The next half hour was taken up by Mrs. Harriet Newell Jones, of Philadelphia, who spoke in behalf of the Women's Baptist Foreign Missionary society. Mrs. Thomas Davis of Scranton read an excellent paper on "Spiritual Growth and How to Attain It." The composition showed much study and preparation. The numbers on the programme were interspersed with songs from the Gospel Hymns.

T. T. Edwards, of Wilkes-Barre, made a strong address on "Intemperate Pleasures." He cited Sunday bicycling, card playing and other pleasures as intemperate and laid particular stress on the liquor habit. Sarah Lewis, a little miss of Scranton, sang a solo, accompanied by Mrs. Thomas Ingram, of Plymouth. Mrs. O'Boyle, of Taylor, who was on the programme to read a paper on "The Christian Girl," was unable to be present, owing to sickness, and a vote of sympathy was extended by the convention.

The matter of holding the annual excursion was acted upon and Harvey's lake was selected, and the secretary was instructed to notify the different societies, so that the Sunday schools will not conflict with the union's date. A telegram was read from State President J. M. Garland Pollard, of Richmond, Va., inviting the Baptist Young People to Virginia, July 15. On motion the book, published by the Rev. Mr. Griffiths, of Lansford, was recommended to the societies of the association, and a place on the programme was given him at the evening session to review the book. After the expression of several matters for the good of the order, the afternoon session was closed with the singing of a hymn and offering of prayer. The evening session was led by William Roberts, of Wilkes-Barre. After a song service, Scripture reading and prayer, Rev. L. E. Evans, of Shenandoah, made an address on "How to Retain the Older Scholars."

NERVOUS DEPRESSION.

[A TALK WITH MRS. PINKHAM] A woman with the blues is a very uncomfortable person. She is irritable, unhappy and frequently hysterical. The condition of the mind known as "the blues," nearly always, with women, results from diseased organs of generation. It is a source of wonder that in this age of advanced medical science, any person should still believe that mere force of will and determination will overcome depressed spirits and nervousness in women. These troubles are indications of disease.

Every woman who doesn't understand her condition should write to Lynn, Mass., to Mrs. Pinkham for her advice. Her advice is thorough common sense, and is the counsel of a learned woman of great experience. Read the story of Mrs. F. S. BENNETT, Westphalia, Kansas, as told in the following letter: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have suffered for over two years with falling, enlargement and ulceration of the womb, and this spring, being in such a weakened condition, caused me to flow for nearly six months. Some time ago, urged by friends, I wrote to you for advice. After using the treatment which you advised for a short time, that terrible flow stopped."

"I am now gaining strength and flesh, and have better health than I have had for the past ten years. I wish to say to all distressed, suffering women, do not suffer longer, when there is one so kind and willing to aid you." Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a woman's remedy for woman's ills. More than a million women have been benefited by it.

of Nanticoke, made an address on "Our Need of the Spirit." Rev. J. T. Griffiths, of Taylor, spoke on "The Condition of the Church in Relation to the Faith." A message was read to the young people from the Rev. R. E. Chevers, D. D., of Chicago, general secretary of the Baptist Young People's Union of America. Addresses of a social nature followed the evening exercises.

ASSOCIATION MEETINGS. The Welsh Baptist Association of Northeastern Pennsylvania will meet in the same church today. Conference meetings will be held at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m., and Mrs. Scott, of Philadelphia, will speak in the evening. J. P. Williams, of Shenandoah, is president and W. D. Thomas, of Pittston, is secretary. Tomorrow, weather permitting, meetings will be held in the grove in the rear of John Davis' residence at 10 a. m., 2 p. m. and 6 p. m. Rev. E. T. Jones, of Wales, an eloquent divine, will speak at the meetings.

There was no objection to the approval of the fire department committee. The auditing committee of the council last night approved the various bills countersigned by Acting Chief Suidaym, of the fire department, despite the fact that the approval of the fire department committee was wanting. A bill of $95 for furnishing bunk rooms for the Crystal company's new house, which had only the approval of the joint fire department committee, was also passed favorably.

Mr. Finn, chairman of the joint fire department committee, which vociferously avowed it would not approve any bills contracted by Acting Chief Suidaym, was present at the auditing committee meeting, but offered no objections further than to say in response to a question from Mr. Tewksbury that it has been customary to insist that all fire department bills should have the approval of the fire department committee before being submitted to the auditing committee.

The long standing bill of $114.50 of A. J. Rogan for work on the approaches to the Leach creek culvert, in the Second ward, was referred to Mr. Finn, with instructions to draw up an ordinance appropriating money to meet the claim. Some new fangled expenses were encountered for the first time in a batch of bills submitted by the park commissioners. Twelve pounds of cheese, four pounds of smelts, two hundred pounds of bread, two bushels of nuts, one hundred and twenty-two pounds of beef and two hundred and forty quarts of milk were among the items. It was explained that these delicacies were chargeable to the department of zoology.

SECURED A LARGE VERDICT. Mrs. Martin, of Olyphant, Wins Her Suit in Washington. Mrs. Mary Martin, of Olyphant, was on Thursday awarded a verdict of $5,000 in her suit against the Metropolitan Traction company, of Washington, D. C.

A bill of $95 for furnishing bunk rooms for the Crystal company's new house, which had only the approval of the joint fire department committee, was also passed favorably.

WILL WAIT FOR A WEEK. Select Council Not to Be Proceeded Against as Yet. No steps were taken yesterday to move against the select councilmen who for a second time failed to respond to the mayor's summons to meet in special session Thursday night to approve the bond of City Solicitor-elect A. A. Vosburg, and the probability that no action will be taken unless the council refuse to accept the bond next Thursday night.
