Allentown, May 22.—Twenty innings for one admission was the result of the bargain day attraction at the ball park today. Allentown kept Richmond hustling to win, but the southerners proved victor in both games. In the first game Stimmel pitched fine ball for Allentown. The Richmond men, however, won the game, principally by their fleetness on the bases. In the second contest the champions pulled out of a tie game by good stick work in the cighth inning First game-

New York, May 22.—The steck market drifted downward almost uninteruptedly today until the aggressive upward movement in Sugar developed late in the day. This seemed to affect the whole list by sympathy and prices retraced their edrifer downward course. They only recovered to Saturday's level, however, on a few cases. Losses on the day are general but are within a point in cost of the railroads and prominent stocks. This was no real support to the market at any time, the outside interest in securities being about all.

Money continued abundant and easy and the foreign exchange market abated none of its firmness, though there was no large demand for bills. Total sales, 421,509 shares.

The bond market was affected in sympathy with stocks and showed an abatement of its recent activity and developed weakness in spots. Early in the day there was a continuance of the large absorption of some of the new series but this fell off as the day progressed. Total sales, 43,179,000. Government bonds showed no change in quotations.

COLLEGE COMMENT.

Manager Northrop, of the New York university foot ball team, has sent to The Tribune his schedule for the season of 1889. Mr. Northrop, who has been secured as The Tribune's special correspondent, was the successful base ball captain of the university last season. As an outlielder and a heavy hitter Mr. Northrop has won distinction and he is undoubtedly the best center fielder in the college world. He is well versed in all sports of the day and is well fitted to serve as The Tribune's correspondent. The schedule is as follows, and is here published for the first time;

14-Syracuse university, at Syra-Oct. 18-Columbia university, on Man-Oct. 21-Hamilton college, Hamilton, N. Y.

Oct. 28-Lehigh university, South Beth-Nov. 4—Trinity college, Hartford, Cons., Nov. 11—Rutgers college, New Bruns-

Nov. 18—Stevens' institute, Ohio field (New York university.). Nov. 25—Hamilton college, Ohio field (New York university.). The university has three scheduled hall games yet to play with Rutgers, Man-hattan and Fordham. Cornell's 'varsity erew Robbins, stroke; Dalzell, 7; Beardslee, 6 Points, 5; King, 4; Sweetland, 2; Holio way, 2: Fay, bow; Fisher, coxswain. The work of the combination was more sat-isfactory than any eight men who have yet been put together. No one doubts, therefore, that these eight men will be designated on the date named as the official 'varsity eight. Coach Courtney ad-mitted tonight that the men had made the best time of the season on the lake the best time of the season on the lake course this afternoon, and he said he does not believe the combination can be improved upon. None of the men named in the above combination will row in the above combinat were candidates for last year's freshmen shell, but failed in the completion.

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Beview.

By Carrington & Cusack.

New York, May 22.—The market opened with a slight advance above closing prices but at once seld off. Traction stocks were particularly weak on the theory that the Ford bill was likely to become a law in its present form. The decline in them brought selling orders throughout the list and there was some pressure on the Grangers and Steel stocks due to realizing. There seemed to be an absolute want of support in the market and throughout the greater part of the day, the whole list was very dull and weak. Sugar was by all odds the strongest stock in the list and from what we are advised, we think there is a strong probability of a sharp upward move in it. Should it come it will undoubtedly rally the balance of the list to create a fairly large short interest, should bring about a good fair raily in all the active stocks.

The bear party have become very aggressive and is inclined to fight any upward turn in the market, at the same time the general feeling in the street is builtsh and it will take but little to change the temper of the whole situation. The strength in wheat today has something to do with the weakness in the cereal carrying roads and undoubtedly is leading to some liquidation in the stocks of them. The market to the very close showed almost no sign of investment huying and commission business was the smallest of any day this year. Unless the market changes for the better within the next three or four days it is possible a further decline will take place before the upward movement commences, but the market is likely to change its position at any moment. The close was dull with some inclination to weakness.
