SCRANTON LOOSES TO NEWARK THROUGH ERRORS.

Richmond's Loss to Lancaster Saturday, Places Wilkes-Barre at the Top of the Atlantic League List. Rain Prevents a Number of Saturday Games-Wilkes-Baire Won from Paterson by a Good Score. National League Games Postponed. Other Results-Diamond Gossip.

Saturday was a bad day in the Atantic league. The Scranton-Paterson, Wilkes-Barre-Newark and the Reading-Allentown games were all postponed on account of rain. Lancaster downed the champions by a narrow margin. Richmond's defeat is credited to Umpire Berger and poor base run-ning. By Richmond's defeat. Wilkes-Barre now leads the bunch, but Richmond is hot on the trail.

New York and Washington seem to on the downward slide. New York was shut out by Philadelphia in Saturday's game by a good score. Washington was defeated in both games on Saturday by Brooklyn, and St. Louis was beaten by Cincinnati, Yesterday's National league games were postponed on account of rain.

RAIN CAUSED POSTFONEMENT.

Last Game of the Series Could Not Be Played.

The game between Scranton and Paterson was postponed on Saturday owing to rain.

The Paterson club had just arrived on the field and were assembling for practice when it began to rain. The attendance was fairly good, considering the weather. Had it been a pleasant day, no doubt there would have been a large crowd of "fans" to witness the final game of the series. The postponed game cannot be played until Paterson comes to Scran-

$12.00 to $125.00.
