EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

REGULAR MEETING OF BOARD OF TRADE LAST NIGHT.

Many Subjects Discussed, but No Decisive Action Taken—Committees Named for the Year—Resolutions Adopted and Other Matters Referred to—Death of George H. Benore—Wheelmen Elect Officers and Members—St. David's Ladies Fair—Other Notes and Personal of General Interest.

The following members were present at the meeting of the West Side board of trade last evening: President C. E. Daniels, Secretary Joseph Oliver, Treasurer William Farrell, Dr. P. F. Struppeler, John Fern, Jenkin Reese, H. D. Jones, T. Fellows Mason.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read by Secretary Oliver and approved. President Daniels referred to the bond ordinance and the sum spoken of for park improvements and thought some of it ought to be secured for West Scranton.

The matter was referred to the park committee with power to act. Mr. Farrell thought an effort should be made to secure the Pound Woods for a park under the new management of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company.

Fellows Mason moved that in the event of anything else but a recommendation being included in the ordinance, a recommendation be inserted for the West Lackawanna avenue viaduct. Mr. Mason reported that a movement was on foot for the construction of a private sewer on South Main avenue in the vicinity of Edwards' court and Rock street.

Resolutions were adopted expressing the regret of the board for the death of Frank Stotter. A communication was read from Ambrose West, proprietor of the Pioneer Knitting mills, of Plymouth, relative to a suit for the location of a building, being included in the ordinance.

Nothing but the purest of fruit juices and rock candy syrup used in soda flavors at Manner's pharmacy, 329 Green Ridge street.

The Green Ridge Wheelmen held a business meeting Monday night to consider the idea of erecting a new club house. Plans have been submitted by Architect Davis for a three-story club house, with all modern improvements.

A HARMLESS STIMULANT.

Should Always Be at Hand: This Treacherous Spring Day.

This long desired agent in the prevention and cure of disease has at length been found. It has been stamped with the Government's approval, and endorsed by the medical profession.

An eminent medical authority while speaking of grip and its proper treatment has this to say: "that while ordinary whistles are either useless or dangerous, or both, in the treatment of grip, Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is of the largest value in the treatment."

This invigorating agent, with its absolute freedom from fusel oil, and its possession of tonic powers which have been felt and recognized by all who have used it, is a sovereign remedy for coughs and colds, influenza and asthma, and oftentimes wards off an attack of pneumonia which, without its intervention, would have hurried the sufferer into premature grave.

The wise housewife, then, will always keep a bottle of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey in the closet among her household remedies.

DEATH OF GEORGE BENORE.

George H. Benore, the junior member of the well known firm of John Benore & Son, died at the home of his parents on Scranton street at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Benore had not been seriously ill until Monday morning, when he took to his bed. On Thursday night of last week he complained of a cold, and had previously been a sufferer from rheumatism and erysipelas, and on Friday morning he was taken with a very serious case of pneumonia, which developed, and despite the efforts of the attending physicians, nothing could be done to prevent death.

Deceased was born in the town of Bolton, Oswego county, New York, 23 years ago, and arrived in Scranton, Pa., with his father in the lumber business from his boyhood up, and became a partner in the firm when he was about 20 years of age. He was married to a Miss Sadie Phillips, who died shortly afterwards, and his second wife was Miss Grace Morris, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who together with one son, John, aged 6 years, survive him.

Mr. Benore was a member of Hyde Park lodge, Free and Accepted Masons; Knights of Pythias, No. 16, and Lackawanna chapter, Order of the B. P. O. E. He served one term in the select council from the Fifth ward, and resided at 160 South Main avenue. Mrs. Benore, who has been visiting in Brooklyn, N. Y., since a week ago last Saturday, was notified by telegraph of her husband's death yesterday, and arrived home last evening. The funeral arrangements have not yet been perfected and will be announced tomorrow.

ELECTRIC CITY WHEELMEN.

SOUTH SCRANTON.

John Garvey, of Fig street, rested last night in the county jail. Garvey was arrested on a warrant issued by Alderman Lentz, at the instance of Richard Fleming, a neighbor of the defendant. Just a week ago yesterday, the prosecutor alleged, the defendant came home intoxicated and began to abuse his wife.

The cries of the woman brought Mr. and Mrs. Fleming to her aid. Garvey, it is alleged, with an ax and stones, made forcible entry into Fleming's abode and inflicted serious injury upon his wife and him, hence the arrest. When brought before the alderman hall in the sum of $500 was demanded. In default Garvey was committed to the county jail.

Charles Pfeifer, of 928 Maple street, was also arraigned before Alderman Lentz yesterday, charged by his wife with assault and battery. Pfeifer has been given ever so many chances to mend his ways, but Alderman Lentz, that when brought for a hearing he was committed to the county jail to await the action of the grand jury.

The Century Hose company of this side will hold forth tonight, at the firemen's fair at the Armory on Adams avenue. The company will assemble tonight at 7 o'clock to give a street parade, and then proceed to the armory. The William Connell and Neptune Hose companies will accompany the Century's in the parade and assist in the fair. The Forest band will lead the procession.
