OPENING OF THE SEASON

Scranton Gave a Creditable Exhibition and Succeeded in Taking a Game from Wilkes-Barre. The Game in Detail.

The Atlantic league season in this city opened yesterday in a highly auspicious manner.

The home team defeated their dearest enemies-Wilkes-Barre-the crowd was large and the weather fine.

Early in the afternoon the members of the two clubs in carriages and headed by the Lawrence band, paraded the streets of the city and then proceeded to the base ball park for their preliminary practice.

When Umpire Hardie Henderson, the ex-National league pitcher, called play at 3.30 every thorough-paced fan was present and most of them occupied the identical seats that were their favorites when Scranton last had profes-sional ball. The game was featured by not a few brilliant plays that gave the enthusiasts an opportunity to exercise their lungs. They allowed no opportu-

Wilkes-Barre sent up a respectablesized crowd of rooters who gathered around the Wilkes-Barre stockholders butter in in the grand stand and did what the could to cheer up the Alligator boy. The sixth and ninth innings were th only occasions when the Wilkes-Barre ans had an opportunity for enthusin and they proceeded to grasp them. The impression made by the Scrants club was very favorable. It was th general sentiment that Manager Swif has a lot of earnest, active players w will win a strong position for Scranto in the league race. The home team be Knoll, the first batsman, was giv first on balls and proceeded to stea second. Lippert made a single, Dillo flew out and then Pete Egan came t

Egan's re-appearance on a Scranto diamond was a decided success,

Bill Coughlin, the active young ma who covers third for Wiikes-Barre, ton friends presented him with a handsome gold-headed umbrella, through Umpire Henderson. The gift was modestly acknowledged by Coughlin.

No man was ever known to hit the ball after a presentation of that nature and of course Coughlin went out at first. He distinguished himself later in the game by making three singles and batting in several runs. It was estimated that upwards of 1,500 persons saw yesterday's game. Although Swift's men won, their victory was by no means easily earned, notwithstanding the score was 11 to 4 in their favor when Wilkes-Barre began the last half of the ninth inning. It seemed fitting and proper that the season's opening game should not be commonplace, that it should contain something of the heart-breaking order before the finish. If the cranks looked forward to something of this kind they were not disappointed for in the windup of the final chapter, Risley, who had permitted only eight hits, was made the victim of some bunched pounding, five hits for stx balls, which with an error by Kaoll, developed five runs and sent the big crowd into tits of excitement. The game closed with Wilkes-Earre within two points of a rie and a runner on second base.

OPENED UP WELL. The Scrantons were first at bat and opened the matinee auspiciously by McGinius, p Knoll, a single by Lippert, a double steal and a productive hit by Egan, Meanwhile Dillon had gone out on a pop fly to short. Doherty drew a pass to first, but when he and Egan tried a partnership steal, the latter was nipped at third. O'Connell wound up the inning by flying out to center.

O'Neill and Eagan were the only Scrantonians to make the first station during the Scranton halves of the second and third innings, but Wilkes-Barre in the last half of the third developed a tally on Clymer's twobaser, an infield out, which advanced him to third, and Dillon's error in fall-ing to accept Risley's assist.

With the score 2-1 against the men rom down the valley, things began to look interesting. O'Connell opened the fourth, however, with a corking single nd stole second. McMahon had a third strike called on him and O'Neill fouled out to Coughlin. Matters ooked rather cheerless then, but Risley furnished an agreeable disappointment by pounding a gravel-tearer through second base territory, scoring O'Connell. Knoll got a walk but Lippert flew out to Clymer.

The visitors missed a golden opportunity in their half. With one out and the circuit filled Jimeson fanned and Tymer forced Smith at second on Mc-

Swift's employes went out one-twothree in the fifth. With one out in the sixth McMahon singled but was doubled with O'Neill on the latter's grounder to Atherton, he being aided by Burns and Goeckel in a fast play. IN THE FIFTH INNING.

In Wilkes-Barre's half of the fifth Hallighan walked with one out. Goeckel hit a brisk one to McMahon, who started a double play that was completed by O'Connell and Dillon. Double plays were the fashion after that. Two singles, a sacrifice and another single netted Wilkes-Barre two runs in the sixth. A force hit, a double by Clymer and an assist from Risley to Dillon ended the inning. Risley walked in the seventh but was caught napping at first. A triple by Knoll to the fence at right center, Lipert's single which was too hot for Wilkes-Barre's Indian pitcher to handle, a triple by Dillon to the right field fence and Coughlin's failure to halt Eagas a grounder made a total of three reus. Wilkes-Barre made one tally c. Burns' walk, Atherton's single which McMahon did well to stop and Coughlin's double to left center. In the eighth an error by Jimeson, Risley's triple to center and Knell's same offence along the right field foul line scored two. Wilkes-Barre succumbed on two outfield flies and a fine is not a mere experience.

We will not do work today that you can't can us to account for tomorrow. We compete with the cheap advertising dentists who are had today and gone for away but we do not consist.
So do not make a mistake; all our operators are experts of skill and experience, and not mere students. Still our prices are lower than the lowcat. Beware of imposters and charlatans who can afford to ruin your teelth because they are not financially responsible. How can we do better than they? The answer is easy; We have a dental office in nearly every city in the United States, and we buy our supplies at wholesale for cost. No wonder we can give better prices than anyone else. Ex perience counts also, and we have experience besides our diplomas. Don't be buincoed; get the best, the most reliable, the most comfortable and the most durable. The newest methods! The latest applications! The best materials! These are attractions worth considering. Besides, nervous reople and these with heart weakness can have their teeth filled er crowned with absolute safety and positively without pain. We are the only really up-to-date Dental establishment in Northeastern Pennsylvania. Teeth extracting in the morning and a new set furnished in the afternoon is an old praetice of ours. We are the original; all others are mere imitators. We are the originators of vitalized air.
