WHITSUNDAY SERVICES IN ST. MARK'S CHURCH.

Rev. A. L. Ramer, the Pastor, Preached a Sermon on "The Office of the Holy Ghost"-Two Young Highwaymen Arrested and Sent to Jail-Funerals of Thomas Jordan, Mrs. Gaynor and Delbert O'Boyle. Sudden Death of Mrs. Smith. Church News and Other Notes.

Yesterday, Whitsunday, appropriate services were held in St. Mark's Evangelical Lutheran church,corner of Washburn and Fourteenth streets. At the morning service, the pastor, Rev. A. L. Ramer, Ph. D., preached an clo-quent discourse on "The Office of the Holy Ghost." His text was taken from John, xiv:26, "But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in My name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you." During the course of his remarks, Rev. Ramer spoke, in part, as follows

Today we celebrate the anniversary roday we celebrate the anniversary of the outpouring of the Holy Ghost, and the establishment of the Holy Christian church. With Christ as the centre of the Spiritual universe, the great facts in the life of Christ and of By the disciples with new power. Here heavenly blessings to be-there against the disciples with new power. They were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the spirit gave them utterance.' The epistle lesson for this day records the fulfillment of which the gospel gives the promise. The promise of the Comforter occuples a prominent place in the gospel, according to St. John. The Savior gradually prepares the minds of His disciples for His final separation from He assures them, however, of them. an invisible bond of union between them and himself. The divine agency to maintain and further this union is Ghost.' the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost. This assigns an extraordinary office to the Holy Ghost in the plan of

We have no difficulty to believe in the Holy Ghost. Every Lord's Day we con-fess: "I believe in the Holy Ghost, the fess: "I believe in the Holy Ghost, the Holy Christian church, the Communion of saints," We firmly believe in "The Lord and Giver of Life, who proceed-the Fother and the Son." eth from the Father and the Son.' One of the offices which we find assigned to the Holy Spirit is that of "teaching," The Savior says, "He will "teaching." The Savior says, "He will teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance." Thus every word of the Master, when the occasion presents itself, became illumined in their mind as on a veritable memory tablet.

A second office is that of testifying for Christ. It is this function of the Holy Ghost that gives the Word of God its potency to regenerate man and pro duces a living faith in Christ. "The spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God." This testimony is not self-centering in the Holy Ghost, but it is a testimony for Christ." "He shall receive of mine "for Christ." "He shall receiv and shall show it unto you.

calling to mind of what the Savior had already spoken, but which on account of the weakness of the apostles' memory might be easily forgotten. So the work of the Holy Ghost operates still oday.

The means or channel through which e testifies is still the Word and Reveation of Christ. The public preaching of the gospel, the public reading of the gospel, are regularly appointed means through which the Holy Ghost testifies of Christ. His office of testi-fying is twofold, it is "for Christ" and it is "against Unbelief." He will re-prove the world of sin and of righteous-bess and of information for in because ess and of judgment. Of sin, because by believe not on me. they

If the reproof leads to repentance and faith, it becomes the cause of salva-tion; if, on the other hand, the voice of the spirit is deliberately and per-sistently quenched, the spirit will be grieved and will finally withdraw His operation from the hardened sinner. This state ends in the "sin against the Holy Ghost." The savior says this sin shall not be forgiven. The reason is not in the fact that divine grace has tery. been utterly denied, but because there is no desire and receptivity to appropriate the salvation offered through faith in Christ. There is still another office of the Holy Ghost and that is the work of comforting believers. It remains ever tribulations, and hence need of a Com-forter. The joy, peace and victory of the ascended Christ belongs to His disthe ascended Christ belongs to His dis-ciples. "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you * * * Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid." "I will not leave you com-fortless: I will come to you." It is the express will of Christ that the Holy Ghost shall be the areas of communicating these heavenly blessings to be-It is in this respect that the spirit shall glorify Christ. He will manifest the infinite love and saving grace of Christ, and thus exalt the work of Christ. In this respect the disciples shall also glorify Christ by becoming Christ-like in their conduct.

These are but a few of the manifold operations of the Holy Ghost, "Have ye received the Holy Ghost?" or must ou say, as did certain believers at phesus, "We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Communion was administered at the morning service. At the evening service Rev. Ramer

TWO HIGHWAYMEN ARRESTED.

At 2.30 o'clock Saturday morning while C. E. Taylor, of 301 Chestnut street, baggagemaster at the Jersey Central railroad station, was returning home with a friend he was accosted on North Main avenue by Michael McNulty, of Twenty-second street, and John Kilker, of Lafayette street, who attempted to rob him. Taylor run down the street and notified Patrolman Dyer, who arrested the highwaymen in "The Red Onion" saloon, at he corner of North Main avenue and Lafayette street. The prisoners were taken to the station house, where they were identified by Taylor, who afterwards left a deposit of $20 with Lieutenant Williams for his appearance against the men at the hearing. Alderman Moses heard the case at 9 o'clock and held McNulty and Kilker each in $200 bail for their appearance at court. They were unable to furnish bondsmen and were committed to the county jail. McNulty has been arrested several times and is well known to the police. On one occasion he enticed a foreigner to his home and robbed him, and the same day that he was released from inil assaulted his aged father and was again in the toils within a few hours. He is about 20 years of age and incorrigible.

OBITUARY.

The death of John A. Gilleck occurred on Saturday afternoon at the residence of his mother in Mocsic after several sars' illness. In the death of Mr. Gilleck loses one of her most prominen and influential men. About seven years ago he came from Allentown to become manager for the Spring Brook Lumber company. He was highely regarded by the officials of that company and his untiring energy was perhaps the cause of his afflictions. A few years ago he resigned in order to spend some time in New Mexico in the hope of recuperating and regaining his lost health. Consump-myself right before the public. tion had set in and he returned recoa clied to the fact that his life's work was almost ended. Mr. Gilleck was born at Leslie Run, Pa., thirty-four years ago Shortly after the death of his father the family moved to Allentown and afterwards came to the home in Moosi he had prepared for them. He was a ma of noble character, always courteous and affable. He was a graduate of St. Vin-cent's college and the Christian training of the institution remained with him and enabled him in his last moments to pass away into a gentle slumber with a look of radiant happiness. Besides his mother he is survived by three sisters, Misses Laura and Kate at home, and Mrs. An dreas, of Allentown. The funeral will take place on Wednesday morning. In-
