APPENINGS OF NORTH SCRANTON

CCIDENTS IN MINE, MILL AND AT HOME.

David Hill Loses Two Fingers, James Mills Bruised by a Fall of Top Coal and Frank George Cuts Off a Finger with a Lawn Mower. Miss Mary Leonard and William Evans United in Marriage-Congregation Expresses Its Appreciation-News Notes and Personals.

David Richards, employed as a miner in the Cayuga mines, was severely bruised and cut about the legs and body by a fall of top coal. He was entering the chamber, after firing a charge, when the fall occurred. His quick action of throwing himself backward saved his life. He was removed to his residence on Leggetts street and his wounds dressed.

FINGERS CRUSHED.

David Hill, of School street, employed at the Green Ridge Iron works, had two of the fingers of his right hand crushed yesterday while at work. Amputation was found to be necessary and Dr. Rodham preformed the operation.

James Mills was severly injured yesterday by a fall of coal at the Storrs' mine, where he is employed as a miner. He was taken to his home on Wales street and received medical attendance. Frank George, son of Mrs. and Mrs. Edward George, of Church avenue, while cutting the grass on the lawn before his home yesterday morning was painfully injured. In pushing the mower before him he slipped and, fall-

LEONARD-EVANS NUPTIALS.

Miss Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Leonard, of Spring street, was united in marriage to William Evans.of Priceburg. Wednesday evening at the parsonage of the Wayne Avenue Baptist church. The pastor, Rev. W. F. Davies, officiated. The couple were unattended.

At the conclusion of the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Evans repaired to the residence of the bride's parents, where a reception was tendered them. They will reside in a newly furnished home on Spring street.

MINOR NEWS NOTES.

The congregation of the Wayne Avenue Baptist church at a regular business meeting held Wednesday evening, unanimously tendered a vote of thanks to the Puritan church for the use of its building May 8, for the preaching service of the Rev. E.

PAINT!

Yes we have it. Atlantic Lead, Pure Linseed Oil, and Ready filzed Paint, Varnish, Putty, etc. GEORGE W. JENKINS', tor S. Main Avenue

what to do. MUNTON.

Talfryn Jones, of Llwynpld, South Wales

The ladies of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church will hold an apron social at the home of Mrs. E. E. Teal this afternoon and evening.

The Welsh singers who delighted such a large audience last winter will appear again at the Auditorium tonight. The sale of seats is already The Women's Home Missionary soci ety of the Providence Presbyterian thurch will meet at the home of Mrs. B. B. Atherton, North Main avenue, this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. The entertainment and festival held ast evening for the benefit of Mrs. Mary A. Matthews was very largely attended and proved a success It was the Niagara night at the firenen's fair last night. Before they took their departure for the central city, they and their guests, the Libertys, Excelsiors and the Cumberlands, paraded, headed by the Citizens band.

MENTION OF PEOPLE. Thomas Campbell, of William street visiting in Archbald. ing forward, his hand came in contact Martin Healey, of West Market with the blade of the mower, completestreet, and Thomas Davis returned ly severing the little finger and badly yesterday from Porto Rico. The forcrushing two others of the left hand mer was a member of Company M, and the latter of Company L, of the Eleventh United States infantry. David Jeffnus has purchased the roperty of Walter B. Christmas, on Leggett street. Miss Nettie Reese, of Daniels street is visiting friends in Taylor. Miss Stella Davis is seriously ill at her home on Brick avenue. Mrs. David Williams, of Williams street, returned yesterday from a visit Miss Marie Duggan, of Philadelphia. is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. White, of Williams street.

Miss Mame Morris, of Taylor, is visiting Miss Eva Williams, of Throop

INSPECTED OUR CREMATORY.

Board of Health Officers of Long Branch, N. J., Want One Like It.

Mounted Officer Burke acted as an escort and guide to a party of gentlemen from Long Branch, N. J., who came here yesterday to inspect the Electric City's crematory, with a view of having one erected in their town.

The party included members of the ong Branch board of health and citi-They were well pleased, both with the plant, its work and with the city. The party returned home in the afternoon via the 3.30 Delaware, Lackawanna and Western train,

Sale of Suits

Waiting is not in our line. We prefer to take time by the forelock and do that which is to be done quickly. Proof for this statement follows:

Suitable for Wear Now.

The season is still young, but we've determined to clean up every wool fabric suit in the place, also the remainder of Spring Jackets. Ladies who intend going to the lakes, mountains or seashore next month, will find a magnificent investment in the special offerings now brought under their notice.

Lot 1 == Ladies' Stylish Jacket Suits in fine coverts, serviceable serges, Venetians, etc. Highest class tailoring, correct fashion models, very best shades. Value $10.00 to $12.00 each. 7.49 Your Choice This Week.....

Lot 2==Ladies' Smart Spring Suits, with tight-fitting jackets, fly front jackets, etc. All the charm that skill, art and irreproachable fashion cau assisted by her daughters. Hannah Mrs. Ackerson tried to clude the animal. lend to these costumes has been given them, while the and Mary Jenkins, and Mrs. Annie but in doing so fell in the street and was prostrated. She was removed to her materials and colors are the very newest. Suits that sold from $15.00 to $18.00. Your Choice This Week

Lot 3==Ladies' Summer Costumes, made from the very choicest of choice new weaves and nobbiest shades. Exquisite tailoring, highest grade all silk linings, with elaborate pipings, braidings, etc. Suits that sold a week ago for from $18.50 to $22.50 each, Your Choice This Week 14.49

Lot 5 == Ladies' Jackets in fine English Clays, Wool Cheviots and English Coverts, in black and various shades of tan; swell linings and very elaborate finishing. Were $7.98 and $10.00 each. 5.98

Globe Warehouse

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

SATURDAY AFTERNOON CLUB CONDUCT A DANCE.

Affair Was Given at Mears' Hall and Proved to Be Most Enjoyable. Music Furnished by a Selected Orchestra-Those Who Attended Musicale at the Y. W. C. A. Branch Rooms-Supper at the Plymouth Church - Meetings of Societies. Funeral of Mrs. Mary Gaynor.

The social in Mears' hall last evening given by the Saturday Afternoon class, under the direction of Miss Edith Biair, was one of the most enjoyable of the season and was attended by several hundred people. From 7 to 9 clock the pupils of the class enjoyed dancing, and from 9 to 10 the older patrons held full sway. Miss Blair was assisted in promoting the dance y Misses Anna and May Edwards and Gertrude Miller, and the patronesses were Mrs. M. L. Blair, Mrs. John T. Watkins, Mrs. H. C. Wallace, Mrs. H. M. Edwards, Mrs. J. J. Roberts, Mrs. George Eynon, Mrs. George Poole, Mrs. Raught, Mrs. S. M. Foster, Mrs. Clarence Shryer, Mrs. George Howell, Mrs. McCann, Mrs. Battin, Mrs. Shaw and Mrs. Gomer Price.

The music was under the direction of Arnold Lohmann, of Wilkes-Barre, violinist, assisted by Prof. Llewellyn planist; William H. Stanton, ir., and Ross Millhouse, cornetist. The following young people were among the patrons:

Misses Lois Becker, Jessie Becker, Grace Barber, Louise Deppen, Margaret Edwards, May Edwards, Anna Edwards, Jane Fellows, Lois Fellows, Christine Fellows, Mabel Fritz, Rose Fritz, Euphemia Gibbs, Edith Hutton, Grace Peck, Elizabeth Heermans, Clara Hughes, Edith James, Jennie Jenkins, Gertrude Lloyd, Lelia Porter, Pearl Porter, Ethel Porter, Edith Richards, Bessie Reel, Grace Acker, May Belle Sweetzer, Ella Shaw, Stella Green, Bertha Whettling, Belle Vipond, Ella Williams, Bessie Phillips, Belle Warren, Gertrude Zerflieh, Elizabeth Heiser, Phoebe Smith.

Arch Brown, W. C. F. Banister, Will Betterly, Turvey Breese, Burson Bevan, Tracy Tewksbury, Arthur Tewksbury, Barney Connolly, Joseph Cochran, Edward Clarke, Charles Crothamel, Harry Caryl, Will Crago, Frank Jones, Harry Decker, Walter Davis, Robert Davis, Eugene Fellows, Lee Frantz, Will Freeman, Frank Mansfield, John Howell, Maurice Miller, Will Hutton, John Hitchcock, Charles Horn, Robert Kiple, Lester Losey, Joseph Leonard, Ben F. Maxey, Arch Mears, Sydney Mears, Harry Miller, Edward Marott, Charles Ross, Will Reynolds, Jay Reese, Will Hughes, Herbert Bryden, Arthur Raudenbush, James Squires, Simon Nye, Arthur Thompson, George Thirwell, Ford Platt, Arthur Van Fleet, George Vipond, Herbert Waters, William Howard and Tudor Williams, George Winans, George Waters.

Those from out of town were, Arnold Lohmann, Frank St. John, William Hellfrick and William Olds, of Wilkes-Rarrer C. H. Weaver and Miss Jessie Wolcott, of Kingston; Edward Hitchcock and Miss Hilda Snyder, of Pitts-

UPPER AT PLYMOUTH CHURCH The ladies of the Plymouth Congregational church, whose names begin with the initials E, F, G and H, served an excellent supper from 6 to 9 o'clock tast evening to a large number of people. Three tables were spread in the lecture room of the church and were constantly occupied during the evening.

David Evans, Mrs. Belle Harris, Mrs. James P. Harris, Mrs. David Hughes, Mrs. David C. Hughes, Mrs. John S. Evans, Mrs. A. B. Eynon, Mrs. Jonah Evans, Misses Cathrine Hawkins, Maggie Hopkins, Gertie Hughes, Margaret Evans, May Evans and Mamie Ferber.

MUSICALE THIS EVENING.

The second of a series of musicales under the auspices of the young ladies of the West Scranton branch of the Young Women's Christian association, will be held this evening in the rooms corner of South Main avenue and Scranton street. An admission fee of ten cents will be charged and refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the programme.

The participants will be: Misses Anna Jones, Maud Fisher, Lillian Kenward, Anna Thomas, Elizabeth Helser and Mr. Edwin Bowen. An orchestra will also be in attendance Mrs. D. B. Thomas and Miss Marion Hutchinson will be the accompanists.

LADIES' AID MEETING.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Weish Calvinistic Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. Ann Jenkins, 218 Tenth street. Wednesday afternoon, and dinner was served. Mrs. Jenkins was Mary, of Danville.

Those present were: Mrs. Eleanor Morgan, Mrs. William James, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. Ann Thomas, Mrs. John St. Paul's church conducted a necktie so-lames, Mrs. William Cadwgan. This was the last meeting of the society un- short avenue. The event was very

I. W. H. CIRCLE SOCIAL.

The young people of the Hampton Street Methodist church, who are identified with the I. W. H. circle, conducted a very enjoyable social last evening at the home of Miss Bessie Sloat, on Eynon street.

The affair was known as a Kiondike social, and some valuable claims were purchased at a neminal price. event was novel and pleasing and was successful socially and financially.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES. The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Gayner will be conducted temorros morning. A high mass of requiem will be celebrated at St. Patrick's Catholic church and interment will be made in the Cathedral cometery.

John Davis, of Garfield avenue, a niner in the Mt. Pleasant had his fingers

DOES COFFEE AGREE WITH YOU?

If not, drink Grain-O-made from pure grains. A lady writes: "The first time I made Grain-O I did not like it but after using it for one week nothing would induce me to go back to coffee." It nourishes and feeds the system. The children can drink it freely with great benefit. It is the strengthening substance of pure grains. Get a package today from your greeer, follow the directions in making it and you will have a delicious and healthful table beverage for old and young. 15c. and 25c.

marasmus, scrofula, or rickets, and develop healthy tissues, bones and teeth, need fats and hypophosphites. Dr. W. Gilman Thompson, Prof. Materia Medica and Therapeutics, in the Uni-best fat for the purpose. Scott's Emulsion is codliver oil partly digested and combined with hypophosphites, it gives children material for rich blood, solid flesh, bones and teeth. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chamists, New York.

versity of New York, asserts that Cod-liver Oil is the smashed while at work yesterday and amputation will be necessary. His injuries were attended to at the West Side hospital.

A baby boy has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Reynolds, 1117 Swetland street. A musicale and an old fashloned supper will be held in the lecture rooms of the Sumner Avenue Presbyterian church from € to 10 p. m., June 20 and 21, The supper served at the home of Mr.

and Mrs. J. O. Tice last evening by the ladies of Electric City castle, Knights of the Golden Eagle, was liberally patronized. The members of the Simpson chapter, Epworth League, will meet in the church at 7 o'clock this evening and proceed in a body to Elm Park church, where union services will be held.

The pupils of Miss Mamie E. Morgan's room in No. 19 school, held a mothers' meeting yesterday afternoon, which was well attended. A concert will be given in the First Welsh Baptist church, South Main avenue on Tuesday evening, June 6, under the direction of Professor J. Alfred The West Side Social club held a meeting last evening and arranged for their summer outing. A supper was enjoyed after the business session.

A musical and literary programme will be rendered at the meeting of Ripple division, Sons of Temperance, tomorrow evening. The Webster Literary and Debating society will hold a regular meeting this evening at the home of Forbes Eaton, on Tenth street. The Baptist Young People's union of the First Baptist church will hold a regular meeting this evening and hear the reports of the delegates to the Taylor convention. The Franklin Engine company held : meeting last evening and made arrangements for taking charge of the firemen's fair next Tuesday evening. A party of young people were pleas-Ruth Lewis, on Swetland street, on Wednesday evening.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Attorney C. E. Olver, of North Main avenue, returned last evening from the Odd Fellows' convention at Allentown. Mrs. William Fuller, of Bromley ave nue, is entertaining her sister, Mrs Richard Brown, of Bloomsburg.

Mrs. Hannah Roberts, of California who has been visiting her aunt. Mrs the guest of friends in Minersville. Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Lanning, of Washburn street, are visiting friends in New Jersey. Addison Chase, of North Main ave nue, will leave for Philadelphia to day to attend the graduation exercise at the Medico-Chirurgical college. Rev. J. B. Sweet, pastor of Simpso Methodist Episcopal church, returne home yesterday from the Scranton Private hospital, where he was success fully operated upon for appendicitis. Rev. A. L. Ramer, of St. Mark's Lutheran church, will leave on Monday to attend the convention of the Lutheran ministers in Reading. G. A. Williams, of the Republican, will leave tomorrow morning for a ten at Taylor, and witnessed the emplidays' visit to Middle Granville, N. Y.

where his wife has been visiting the past month. Mrs. Joseph Moore and daughter, Irene, of Rebecca avenue, are visiting friends in Binghamton, N. Y.

GREEN RIDGE.

Only Williams' ice cream used with soda water drawn at Manner's drug Nothing but the purest of fruit juices and rock candy syrup used in soda flavors at Manner's pharmacy, 920 Green Ridge street.

PARK PLACE.

Mrs. Arthur Ackerson, of Wood street wife of a well known conductor on th Traction company's Green Ridge line, was attacked by a cow owned by G. R. engaged in needle work, after which Clark while on her way to meet her hushome, where medical attention was rendered.
The Luther league of St. Feter's and OBITUARY.

Thomas Jordan, of 211 Broadway, Belle vue, died suddenly at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon while visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. George Richards, on Second avenue. Deceased was an aged resident and quite well known. He is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Patrick May, of Archbald; Mrs. Michael Judge. of Avoca; Mrs. William O'Brien Mrs. George Richards, of this city. funeral will occur tomorrow morning from the residence on Broadway. Inter-ment will be made in Archbald.

Autumn in the Country.

Pumpkin ple and apple cider! Cut 'er loose and open wider. Ain't no time like fruitful autumn-Hick'ry nuts in river bottom! Who said fall was melancholy? Just the time to be real joily! Stir that steaming apple butter; Fry them doughnuts-hear 'em sputter! See them trees with apples laden; See the buxom country maiden! scenes of plenty, bliss Arcad'n. Sparkling eyes and rosy features: Joyous, blessed, happy creatures! Apple snits and pumpkin slices-Eggs and butter bring good prices! Gran'ries full and runnin' over; Gran'ries full and runnin' over; Bulging hay-mows sweet with clover. Country sausage! Goodness, landsakes Hurry up them buckwehat pancakes! My, oh, my! But don't we pity Poor folks livin' in the city!

Young children, to avoid GATHERED IN SOUTH SCRANTON

EARLY MORNING MARRIAGE AT ST. MARY'S CHURCH.

Miss Margaret Neumeter and Valentine Scheller Were the Contracting Parties-Mr. and Mrs. John Van Bergen Entertain-Teamster Seriously Injured-Joseph Albrecht Accorded an Exceptional Honor. Happenings Among the Secret Societies and the Churches-Neptunes Preparing for Their Night at the Fair-Other Notes.

An early morning wedding was solemnized with a nuptial mass at St Mary's church yesterday at 8 o'clock, when Miss Margaret Neumeter, of River street, and Mr. Valentine Scheller, of Alder street, were united in marriage. Miss Veronica Scheller, sister to the groom, was bridesmaid, and John Neumeter, a brother of the bride, attended the groom.

The ladies were prettily attired in white satin with exquisite lace trimmings and carried roses and carnations. Rev. Peter Christ, pastor of St. Mary's church, performed the ceremony, and was celebrant of the nup-

The wedding reception was given at the home of the bride's parents, and only the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties were present. Mr. and Mrs. Scheller ar popular young persons and will reside on this side.

IN HONOR OF THEIR DAUGHTER Mr. and Mrs. John Van Bergen, of Remington avenue, entertained at their cozy home. Wednesday night, in honor of their daughter, Miss Lillian Van An evening of exceptional pleasure was passed, the host and host ess assisted by their daughter, providing excellent entertainment,

The guests were: Misses Annie Scheld, Katie Luethold, Barbara and Amelia Withmer, Lena Tannier, Gertie Brook, Lena Lauber, Lillian Smith, Elsie Roth, Annie Scholer, Annie Paulis, May Meyers, Margaret Roth, Annie Klails, Emma Schuanz and Lizzie Benke; Otto and Emil Withmer, Chas. and August Grunder, John Roth, Will Handen, Alex. Ott, Will Sames, Paul Smith, George Lawler, Conrad Reuchter, Will Florence, Frank Engle, Philip Klein, John Meyers, Andrew Schield, Albert Brook, Albert Witt and Arthur Graber.

TEAMSTER INJURED.

Fred Schneider, of 1121 Stone ave nue, and a teamster by occupation, was the unfortunate victim of an accident yesterday, which almost resulted fataliy. He was driving along Cedar avenue with a heavy load of stone on his wagon, and in crossing a gutter antly entertained at the home of Miss | was thrown from his seat to the ground.

At the same moment a heavy piece of stone fell from the wagon and as Mr. Schneider rolled himself clear of the wheels, it struck him on his left leg, lacerating and bruising the limb severely. The injured man was removed to his home, and Dr. John J. Walsh attended him. No bones were broken, as an examination showed,

HONOR CONFERRED UPON HIM. Joseph Albrecht, the Cedar avenue merchant tailor, was honored by being re-elected to the office of corresponding secretary at Wednesday's session of the convention of the state union of the German Catholic societies at Philadelphia.

This is Mr. Albrecht's third consecutive election to this important office a fact that is no small compliment to his ability, and the appreciative trust his fellow brethren of the state union have in him.

AMONG THE FATERNAL ORDERS. The members of Slocum castle, No 141. Knights of the Golden Eagle, attended in a body last night the regular meeting of Taylor castle. No. 267. fication of the three degrees of the order. A session of good fellowship and serving of refreshments was held at the conclusion of the business meet

Many of the Junger Mannerchor went to Carbondale last night and participated in the annual concert of the Germania Singing society of that city. They made a splendid impression under the leadership of Prof. Schmidt and were royaly treated. They returned on a special train, reaching the city shortly after midnight.

NEWS OF THE CHURCHES.

The annual execursion of the congregation of the Hickory Street Pres byterian church will be run to Far-view June 27.-On this occasion the students of the German and English Sabbath schools are given a day's outing gratis. The committee in charge of the affair is arranging a good programme. The morning services at the Hickory Street Presbyterian church next Sunday will begin thirty minutes earlier than usual, as communion service wil be held. Preparatory service for the will be held tonight at 7.45

NEPTUNE NIGHT AT THE FAIR. At the firemen's fair tomorrow night the Neptune Engine company and their countless friends will 'hold the boards, The Neptunes state their night will be a record breaker and have their plans all prepared to sustain the asser-

NUBS OF NEWS.

Albert Wetzel, of the Twelfth ward, who served in the late Porto Rican campaign with Company C, Eleventh Inited States infantry, has returned Miss Louise Saul, of Mt. Pocono, i visiting her parents on Cedar avenue.

Joseph Rader, of Birch street, entered the employ of John Zang, the Cedar avenue barber, yesterday. Mail Carrier Leopold Johler returned from Allentown last night, where he represented James Connell lodge of Odd Fellows at the grand encampment of the order held there.

General Grant commandery, No. 230

Horsford's Acid Phosphate while it is invigorating to the system quiets the nerves and produces refreshing sleep. Senuine bears name Horsford's on wrapper

The Leading and Largest Millinery Store

413 Lackawanna Avenue.

Reduction Sales

Everything marked at half of regular prices. Trimmed Hats, Untrimmed Hats, Flowers, Feathers, Wings, Aigrettes, Silks, Ribbons, Chiffons, Laces, Veilings and Ornaments at one-half usual prices. You can't get fooled in this store. Anything you buy which turns out unsatisfactory you can get it exchanged or get your money back. Safe enough!

THE POPULAR HOUSE FURNISHING STORE.

Refrigerators At Half Price,

It you can get a refrigerator that is twice as good as the cheap kinds at the same price, is not that equivalent to buying them at haif price? You can get this bargain if you buy the LEONARD CLEANABLE. Its eight walls and air tight

FOOTE & FULLER CO., Mears Building, 140-142 Washington Avenue.

Knights of Malta, will assemble in regular session at Hartman's hall to-

A concert by Prof. Schmidt and his pupils will be given Monday night at Workingmen's hall. Pea Coal Delivered, $1.25. to South Side, central city and central Sharkey, 1914 Cedar ave. 'Phone 6683. DUNMORE.

The auditorium of the Methodist Episcopal church was filled last evening when a musical entertainment under the auspices of the church choir was given. The programme published in yeseterday's Tribune was carried

A large sum was realized, which will e used in purchasing new music and defraying other expenses of the choir. The contest for a gold 1. O. O. F. charm which took place at the reopening of the Odd Fellows' hall Wednesday evening between John Wardell and Richard Webber, Sr., was won by the former, he having $131.70 and the former $45.50. The charm is valued at $20. A contest for the ladies' gold watch between Miss Margaret Stewart and Miss Mary Kelly, of Scranton, was postponed. It will be decided at the entertainment the members of Lodge No. 816, intend to give next month. John McDonnell, who gave his resi dence as Archbald, was arraigned last night before Burgess Powell and fined 33. McDonnell was arrested by Office

Bulger for being drunk and disorderly The Ladies' Aid seciety of the Pres byterian church will conduct a May social in the church parlors Thursday evening, May 25. The ladies will serve cream, strawberries and cake. It is likely a programme will be arranged

The Dunmore boys who enlisted under Lieutenant Dentler about one year ago and since have seen service in Porto Rico are returning home daily. Yesterday William Riddell, the crack shot of the Eleventh Infantry, Pierce Clarey and Michael Gallagher arrived in town.

The members of the High school alumni met in No. 1 building last evening and decided to have Bauer's orchestra to furnish the music at, and Caterer Hanley to manage their banquet to be held in Washington hall next week. It promises to be the event of the season. The members of the Epworth league are going to attend the union meeting to be held in Elm Park church this evening, are requested to meet in their rooms at 7.45 o'clock sharp. The funeral of the late Mrs. H. Kizer. of Grove street, took place yesterday afternoon and was largely attended.

The services were held at the house of the Methodist Episcopal church, who Interment was made in Forest Hill Mr. and Mrs. P. Carr, of Pine street, entertained a large number of friends last evening at their home.

William Miller, of Brook street, who was spending a few days in New York city, returned home yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Smith have returned to their home in Wayne county, after a short visit with Rigg street

Byron Brady, of Main street, is spending a few days with friends at Lake Ariel. Miss Rachel Jennings, of Moosic, is ing entertained by Cherry street friends.

friends. The council was to have met last yening, but only one member came to arranged for the alumni banquet: Jessie Vaughan, Mrs. William Toastmaster, Frank Cullen; "The ner, Mrs. Williams and Mrs. McCawler.

AMUSEMENTS.

A CADEMY OF MUSIC. BURGUNDER & REIS, Lessent. H. R. LONG, Manager.

ONE WEEK, COMMENCING MONDAY, MAY 15

America's Greatest Reportoire Organization.

Company. Continuous Perform

ances. No Waits Between the Acts. TONIGHT

Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde Dime Matinees Daily commening Tuesday Evening Prices, 10c, 20c and 30c, Ladies' Exclickets Monday algai.

Central Railroad of New Jersey Special Excursion Fares to WASHINGTON, D. C.,

FOR THE

NATIONAL PEACE JUBILEE On Flay 23 24 and 25, 1899.
At this season of the year the National abilial is the most beautiful and attracve city in America. For this occasion Special Round Trip Tickets will be sold from Scranton to Washington on May 22 and 23, good to re-turn within 11 days of issue included.

Fare for the Round Trip $7.75

Alumni." Prof. Charles Neimeyer; 'Our School," Superintendent E. D. Boyard: vocal solo, Miss Margery Eden: "The Ladies." Prof. R. N. Da-"The Geneltmen." Miss Ellen Dougherty: recitation, Miss Kitty Horan; "The Faculty," Mr. George

Mrs. Mary Misner, of South Blakely and Brook streets, entertained a few If her friends at her home last even-

The Rev. R. R. Bulgin has returned com a visit to Maryland. The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Adams Aveue chapel, corner of New York street nd Adams avenue, will have a stereopticon lecture entitled "Fate of a Naion." by Prof. J. B. Hawker, illusated by over one hundred war picures of our late conflict with Spain. Prof. Hawker comes very highly reccamended and all who attend will not se disappointed in this instructive lecure Friday evening, May 19, 1899, at o'clock. Admission, adults, 20 cents; children, 10 cents.

The members of the Golden Star ouncil, No. 41, Daughters of America, onducted an entertainment and graboag party in Schultz' hall Wednesday nandsomely decorated with a profusion of national colors and potted plants and was much admired by the large number of people in attendance. During the evening four candidates were initiated. Those comprising the memthe building.

The following programme has been fair were Mrs. William Neilson, Miss