Death of D. R. Stiles-What Will Occur Here on Decoration Day-A Column of Local Happenings Picked Up on Both Sides of the Word was received here last evening announcing the death of D. R. Stiles at the home of his daughter in Scranton. He was a resident here for more than a quarter of a century and for a score of years was one of Pittston's will be kindly remembered here most active business men. The remains will be interred in the Pittston cometery on Sunday afternoon, arriving here about 4 o'clock. He is survived by a son, Dr. Stiles, of Philadelphia, and one daughter, Mrs. S. L. Rice, of Scranton.

The members of the G. A. R. are netively engaged in the necessary arrangements for the proper observance of Decoration day. While all the cemeteries will be visited and the graves of every deceased soldier appropriately strewn with flowers and the weatherbeaten remains of the stars and stripes replaced by a new and bright sample of Old Glory. The main exercises will be observed in the Pittston cemetery. A visit to the latter place yesterday showed that extensive improvements are being made and it is fast becoming one of the most beautiful spots in the valley. This is more than we can say of several other places, but it should not be so.

Many complaints are heard in regard to the way the asphalt pave is sprinkled. The washes of the cart are so large that the pavement is deluged on each trip made, so that it is slippery to both pedestrians and bicyclists. One of the latter yesterday—Judge Terrill, of Ithaca-while riding on North Main street fell heavily to the pavement, sustaining several severe bruises and spoiling a suit of clothes.

In pursuance of a general order from headquarters of the Pennsylvania Grand Army of the Republic, J. N. Reynolds Post, No. 98, of this place, on Friday afternoon visited the borough schools and took part in a programme arranged with the assistance of Professor A. J. Morelock, principal. The object of these orders is the instruction the scholars of the public schools in the causes and effects of the war of the Rebellion, and more especially of the objects and purposes for which Memorial Day was instituted. The schools will be invited to participate with the post in the observance of Memorial Day on Tuesday next.

On Thursday afternoon the rejuvenated Tritons again went up against the high school team in a game of base ball and again suffered a defeat, this time by the score of 4-3 in seven innings. The Tritons evidently are not what they used to be, several errors and a general inability to hit the ball being responsible for the defeat. C. A. Sisk, of Factoryville, was in

The People's Exchange. THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

By Associated Press. New York, May 25.—The stock market opened with a continuance of the upward movement which was in force yesterday. movement which was in force yesterday; Yesterday's sharp advance brought in a moderate volume of buying orders to the commission houses, which were put in at the opening. There seems to have been also considerable enthusiasm awakened in the American department of the London market by the same interest. The international stocks were bid up there before the opening here and the arbitrage brokers promptly bid them up to a parity here. It soon became apparent, however, that the buil parity were no more prepared to make extensive commitments on the eve of a holiday than the bears and the activity soon came to a standstill.

than the bears and the activity soon came to a standstill.

By Carrington & Cusack.

New York, May 26.—The market opened fairly strong on a general advance in London and strength in the Traction stocks, following the passage of the amended Ford bill, which gave a firmer tone to the whole list. There appeared to be a fair demand for most of the active stocks, some of which seemed to be for the long account. London was a fair buyer of its specialties, and the early market promised a better condition. After the first hour, however, dullness set in, which encouraged renewed selling by the already aggressive short interest and this, in connection with the sharp break in Steel and Wire, Consolidated Gas and Tobacco, unsettled the general list to such an extent to bring about a weak condition toward the close. The decline in wheat in Chicago, notwithstanding the tremendous volume of bad crop reports did something to strongthen the Grangers but the market seems to lack snapentirely and the bears at the moment seem to be completely in the control. Steel and Wire was under the hammer pratty much all day rallying feebly from around 60 but no time showing any marked strength. Manhattan Rallway broke sharply during the middle of the day on execution of market orders by a prominent bear broker. The reduction of per cent. In the Consolidated Gas dividend was not as radical as had been expected by the street, and on its publication the stock railied feebly. The crop reports were considerably better today, the weather throughout the whole west was reported favorable, and there seems to be completely in the control of per cent. In the consolidated west was reported favorable, and there seems to be an opinion that while spring wheat is much retarded it is not too late even. was reported favorable, and there seems to be an opinion that while spring wheat is much retarded it is not too late even yet to recuperate a marked degree. The feature around 2 p. m. in the stock market was a bear raid of about 2 points in Sugar, due to room shorts and the impatience of holders, who are getting out on the belief that the longs promised on Monday, and the fact that there will be no business, virtually from tonight until Wednesday morning had a great deal to do with the action of the market today and we think that no decided movement other than fractional changes need be looked for until over the holilooked for until over the holi days. The close was somewhat irregu-lar but fairly strong on a recovery en-gineered against the shorts who bought
