MISS ETHEL WILKINS TENDER-ED A SURPRISE PARTY.

A Party of Young People Invaded Her Home on Rock Street Last Evening-Special Meeting of the Board of Trade Tonight to Discuss the Asphalt Question--Funeral of Emery Harding -- Wedding on Notes and Personals.

Miss Ethel Wilkins, the ill-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wil-kins, of 1121 Rock street, was tendered a very pleasant surprise party last evening by a large number of her associates and schoolmates. The evening was enjoyably spent in various ways and Miss Anna Thomas recited several compositions. A flashlight was taken of the young people before their departure. Mrs. Wilkins was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Walter Wilkins, Mrs. Griffith T. Davis, Misses Annie Wilkins, Carrie Lovering and Margaret Williams. Those present were Misses Lida Fellows, Emma Fellows, Anna Thomas, Anna Lewis, May Lewis, Mattie Marshall, Annie Price, Jennie Edwards, Marion Ferber, Olive Birtley, Maud Birtley, Ray, May and Blanche Davis, Stella Evans, Lona Moore, Ruth Acker, Freda Jones, Helen and Irene Morgan, Mabel Huncock, Margaret Wiline, Cora and Carrie Lovering, Ethel and Hannah Wilkins, Reba Williams and Roy Williams, Roy Wheeler, Walter Ramer, John Jones, Fred Green, Gerdon Thomas, Willard and Lester Oliver, Walter and Arthur Wilkins. Brinley Evans.

SPECIAL MEETING TONIGHT. A delegation from the West Side board of trade attended the meeting of the central city board last evening and afterwards decided to call a special meeting of the local board and citizens for this evening at 5 o'clock in St. David's hall. The meeting is for the purpose of discussing the asphalt question, the contract of the Barber Paving company and municipal ownership of an asphalt plant. All citizens and the taxpayers are requested to attend and give expression to their sentiments and to vote on such action as may be taken at the meeting.

FUNERAL OF EMERY HARDING. The funeral services over the re- attend. mains of the late Emery Harding were held last evening at the home of John B. Knight, 1511 Jackson street, at 8 o'clock. The remains will be taken to Clifford, Susquebanna county, today, where interment will be made. Rev. W. J. Ford, of the Green Ridge
