WAY AN ARCHITECT VIEWS THREATENED PROBLE.

He Says Many Persons Who Intend Building Are Holding Back. Some Buildings That Are Under Way—Gondola Cars for the Central Built at the Berwick Shops—Car Builders' Union Is Growing Rapidly—Preparing for the Convention of the Carpenters' Unions.

When questioned concerning his opinion of the building trades outlook as affected by the talk of a strike by the unions affiliated with the Building Trades council, a prominent architect of this city made the following reply: "The outlook is not encouraging, owing to the fact that many persons who intend building are delaying the matter. This delay is due to the uncertainty of what the result of the expected trouble between the contractors and Carpenters' union will be after June 1 next."

BUILDING TRADES NOTES.

Next year a convention of the Carpenters' unions will be held in this city and already active preparations along the preliminary lines are under way. Of course, the main thing now is a convention fund. The wives and lady friends of the members of the several unions have interested themselves and are arranging to give an entertainment to raise a portion of the needed money for the fund. They expect to conduct the affair at Carnegie's hall, on Wyoming avenue, Wednesday evening, May 24.

The Car Builders' union, No. 7523, is rapidly growing in membership and will soon rank as one of the strongest and perhaps most potent labor organizations in this city. The union meets the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of each month in Carpenters' hall, on Wyoming avenue.

Contractor J. B. Woolsey is building a two and one-half story frame single residence for T. F. Cawley on Jefferson avenue, Dunmore, to cost about $4,000. Architect Harvey J. Blackwood drew up the plans.

Contractor J. E. Woodley is remodeling Mrs. Nye's residence in Dunmore, greatly improving the appearance and enhancing the value thereof. Architect Blackwood arranged the plans.

Agent Thomas J. Williams, of the Woodworkers' union, is very busy and also very successful in his efforts to secure signatures to the agreement between the contractors and mill men and the union to use only union marked trim, etc.

CERTIFICATE ILLEGAL.

Old Forge Republican Candidates Got on the Official Ballot in Nomination Papers—Election Is Held Today.

It did not take Judge H. M. Edwards long to dispose of the Old Forge election middle yesterday. The certificates of nomination filed by the candidates nominated at the alleged Republican caucus was declared illegal. The order of the court was as follows:

"It appearing that the caucuses whose actions set forth in this certificate of nomination were not lawfully and regularly called and that the notice for said caucuses was vague and insufficient the said certificate of nomination is declared void."

The candidates named in this certificate were: Burgess, Andrew Kennedy; school directors, Robert Johnson, John N. Cook, John Remmer, Lewis Poppl, Andrew Hoover, George Fletcher; councilmen, Thomas Stephens, Robert Stoff, William Crues, James Tulbe, Antonio Brancardi, Isaac Daw and Philip Swartz. They immediately prepared nomination papers under the title "Straight Republican Party" and secured a place on the official ballot.

Objections were made yesterday to the nomination papers of the "Republican Party" and the court allowed the papers to be amended by changing the title to the "Independent Republican Party." As prepared, the official ballot has the Democratic nominees in the first column; "Straight Republicans" in the second; "Independent Republicans" in the third and People's party in the fourth.

The election will be held today and will be conducted by the officers elected in February for the three districts of Old Forge township. They have been appointed by the court to conduct this election.

The answer of W. H. Thomas was filed with Clerk of the Courts Daniels yesterday in the election contest proceedings brought against him by John E. Walsh. The office of constable of the Eighth ward of this city is in dispute. The answer covers nine typewritten pages and makes a general and specific denial of the charges contained in Walsh's petition that Thomas was not legally elected.
