FUNERAL OF EDWARD PRICE.

Rev. D. P. Jones, of the Tabernacle Congregational church, and Rev. Peter Roberts, of Olyphant, officiated at the funeral services of the late Edward S. Price yesterday afternoon. Short services were held at the house, 317 North Hyde Park avenue, and the remains were afterwards borne to the Tabernacle Congregational church, on South Hyde Park avenue, where many friends of the deceased had assembled for the services.

The pall-bearers were Obed Jenkins, John A. Thomas, Reese D. Reese, Teesse W. Lloyd, Owen D. John and Egan H. Evans. Interment was made in the Forest Hill cemetery.

FUNERAL OF EDWARD M'GARRY.

The funeral of the late Edward M'Garry was held yesterday morning from the residence on Luzerne street. Prior to the hour appointed for the funeral the home was thronged with relatives, who gathered there as a mark of respect to the deceased. At 9 o'clock the remains were borne to the Holy Cross church, where a Requiem mass was celebrated. Rev. William O'Donnell, rector of the church, officiated and at the conclusion of the mass preached an eloquent funeral sermon, in which he pointed out in glowing terms the many noble traits of the deceased.

Interment was made in the family plot in the Cathedral cemetery. The pall-bearers were the nephews and grandchildren of the deceased. They were: Timothy, Peter and James McCoy, William Stanton, Frank Kilker and Joshua Elias.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Signature of J. C. Watson.

Does Coffee Agree with You? If not, drink Grain-O—made from pure grains. A lady writes: "The first time I made Grain-O I did not like it, but after using it for one week nothing would induce me to go back to coffee." It nourishes and feeds the system. The children can drink it freely with great benefit. It is the strengthening substance of pure grains. Get a pack of day-to-day from your grocer, follow the directions in making it and you will have a delicious and healthful table beverage for old and young. 15c. and 25c.
