball as easily as they did in foot ball. The teams are evenly matched and a lively contest may be looked for.

Captain Tropp, Harrington and Shultz will go in the box, each pitching three innings. Morse and Phillips will each catch one-half of the game. The high school team is showing up in excellent style; every man is working hard to retain his position on the team. McDonald will twirl for Lackawanna and Cooney will go be-

West Scranton Base Ball Team.

An effort will be made next Monday evening to organize a representative West Scranton base ball team. A meeting for that purpose will be held at St. David's ball and all lovers of the sport interested in the club are requested to meet at 1.30 o'clock.

Suitable grounds have already been secured and it is expected that a plan will be adopted to secure uniforms, balls, bats, etc., for the club. The object of the meeting will be to secure good players and raise funds to further the interests of the club. Some of the most available talent in the city reside on this side and the nucleus of a first class club is already available.

Among the well known players who are invited to join the club are James Logan and William Kellet, catchers; Thomas Thomas, David Williams, Tony worls and others, pitchers: David Owens, first base; Connie Coleman, secend base; Walter Jones, shortstop; Thomas McAndrew, third base; Frank Reese, John Gaughan, Thomas Davis, outfielders. This list is merely the names of players who are available and all others are invited to join.

Harvard Shut Out.

Manager Porter, of the Cornell foot ball team, will not arrange a game with Harvard next fall because the latter refused to promise a return game in Ithaca. Manager Porter also announces that the Williams' game will be played in Ithaca, instead of Buffalo. All the contests, with the exception of the Columbia, Chicago and University of Pennsylvania games, will be played in Ithaca. The management in making up next fall's schedule endeavored to follow as much as possible the stay-at-home policy. The schedule is as follows: Sept. 23, Colgate at Ithaca; Sept. 27,

Syracuse at Ithaca; Sept. 30. Hamilton at Ithaca; Oct, 7, Williams at Ithaca. Oct. 14. University of Chicago at

Chicago: Oct. 21, Lehigh at Ithaca; Oct. 28, Princeton, at Ithaca. Nov. 7 (Election day), Columbia at

New York; Nov. 11, Lafayette at Ithaca: Nov. 18, Oberlin at Ithaca; Nov. 30 (Thanksgiving day), University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia.
