EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

MEETING OF LUTHERAN SUN-DAY SCHOOL WORKERS.

Permanent Organization Formed in St. Mark's Church Last Evening. Excellent Entertainment in Washburn Street Presbyterian Church. This Evening's Debate-Fires in Hennessy Court - Phillips-Davis Nuptials-Accidents, Funerals, Aldermanic Cases, Social Events,

Representatives of the Sunday schools connected with the different Lutheran pants in the concert in the basement churches throughout the city held a meeting in the St. Mark's Lutheran church last evening for the purpose of effecting a permanent organization. Rev. C. G. Spieker presided, and Rev. A. L. Ramer, Ph.D., acted as secretary Both gentlemen were afterwards made permanent officers and Mr. Courtright, of North Scranton, was elected treas-

The committee appointed at the last togeting to arrange for a permanent organization made its report, which was adopted. The name of the organiza-tion will be "The Lutheran Sanday School Workers of Scranton." The offi-cers elected last evening will serve for a term of one year, or until their successors are chosen. The superintendents of the different Sunday schools are requested to furnish a list of all the temphers and officers to the secretary The meetings are to be held every two months on the second Tuesday.

F. H. Gerlock then gave a talk on Perfection and Work of the Teacher Before His Class," and made some ex-cellent suggestions. This was followed by a practical lesson on primary in struction by Miss Lillian Gress, assisted by the primary class of St. Mark's church. Rev. W. C. Lauer afterwards spoke on the Sunday school lesson, "The True Vine," for next Sabbath. The meeting was closed with the benediction. The next meeting will be held the second Tuesday in June, EXCELLENT ENTERTAINMENT. One of the best entertainments of the season was given last evening in the Washburn Street Presbyterian church under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society. The programme was opened with a piano selection by Miss Julia Webster, of Nineveh, N. Y., and was followed with a cornet solo by Prof. Thomas Miles, director of the Thirteenth regiment band. Owing to the inability to assemble the members of the band, their selections were omitted.

The feature of the evening, however was the appearance of Charles Hartley, the ventriloquist, who has gained a national reputation in his specialties.

PAINT! Yes we have it.

Atlantic Lead, Pure Linseed Oil, and Ready Mixed Paint, Varnish, Putty, etc.

GEORGE W. JENKINS', 1 ot S. Main Avenue

and impersonations of well-known characters, and in the second part of the programme he gave many difficult feats of ventriloquism. Mr. Hartley was encored three times during the evening, and made a decided hit, in-troducing many new features and several local jokes, and keeping his audience in a continuous uproar. Mrs. Hartley accompanied on the plane in the singing features of the perform-

Thomas J. Gippel, who was on the programme for a solo, was suffering from hourseness and did not sing alone. but rendered a duet with Lydia Sailer in an acceptable manner, Miss Beatrice Morris recited eleverly and George Martin displayed unexpected eleverness in a plane-solo, and received a hearty encore. Miss Webster played the closing selection. Miss Anna B. Williams was accompanist.

The Ladies' Aid society served reof the church.

LAST NIGHT'S FIRES.

A still alarm was sent to the Columbia Hose and Chemial company at 8.39 o'clock last evening, owing to the failure of Box 35, corner of Main avenue and Jackson street, to work properly. The cause was the discovery of a blaze in a barn in Hennessy court, occupied by James Giacomo as a stable, and owned by Dr. Heath, of Scranton street. The blaze was caused by the overturning of a lamp on a bate of hay on the grou floor. The flames were extinguished without any loss to the

At 10.58 another glarm was sounded from box 35, this time the box working properly, and the fire was discovered in the same place. This time it proved more disastrous. The annex to the building wherein the hornes were kept was badly burned and the horses suffocated. The barn was also damage.

TWO ACCIDENTS YESTERDAY.

Elfworth Morgan, aged 9 years, while playing with several companions on Jackson street vesterday, fell and cut a deep gash in his head. He was to the West Side hospital, where medical aid was rendered. It required four stitches to close the William Shaw, orderly at the West Side hospital, while dispersing a crowd of young boys from the lawn in front of the building yesterday, was struck on the head with a big stone, which was thrown by one of the boys. His injuries are slight, however,

SOCIAL AFFAIRS.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Evans, of North Bromley avenue, tendered their friends a pleasant reception at their home on Mr. Griffin gave a clever recitation, which was yell received. A mandelin and gultar duet was played by Miss Fraunfelter and Edward Morse, and Miss Lydia Sailer sang a pretty solo.

Wednesday evening. The event was in honor of Mrs. Eyans' sister, Miss Mary Dean, of Shamokin. The evening was spent in social diversions and a short musical programme was rendered. Wednesday evening. The event was in Many guests were present.

Miss Norma Nichols, of Lafayette street, entertained a party of friends at her home Wednesday evening. Re-His opening selections were mimicry freshments were served to a large party of guests.

Miss Mary A. Evans, of Swetland street, was tendered a birthday sur-prise party at her home on Wednesday evening. The young lady was presented attended drill in St. David's hall last parents. The party was attended by

Mrs. John Thomas, of Lafayette

Important Events

Occur in This Store This Week.

First --- A Timely Bargain Sale of Seasonable Silks.

Second --- Three Extra High-Class Dress Goods Values.

20 pieces 24-inch Foulard Silks, 10 pieces 27-inch Black Taffeta and white and black and white our best standard makes, thoronly. Full value 65c silks

10 pieces 32-inch wide, Heavy China Silk; fast dye, firm, heavy make and very high finish. Positively the best value we have ever Fancy offered at the price, which

15 pieces very rich Black Satin Damasks, in wonderful handsome effects, for dresses in separate skirts. These magnificent silks are well worth $1.25 to $1.50 a yd. This week at...... 98c

20 pieces of Figured Taffeta Silks in a wide range of lovely styles, es- French Beiges. Not a desirable pecially designed for effective lin- mixed effect wanting, and every ings. No doubt whatever as to piece guaranteed a production of their durability. A bargain

15 pieces high grade Check and Plaid Silks in magnificent color combinations and artistic designs, coats in elegant linings. that sold for $1,25 go this excellent quality, beautiful in de- Silks, bright finish, pure dye and sign and reliable as to service, blue of sterling quality. This is one of oughly reliable, worth is for this week only..... 69c Dress Specials

A complete line of Whipcords in every popular shade of the season. This cloth has been exceedingly popular at 75c yard. What you want this week at ... 69c

A magnificent line of 44-inch the present season. Yesterday's worth looking for at.... 59c price was 85c. A brilliant bargain achievement at... 68c

45-inch Two-Tone Whipcords This represents one of this season's suitable for waists. Smart petti- choicest novelties that never fails Silks to win admiration. Last week $1.55 was its price, Very specweek at...... 85c was its price, very spec-

> TONIGHT AND TOMORROW NIGHT And each day and night during this week you can get at any druggist's Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Langs, acknowledged to be the most successful remedy ever sold for Coughs, Croup, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption. Get a bottle today and keep it always in the house, so you can check your cold at once, Price Sc. and Sc. Sample bettle free.

friends at a 5 o'clock tea last evening The hostess was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Evan Williams, Mrs. William Evans and Mrs. Thomas Davis. The event was very pleasant and enjoyed by all present

BEFORE ALDERMAN JOHN.

Mrs. Ann Walters, of Edwards' court, who was arrested on alonday evening at the instance of Mrs. Eva Haskins and her daughter, Edith, and held in $300 ball by Alderman Davis for making threats, swore out a warrant yesterday before Alderman John for the arrest of the Haskins women on a similar charge. The hearing was held last evening and the defendants were held in $200 ball each, and permitted to depart on their own recognizance until next Monday evening.

Patrick Reap and Patrick Hennigan engaged in a quarrel and fight in the freshments afterwards to the partici-pants in the concert in the basement Railroad avenue yesterday afternoon. Reap swore out a warrant before Alderman John for Hennigan's arrest on a charge of assault and battery. The alderman heard the case last evening. and from the testimony adduced, there was not sufficient evidence to hold Hennigan and he was dischorged.

FUNERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS. The remains of the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. James Kelly, of 418 Emmet street, will be interred in the cathedral cemetery this afternoon. Funeral services over the remains of the late Mrs, John P. Griffiths will be held at 1.30 o'clock this afternoon at the residence of deceased's daughter, Mrs. John Reynolds, 718 South Main avenue. The remains will be taken to Taylor for interment.

Harland was held yesterday afternoon from the residence on Price street. S. F. Mathews, of the First Baptist church, officiated. Interment was Mrs. White and her sister, Belle, of made in the Washburn street ceme- Scott.

PHILLIPS-DAVIS NUPTIALS. Richard O. Phillips, jr., of 110 South Hyde Park avenue, a well-known member of Company F. Thirteenth egiment, and Miss Margaret L. Davis, of Believue, were united in marriage at 8.20 o'clock last evening at the parsonage of the Tabernacle Congregational church on South Hyde Park avenue by the paster, Rev. D. P. Jones. The couple were unattended, and the marriage was kept very quiet. Both are very well known on this side. They will reside with the bride's parents in

DEBATE THIS EVENING.

The Baptist Young People's union f the First Welsh Baptist church will mauet a aebate in the lecture room the church this evening commencing at 8 o'clock. The question will be, Resolved, That Newspaper Reading ls More Profitable Than Book Readae debaters will be James A. Hughes, Dr. Taliesen Phillips, Palmer Williams, John M. Edwards, Misses zizzle Hughes and Jennie Jenkins, The judges will be Attorney Charles E. Deniels, Attorney John R. Edwards and W. R. Hughes, of The Tribune.

NOTES AND PERSONALS. St. Paul's Pioneer corps held a well-with a gold watch and chain by her evening and acted upon several matters of interest to themselves. The Webster Literary and Debating society will meet this evening at the street, entertained a number of lady home of Robert Pettit, 314 North Rebecca avenue.

Another meeting of the steamship agents handling foreign drafts will be held in Morgan's hall, corner of Main avenue and Jackson street, at 7.39 clock this evening. The Flectric City Wheelmen held a 'waxing bee" at the club house on Jackson street last evening. Rev. J. P. Moffat, of the Washburn Street Presbyterlan church, will deliver a sermon next Sunday evening at the church on "The Cause of the Present State of Affairs, and the Cure of the Conditions Existing in the The Young People's Dancing class will meet this evening in Mears' hall, A new dance will be taught by the intructor, Mrs. Elizabeth Lewis. The members of A. B. Eynon's class in the Plymouth Congregational Sunday school will hold an entertainment and social in the church, Monday evening, May 1. An excellent programme being arranged. The work of repairing the sewer basins on Hyde Park avenue and Academy street is being done under the direction of Street Commissioner

All West Scranton ladies interested in the firemen's fair are requested to meet at the city hall this evening at 7.39 o'clock.

A mothers' meeting was held yesterday afternoon in Miss Murray's room at No. 19 school. A similar meeting will be held this afternoon in Miss

John Joseph, of North Bromley avestreet, were united in marriage at Philadelphia on Saturday last. will return the first of next week and ommence housekeeping on Jackson

Miss Emma Smith, of Shenandoah, the has been the guest of Mrs. John Smith, of South Sumner avenue, has returned home Mrs. Libbie Parsons, of Sydney, N. Y, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Connolly, of Jackson street, returned home Wednes-

Owen Donnegan, of Luzerne street has gone to New York, where he will enlist in the navy.

E. ROBINSON'S SONS' BOCK BEER.

NORTH SCRANTON.

A surprise party was tendered Miss Annie Davis at her home on Oak street last evening. Games, music and recitations were the order of the evening and a most enjoyable time was spent Refreshments were served at a late hour, after which the guests took their leparture. Those present were Misses Keturah Jones, Alice Leonard, Margaret Willis, Helen Tilson, Bessie Evans, Bessle Itterly, Edith Richards, Bellia Harris, Annie Davis, Lavinia Harris and Messrs. David Richards. Frank Davis, Rossar Price, Daniel Phomas, Thomas Owens, Rufus Richards, Thomas Phillips, Evan Jehu, Daid James and Edgar Richards.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Provilence Presbyterian church will hold an entertainment in the church parlors on North Main avenue this evening. Mr. and Mrs. John K. Ketchum, of Duryea, spent vesterday with friends on West Market street.

Eugene Robbins, of Plymouth, visited friends on Williams street yester-

Miss Amelia Wright, of New York returned home yesterday, after a month's visit with relatives on Spring

Miss Bertha Reese, of Taylor, spent yesterday with friends here. Mary Hartshorn is visiting friends in left for Bay City, Michigan. William J. Owens, of Court Robin Hood lodge, No. 7, Independent Order of Foresters, was elected a delegate to the Grand Robin Hood to be held at South Bethlehem May 16.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Rodham, of North Main avenue, are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Morris, of Green street, attended the funeral of the former's brother, Jesse Morris, at Olyphant, Wednesday. Miss Sarah Rennedy, of Williams street, is seriously III. Prof. and Mrs. Cousins are visiting friends in Peckville.

with Fenner & Dickinson's Ready Pay the guest of Miss Annie Neary, of Von Storch avenue. miss Grace Wendell, of Clark's Summit, is visitingss Gertrude Burns, of North Main avenue.

f pneumonia at her home on West Market street. Miss Mary Quinn, of Shamokin, is the guest of Miss Annie Haggerty, of Dickson avenue

Miss Lillian Jurisch, of Delaware street, is entertaining Rev. and Mrs. Benjamin Ranton, of Lackawanna. Miss Nellie Rice, of Taylor, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Evan Jones, of Spring street. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wheatley, of Clark's Green, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Reese, of North Main

M. J. Size has accepted a position with the Lackawanna Cash store. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williams, of Mary street, a daughter. David Williams and William Jones left yesterday on a fishing trip in the streams of Susquehanna county. Miss Mary McNamara, of West Market street, is ill. Mrs. Martin Deichmiller returned yesterday after a few days' visit with Miss Jennie Kelly, of Deacon street, is the guest of friends in Wilkes-Barre. J. T. Phillips, of Parsons- visited friends on Brick avenue yesterday.

E. ROBINSON'S SONS' BOCK BEER.

DUNMORE.

A large number of the congregation of the Presbyterian church accepted the kind hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. mains were borne to the Cathedral A. D. Blackinton, of Elm street, yesterday. The visitors were entertained council. Young Men's Institute of in a very pleasant manner from 4 to which society the deceased was a mem-6 o'clock and from 7 to 9 o'clock p. m. The "Ideal Man" is the subject of Rev. Dr. Levi Bird's lecture tonight at the Tripp Avenue Christian church. weeks ago the Rev. Dr. Power, of Washington, D. C., lectured upon the "Ideal Woman" to a large audience, All who heard it should not fail to attend tonight to hear an answer. The admission will be free, but a silver offering will be taken up. The postoffice has been removed into the new Odd Fellows' building on Chestnut street. The office was formerly located in the building destroyed by fire several months ago. The change was made last evening, and everything is in readiness for business this morning. Postmaster Bishop superintended the work, which was completed in a

At the special meeting of the Indopendent Hose company, held last evening. It was decided to accept the invinue, and Miss Alice Moran, of Jackson tation of the Columbias, of West Scranton, to participate with them on . the 11th.

The Enworth league meeting will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church this evening. Eight chapters are expected to be present. A programme will be rendered. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Snyder, of William street, are rejoicing over the arrival of a young daughter. Mr. and Mrs. William Houtz of Lahighton, Pa., are being entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Winterstein, of North Blakely street. Miss Emma Foley, of Mt. Cobb, who was the guest of Miss Lucy Eilis, of Church street, returned home rester-

Electrician J. H. Spain, of South Blakely street, will go to Olyphant today, where he will make a thorough overhauling of the electric machinery make changes wherever needed.

E. ROBINSON'S SONS' BOCK HEER.

PARK PLACE.

John Zurifuh, of North Main avenue, vas tendered a surprise Tuesday evening at his home by a party of friends in honor of its being a birthday anni-The members of the Home Literary soclety met last night at the residence of Frank Wrenn. Albert Gisner, of LaPlume, visited friends here yesterday.

All members and friends of the Court street church Epworth League, who can attend the League union meeting at Dunmore tonight, are requested to meet in the lecture room of the church tonight at 7 o'clock.

The Exception.

"It is said," stated the lecturer, "that those who own red hair are less apt to grow bald than others. This, however, does not apply if the red hair a man

GATHERED IN SOUTH SCRANTON

FOURTEEN FRIENDS PREPARE FOR DEWEY DAY.

Will Conduct Their Annual Banquet Next Monday Night-Alderman John Lentes to Be Speaker of the Evening-Lady Friends Will Be the Guests of Honor-Funerals of Robert Schimpff and Frank Mc-Donald-Progressive Euchre Party. Firemen's Committees All at Work.

At Hotel Best last night a joint meetng of the Fourteen Friends and their lady friends was held for the purpose of completing all arrangements for the third annual banquet of the club to be held Monday next at Natter's hall on Alder street. Every member of the Friends was present at last night's session and there was a large attendance of the ladies. Albert Heier, president of the club, was chairman of the meet-

The committees in charge of the approaching event made tetailed reports. in which was stated that everything was arranged. James F. Best, steward of the club, will prepare the menu. He has engaged a large corps of wait-Conrad Murray, of Oak street, has resses and the several courses will be served in an exceptional manner. Fuhrman and his men will begin decorating tomorrow. The concert and dance music will be rendered by Lawrence and his complete orchestra.

It is estimated that one hundred and ten couples will be present at the banquet. Alderman John Lentes has been asked to deliver the address of the night. The committee of the banquet is comprised of Philip Scheuer, chairman: Albert Gutheinz, secretary: William Naegli, Louis Zimmer and William Schwenker.

FUNERAL OF ROBERT SCHIMPFF From the family residence, 502 Cedar avenue, the funeral of Robert Schimpff Bert Stevens has accepted a position son of Mr. and Mrs. August Schimpff, with Fenner & Dickinson's Ready Pay was held yesterday afternoon. Rev. E. J. Schmidt, of the Church of Peace Miss Bessie Mangan, of Plains, is conducted the services at the resi-he guest of Miss Annie Neary, of dence. He preached a sermon, speaking consolingly to the afflicted parents.

At the conclusion of the services the procession moved to the Pittston avenue cemetery, where interment was Mrs. Anna Clark is dangerously ill made. Many beautiful floral pieces were placed on the grave. Mrs. Mina Robinson sent an anchor, surmounted by a dove. From Mr. and Mrs. Philip Robinson were a bouquet of roses and carnations, a basket of carnations from Mrs. Robert E. Schimpff, carnations and roses from Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Terppe and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Tannler. The flower bearers were William Gutheinz, Otto Epp, Anthony Ridenbach and William Elsing, John Bauer, Anthony Dippre, William Stein and George Wirth were the pallbearers.

PROGRESSIVE EUCHRE PARTY. The branch of the Ladies' Catholic Benevolent association of this side, gave a euchre party at Pharmacy hall Wednesday night. The games began at 9 o'clock, and at the close of the Mr. De Oro and Mr. McGuire were the winners.

Miss Kate Reardon played the dance THE M'DONALD OBSEQUIES.

The funeral of the late Frank Mc-Donald took place from his home on ledar avenue, yesterday morning. At o'clock the remains were borne to St. John's church, where a high mass of requiem was celebrated by the Rev Pather Fleming. The celebrant of the mass preached the sermon also,

At the close of the services the recemetery and laid to rest. Columbus ber, attended the funeral in a body.

ARE ACTIVELY AT WORK. The ladies selected by the three fire companies of this side, and the Relief Engine company of Petersburg, to preside at the booths of the fourth district at the coming firemen's fair, met last night at the Neptune Engine

Miss Lena Rosar, chairlady of the committee, occupied the chair. gratifying reports were made by the corps of canvassers, and the several details needing attention were given onsideration.

NUES OF NEWS. A son was born into the family of Henry Henn, permanent man of the Neptune Engine company Wednesday, at his residence on Cedar avenue. Pea Coal Delivered, $1.25, to South Side, central city and central Hyde Park. Address orders to C. B. Sharkey, 1914 Cedar ave. 'Phone 6683.

E ROBINSON'S SONS BOCK BEER

GREEN RIDGE.

Ice Cream Soda at H. M. Cole's pharmacy, 1438 Capouse avenue. Miss Edith Borean is visiting friends in Avoca.

Robert War I spent Wednesday evenng in Duryea Mrs. Joseph Hangi has returned from visit to Dalton.

B. T. Jayne, of Capouse avenue, is in Bloomsburg. E. L. Safford, of Carter street, has left for Long Island, where he has accepted a position

Philip Steel, of New York city, is visiting friends here. Only Williams' ice cream used with Soda Water drawn at Manner's drug

The funeral of the late David S. Cobb took place from the Baptist church yesterday afternoon. A large number of friends attended. The flowers were very beautiful. The pall-hearer were I. H. Stevens, E. G. Stevens, C. R. Kingsley, H. M. Cole, J. B. Jackson and Mr. Van Auken. Rev. W. J. Ford and Rev. Moore spoke briefly as the house and also at the church. Interment was made in Forest Hill ceme-

Bert Hainey and Harry Francis

DRINK GRAIN-O

after you have concluded that you ought not to drink coffee. It is not a medicine but doctors order it, because it is healthful, invigorating and appetizing. It is made from pure grains and has that rich scal brown color and tastes like the finest grades of coffee and costs shout ¼ as much. Children like it and thrive on it because it is a genuine food drink containing nothing but nourishment. Ask your grocer for Grain-O, the new food drink, is and Se.

WARNER'S SAFE CURE not only strengthens and puts in prime order the liver and kidneys, but also purifies and enriches the blood.

That is why it has gained such a world-wide reputation for its remarkable curative effects.

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX THE POPULAR HOUSE FURNISHING STORE.

In a Utopia

practical demonstration now being given in our Window.

BAKING EXHIBITION TODAY.

FOOTE & FULLER CO.,

Mears Building, 140-142 Washington Avenue.

Philip Dunn, of East Market street ill leave here tomorrow for East Hampton, L. I., where he has accepted 1 position Nothing but the purest of fruit juices and rock candy syrup used in soda flavors at Manner's pharmacy, 920

pent Wednesday evening at Pittston.

OBITUARY.

Green Ridge street.

Joseph Shoemaker died suddenly of heart trouble yesterday morning at his residence, 725 Willow street. He was preparing to go to work when the death stroke came. Drs. Kolb and Retz were sent for, but they could do nothing. Deceased was 40 years of age, and is survived by his wife and three children. The funeral announcement will be made later.

Mrs. Mary Lewis, of Audenried, Pa., mother of Mrs. T. R. Watkins, of seventh game, which was the last. Wales street, this city, died yesterday. Mrs. C. G. Boland, Miss Jennie Gavin. Mrs. Lewis is an old resident of this place and has many friends in and around the city, who will mourn her When the cards were laid aside, death. The deceased was 76 years of dancing was enjoyed for several hours. age. Funeral announcement later.

> Mrs. John Hoffman died at her home, 723 Cedar avenue, Wednesday. was 67 years of age, and had been alling for many months. One son, John Hoffman, her only child survives her The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon. Services will be held at the house, Rev. W. A. Nordt officiating.

> Mrs. Catherine Staples, an old and respected resident of North Scranton. died yesterday morning at her residence. Deceased was 80 years of age. The funeral will be held from the residence Saturday afternoon and the services will be conducted at the Providence Methodist church at 2 o'clock.

THINKS HE IS A BURGLAR. An Edgerton Man Who has Some

Odd Hallucinations. The following appeared in the Wednesday issue of the Susquehanna-Transcript and is therein credited to Archbald: "Police Officer John R. McHale was summoned to Edgerton on Saturday evening to take charge of a man who was acting very strangely and who held the people of that neighborhood in fear. He went to the Hamlet and took the man in custody and confined him to the borough lock-up. On Sunday morning the man was found lying on the floor of the cell, not being able to move. Dr. Van Doren was sum moned and held an examination and found that the man's mind was ucranged. He had an hallucination that me one was trying to embalm him and had him laid out for burial. When questioned by Officer McHale he said e was one of the burglars who robbed the power house at Mayfield and that he wanted to go to the hospital, where the rest of his friends were. General Manager Flynn came to lown Sunday evening to investigate and the man glars for a time, but took no part in the robbery." The above item in all probability refers to one John Chester Peck, of Edgerton, now a prisoner at the county jait on a charge of "felonious assault and who says he was with the Mayfield burglars. He bears no evidence of wounds and the one man wanted to complete the gang is supposed to have been wounded.

admitted that he was with the bur-

E. ROBINSON'S SONS' BOCK BEER.

MINER SEVERELY BURNED. Gas Explodes in the Woodward Mine with Serious Results.

John Jones, employed as a miner in he Woodward colliery, operated by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western ompany at Kingston, was severely burned by explouing gas yesterday morning. His injuries are mostly about the neck, arms and shoulders. He was removed to the Moses Taylor

& ROBINSON'S SONS' BOCK BEER. MAY GET ANOTHER MINE.

Scranton Coal Company Has Its Eye

on Blue Bidge Colliery. Engineers of the Scranton Coal comany are looking over the Blue Ridge colliery at Peckville, preliminary to negotiations being opened for the transfer of the property. Should the sale be effected the new | Cincinnati Enquirer, hree Nights and a Matinees, Commencing Monday, May 1st, with Matinees Tuesday and Wednesday.

AMUSEMENTS.

A CADEMY OF MUSIC. BURGUNDER & REIS, Lessen. H. R. LONG, Manager.

Special Engagement

One Continuous Laugh. SEE the Great Blindfold Drive.

SEE Transmission by Telepathy.

SEE the Hindoo Sleep. Prices-Evenings, 10, 20, 30 cents. Matiiees, 10 and 20 cents.

Ladies tickets Monday night, 15 cents.

Burlesquers.

THE LONDON GAIETY GIRLS

Three Days only and closes season, May 1, 2, 3, "The Merry Widows' Burlesquers."

company would make a very large acquisition to its already extensive hold-

IN BANKRUPTCY COURT.

Voluntary Petition Received from J. N. Pierson. The voluntary petition in bankruptcy f J. N. Pierson, grocer, of Green Ridge, was yesterday submitted to Referee C. Van Wormer. The assets are nothing and the liabilities $1,360. Referee Van Wormer returned yes-terday from Tunkhannock, where he conducted a hearing in the bankruptcy petition of Fred. S. Bois, of Lacey ville. There was no appearance for the creditors. History of Pocket Handkerchiefs.

From Woman's Life.

I'ntil the reign of the Empress Joephine a handkerchief was thought in France so shocking an object that a ady would never have dared to use it before any one. The word, even, was carefully avoided in refined conversa-An actor who would have used handkerchief on the stage, even in he most tearful moments of the play, vould have been unmercifully hissed; and it was only in the beginning of the present century that a celebrated actress, Mile. Duchesnois, dared to appear with a handkerchief in her hand, Having to speak of this handkerchief in the course of the piece, she never ould summon enough courage to call it by its true name, but referred to it as "a light tissue."

A few years later a translation of me of Shakespeare's plays, by Alfred de Vigny, having been acted, the word handkerchief was used for the first ime on the stage, amid cries of indignation from every part of the house. It is doubtful if even today French ladies would carry handkerchiefs if the wife of Napoleon I had not given the signal or adopting them. The Empress Josephine, although really lovely, had bad teeth. To conceal them she was in the habit of carrying small handkerchiefs, adorned with costly laces, which she constantly raised gracefully to her lips. Of course, all the ladies of the court followed her example, and handkerchiefs then rapidly became an important part of the feminine tollet.

Lost Time.

"The first act, you know, is supposed to over a period of twenty years." "What a long time between drinks!"-

Globe Warehouse