A USEFUL DEVICE.

D. D. Jones & Son, undertakers and embalmers, of North Main avenue. have just invented a novel and useful device which has been a long felt want to undertakers. It is an apparmius to be used in lowering coffins. It consists of a wooden frame which is placed over a grace, two large canvass straps form a resting place upon which the coffin is lowered into the grave. The straps are fastened to rods running the entire length of the grave, and as the brake is released the coffin is slowly lowered. It is a very useful device.

SHORT NEWS NOTES.

The service at the Wayne Avenue Baptist church will be dispensed with tomorrow morning on account of the association at Taylor. Bible school at 2 p. m. In the evening at 6 o'clock a preaching service will be conducted by ministers atending the association. The second degree will be conferred at the Celestial lodge of Odd Fellows

FUNERAL OF THE LATE GEORGE BENORE YESTERDAY.

Services Held at the Family Residence on South Main Avenue. Entertainments at the Allis Mission, Simpson Church, Y. W. C. A. Branch and Miss Grass' Home. Return of the Welsh Prize Singers. Webster Society Meeting-Notes and Personals.

The esteem in which the late George Benore was held in this city, was attested by the unusually large attendance at the funeral services yesterday afternoon, which were held at the house on South Main avenue. Long before 2 o'clock the avenue was lined with carriages, and the spacious residence was inadequate to accommodate the large number who attended. The services were begun shortly after 2 o'clock, the Rev. Rogers Israel, of St. Luke's Episcopal church, and the Rev. E. J. McHenry, of St. David's Episcopal church, being in charge. A quartette composed of Mrs. G. B. Dimmick, Mrs, Rogers Israel, W. M. Bunnell and

Mr. Stokes sang several hymns, Business and professional men from every part of the city were present, and the members of the Builders' Exchange, with which deceased was closely identified, attended in a body. Members of Hyde Park lodge, Free and Accepted Masons; Scranton lodge, Knights of Pythias, and Lackawanna council, Royal Arcanum, were also there, not as representatives of the orders, but as fellow workmen in the different organizations. The pallbearers were: George W. Jenkins, E. E. Smith, Evan Jones, Clarence Shryer, Joseph Ansley, Hayden Ashley, Morris Haupt and John W. Walker. The flower bearers were Frank Mansfield and Harry P. Decker. David J. Davis acted as usher at the house. The remains were borne to Forest Hill cemetery, where the Rev. Mr. Israel said a short service prior to the interment,

Y. W. C. A. ENTERTAINMENT. The junior members of the Young Women's Christian association branch entertained a large assemblage in their rooms in the Banner block last night. Miss Anna Munson was in charge, and was assisted by the Misses Kent, Jones, Edwards, Fellows, Thomas, Elias, Dickson, Oliver, Lance and Lewis.

The participants in the programme Bertha Carson, Laura DeGruchy, May James, Lila Evans, Marie Kellow, Ellen Jones, Anna Weisenflue, Jennie France, Mamle Wosier, Jennie Davis, Irene Phillips, Ethel Allen, Helen Lewis, Mabel Thomas, Mabel Spencer and Olwen Jones. A social session was held after the entertainment.

SIMPSON SOCIAL CIRCLE. The Simpson Social Circle of the Methodist Episcopal church gave a pleasing entertainment last evening in the lecture room of the church. The feature of the affair was the exercises by the pupils of the Mt. Pleasant kin-dergarten. Other entertaining features were piano selections by Blanche Thomas and Ethel Bevan. Miss Bessie Frounfelker and E. A. Morse played a mandolin and guitar duet, and Clara Haas gave a whistling solo, Miss Mattle Hughes recited and ewis Blair and the Misses Anthony gave vocal and instrumental selections. A social followed the entertain-
