Was Supervising the Clearing Up of a Wreck at the Time.

While Superintendent O. O. Esser, of the Northern division of the Lehigh Valley road, was superintending the clearing up of a wreck Wednesday night he had his legs badly injured and had to be taken to his home in Sayre. The wreck was caused by the breaking of a truck under one of the car of a fast freight running from Buffalo to Jersey City. The wreck delayed travel for about four hours.

They will meet this evening in the arbitration room at the court house to hear testimony in reference to the circumstances n connection with the man's fatal fall. Bolaski was 24 years of age, and a strong, able-bodied man. A wife and several children survive him. A brother, Michael Bolaski, also survives him. There seems to be no evidence of foul play in the case, as one of the children saw Bolaski fall and strike his head.

PROSPECTS ARE BRIGHT.

One Day's Work Secures $600 Out of the $3,000 Needed-Contractor Burley Will Have a Chance to Make Good His Offer.

As foretold in The Tribune vesterday, the sewer soliciting committee began the work of securing the $3,000 the convention to adopt the bishop's bonus which Contractor Burley asks suggestion of a divided diocese. If bonus which Contractor Burley asks building the sewer in South Scranton, and the results were most gratifying. The committee was divided into three sub-committees. Jacob Geiger, jr., Harry Klauminzer and Adam Breier, who comprised one of the committees, collected between Hickory and Willow streets, a distance of three blocks, over $500. MILITARY MANEUVERS.

Pomp and Circumstance of War, Including Charge at San Juan Hill.

Headed by the great scout (Buffalo Bill) there will appear in this city Monday next, one of the greatest assemblages of horsemen and soldiers that has ever been seen her. It is the annual tour of Buffalo Bill's Wild West and Congress of Rough Riders of the world, and two shows daily will be given. This organization needs no introduction, as it stands on its past record. Everything that is given in the spacious arena is real. There are six hundred persons who represent the different nations and introduce the customs of their respective countries.

Riding of every description is indulged in and some of the feats performed are of a very startling nature. The new additions to be added are representatives from the Philippines and a group of Hawaiians, There will also be shown a vivid representation of that heroic battle, the Charge on San Juan Hill. There will be a detachment from Roosevelt's Rough Riders who were in the midst of this memorial charge and who are all more or less wounded. Among them being Tom Isbel, who is mentioned in the different accounts of the battle as having fired the first shot and received in return eight bullets, two of which he now carries. William McGinty and others who were prominent in the affray.

MINER SEVERELY INJURED.

Was Prying Some Coal Down When the Mass Fell Upon Him.

John Wright, of Jessup, employed as a miner in the Grassy Island mine, at Peckville, was painfully bruised and had a narrow escape from fatal injuries yesterday morning. He was attempting to pry a large block of coal out of the "face" of his chamber when the whole mass toppled out and upon the unfortunate man.

He was held securely beneath the crushing weight. Fellow workmen rescued him, and after being given temporary medical attention, he was brought to the Lackawanna hospital. His back, left side, neck and right side of his face are contused and lacerated and his right leg is fractured (compound) just below the knee.

A WESTERN OPINION.

Judge Archbald Strongly Favored by the Butler Eagle.

The Butler Eagle, published in th western part of the state, has this to say about Judge R. W. Archbald: "Hon Robert W. Archbald, president judge of Lackawanna county, is mentioned favorably as the probable Republican nominee for supreme judge this fall. Judge Archbald is a man of splendid physique, of strong intellectual qualities and fine legal attainments. He is in the prime of life and would go upon the supreme bench with every prospect of many years of useful services before him."

TONIGHT'S TEST VOTE.

Mayor Will Not Say That He Will Be Guided by It.

At Monday night's meeting of the board of trade, Mr. Chittenden, speaking with seeming authority, said that at tonight's session of select council an aye and nay vote would be called on the Sanderson ordinance re-appropriating the $17,520 item for asphalt repairs, and that if it received a twothird vote, the mayor would sign the Barber contract. Yesterday, when Mayor Moir was questioned concerning this he spoke as if disposed to reconsider any former views he might have held on account of the "strong opposition" to the contract which he says has been manifested during the past few days. There was a well grounded story affoat in city hall yesterday that the revised contract alleged to have been executed by Mayor Balley has been found, and will put in an appearance today. Finest wines and cigars at Lane's, > Rev. Rogers Israel Succeeded in Getting Matter Placed in Hands of a New Committee for Consideration - Scranton Secures Next Convention-Rev. I. N. W. Irvine, of Huntington, Secured an Injunction to Restrain the Bishop from Dissolving His Pastoral Relations.

At the Episcopal convention in Wilkes-Barre yesterday the proposition to divide the diocese was overwhelmingly defeated. On the evening previous, when Bishop Talbot in his annual address strongly endorsed the contemplated division the sentiment seemed to be with his idea. Yesterday, however, when the committee's discouraging report was presented, the trend of general sentiment set in the other way and despite the eloquent arguments of the pro-division delegates, led by the Scrantonians, the proposition was defeated.

By the first decision of the convention, action on the question was indefinitely postponed with a motion to table, but later on Rev. Rogers Israel succeeded in having the matter taken from the table and referred to a new committee with instructions to report at the next convention, transmitting with the report at least two lines of

In contending for the resuscitation of the question, Rev. Mr. Israel expressed keen disappointment at the refusal of over the bid of Dunn Bros, toward there is no division the bishop must be supplied with helpers and these will be quite as expensive as a new diocese and a new diocesan.

Rev. F. S. Ballentine seconded Rev. Mr. Israel's views and in doing so made the statement that he personally knew Bishop Rulison had been killed by overwork.

BISHOP'S OPINION.

Bishop Talbot said he felt that the convention was not opposed to the division, but simply believed that at this time the endowment was not sufficient to warrant the increased expenditure. The committee to which the matter was recommitted is made up as follows: Rev. J. F. Powers, Rev. H. L. Jones, D. D., Rev. C. J. Wood, Rev. E. H. Eckel, R. A. Mercur, W. R. Buter, Everett Warren and S. L. Brown. At the morning session Bishop Talbot ordained to the priesthood Rev. J. Erwin Broadhead, of Forest City, and Rev. Edward J. Burlingham, of Wilkes-Barre. Rev. Dr. Powers, of Pottsville; Rev. Lewis Nichols, of Lock Haven, and Rev. G. I. Brown, of Bellefonte, assisted the bishop in the ordinations. The candidates were presented by Rev. Dr. Jones and Rev. F. S. Ballentine. Following the ordinations the sacrament of holy communion was celebrated by Bishop Talbot, assisted by

Rev. Dr. Jones, Rev. F. S. Ballentine and Rev. Dr. Powers. The report of the board of missions was presented by W. R. Butler. It showed total receipts of $8,140.03 for the fiscal year ending May 10, 1899; total payments, $9,459.23; deficit on May 10, 1899, $1,128.48. Twenty-two churches and sixteen stations has buted during the year. The total payments of the year were made from the following districts, as given below: Archdeaconry of Reading, $2,612.50 archdeaconry of Harrisburg, $2,269.69; archdeaconry of Williamsport, $1,331,21; archdeaconry of Scranton, $2,585.24; from other sources, $727.59. Mr. Butler's encouraging words and

When seen yesterday, S. E. Wayland manager of the Lackawanna, while not directly admitting that there was any specific understanding between the rival new companies, verified the report that his company would not go into councils while the Scranton company's ordinance was under way and further stated that his company would hold entirely aloof from the fight that will be precipitated with the Central Pennsylvania company by the introduction of the Scranton ordinance.

It is very reasonable to give credence to the report that the two new companies have a very explicit "understanding;" that, in fact, amounts to a combination. The Lackawanna company has been twice defeated in its efforts to secure a franchise and there is no good reason to suppose-to put it diplomatically-that, when the last defeat was effected, the cause to that effect was caused with the idea of permanent, effect.

STATEMENT CALLS FORTH AN AFFIDAVIT FROM J. M. WEST.

Mr. West Sets Forth Under Oath That on the Afternoon of May 3, 1899, While the Contract Between the Asphalt Company and the City Was Under Consideration, Mr. Hatton Called on Him and Advanced the Proposition to Which Refering the forenoon by the appearance of ence Has Heretofore Been Made.

In a letter which Henry C. Hatton Mayor Moir's private secretary, sent to the newspapers yesterday he denies having paid a visit to J. M. West, of Rev. Mr. Irvine that his pastoral re- the Barber Asphalt company, with a proposition from Mayor Moir. Hatton's letter follows:

> Dear Sir:-In your letter in reply to one addressed to you by the mayor, you say that "information from more than one source came to me unsolicited that the mayor's private secretary, Mr. H. C. Hatton, recently waited on Mr. J. H. West, local agent for the Barber Asphalt company, with a proposition from the mayor that the latter would sign the new street repair contract upon condition that the Barber people should use their influence to secure the con-firmation of the mayor's appointee for chief of the fire department, Mr. John H. Walker. The accuracy of this information is confirmed by Mr. West. The "more than one source" from which you allege you received this in formation must be the same as that received from two of the three parties on whom you implicitly rely, referred to in your famous (?) board of trade speech; Mr. J. M. West being the third. If your "more than one source" of informants are on a plane with Mr. J H. West your statements would not merit a reply, but seeing that these parties have been vouched for by you as "parties on whom you implicitly rely. which gives them an air of re spectability, I will depart from my custom and reply.

SAYS IT IS FALSE.

Let me say, the above statement is false in every particular. I never waited on Mr. J. M. West, local agent for the Barber people, with a proposi-tion from the mayor of any kind, and the matter of the mayor's signing the repair contract has never been men-tioned between us. I would hesitate long before easting such a reflection upon a gentleman of the select council, as your statements imply. If you have any authority "upon whom you implic-itly rely." will you not be kind enough to let the public know these worthy informants, for the sake of your reputation for veracity, and not try to dam-age the reputations of those who value theirs by parading the statements of a paid hireling of a corporation which is well known to have repeatedly attempted to debauch our public vants.

I wish the people of Scranton to distinctly understand that this charge which is made against me is a deliberate falsehood and I brand its author or authors as wilful liars. Very truly yours, H. C. Hatton.

To a Tribune reporter, yesterday, Mr. Hatton admitted that he waited on Mr. West in the interests of the mayor's appointee, Mr. Walker, but that it was will not stand in the way of the next not at the instigation of the mayor, nor with his honor's knowledge or consent. It was prompted solely by his personal interest in Mr. Walker, he business, not mine, to deal with Mr. Mr. West's affidavit is as follows:

Lackawanna county, s.s.: J. M. West, being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says: I am cashier of the Barber Asphalt Paving company and have had charge of their business in the city of Scranton for some time past. The afternoon of May 3, 1899, while the contract between the Asphalt company and the city of Scranton for repairing and maintaining the asphalt pavements was under consideration, Mr. H. C. Hatton, the mayor's private secretary, came to my office in the Mears building and stated to me in substance, as follows:

That he had been sent to me by Mayor Moir to say that if I would use the influence of the company with the coun cils to secure enough votes in select council, so that the mayor's appointee for chief of the fire department, Mr. Walker, should secure fourteen votes, the mayor would promptly sign the said the mayor would promptly said to accontract and "everything would run as smooth as grease." The office boy and two other persons were present in the room during Mr. Hatton's visit, but did not hear the conversation.

J. M. West.

Sworn and subscribed before me this 17th day of May, 1899.

his veracity. LETTER FROM THE MAYOR.

Editor of The Tribune. Sir:-In reference to the answer of the Hon. William Connell to a communication I sent you, permit me a few words. The authority, who volun-tarily furnished the honorable gentleman in his assertions with information, as to the supposed deal, is entirely as to the supposed dear, is entirely wrong; in fact, it is unqualifiedly false, as far as I am concerned. I never authorized Mr. Hatton, or anyone else, to negotiate a trade. The idea never entered my mind, and the gentleman named, Mr. West, would be the last ally I would seek to enter the cause. named, Mr. West, would be the last ally I would seek to enlist in the cause. The idea was so ridiculous, that I thought it was hardly worth refuting, and I would not have sought to intrude on your space had I not been anxious to know wherein I had sinned, not being conscious of the same. As to my appointees, I am not troubling about their confirmations. I send them in on their merits, and fitness for their various positions, as I understand it, and will leave the rest to the select council This will close the discussion, so far as I am concerned.
