Wall Street Review Wall Street Review. New York, April 29.-The market was heavy practically all day and while a number of material recessions appeared the general railway list suffered but fractionally. Stocks affected by the bill taxing corporation franchises in this state suffered most. Metropolitan lost 45 points. Brooklyn Transit and Consoli-dated Gas nearly 4 Monhattan a point, but Third Avenue was an exception, ris-ing 2 points on small dealings on ex-planation that that company would bid for the underground franchise. The singles by O'Connell and McMahon Scranton only had one error to her credit in Saturday's game with Paterson while Paterson had five. Thackara made AMATEUR BASE BALL NOTES.

'Corner Grocery" has been a household word for the past fen years. It has been brightened and varnished up-to-date, but still retains the old beauties that have made the play famout from ocean to ocean. Besides being a rip-roaring comedy, it has a pretty little story, one which appeals to every man, woman and child, and affords Mr. Sully ample opportunity to exhibit his cleverness in provoking tears and laughter alternately. Mr.

Sully has surrounded himself with a competent company of players who
