THE COMING RACES.

The races Memorial day at Anthracite park will be under the direction of the Gentlemen's Driving club and promise a good day's sport. The entrance for the 2.50 class, 5 per cent, entrance, $500 purse, are attracting considerable attention. The free-forall, with the same entrance and purse, is stirring up some of the real good ones and it is quite likely to be productive of some fast time for this season of the year. It is to be hoped some of the horses from down the valley will make an effort to go in some of the races.

CRIMINAL LIBEL.

The criminal libel case of Prof. H. J. Hockenberry against John Forbes, formerly of this city, now of the Scran-ton Republican, will come up in court today. E. W. Reynolds has been subpoenaed by the prosecutor. The action is the result of an article published in the Scrantonian some time ago and alleged to have been written by Mr. Forbes. There is much local interest in the affair and The Tribune's excellent court reports will be eagerly read.

PARK STREET FIGHT.

The residents of Park street are getting warmed up over the proposed improvement of that thoroughfare. They have been writing communications to the press for several weeks past and now both sides have employed legal councel. The remonstrators to the curbing and grading say it wouldn't help the street any way and those who want the benefit to their properties and are willing to pay for it, point to Lincoln avenue as an example of what they are contending for.

BUSINESS CHANGE.

George Fowler, of the flour and feed firm of Fowler & Bronson, has purchased Mr. Bronson's interest and will continue the business at the old mill on Dundaff street. The formal dissolution will occur the first of June. In conducting this long established business Mr. Fowler will be assisted by his sons, R. B. and B. W. Fowler.

WEDDED AT ST. ROSE'S.

Miss Margaret O'Leary, of Canaan street, and John J. Nallin, of Dundaff street, were married at St. Rose of Lima church last evening. The young couple have a large number of friends who wish them God-speed in traveling life's journey together.
