REV. D. D. HOPKINS ACCEPTS CALL OF WELSH BAFTISTS.

Expected to Assume Charge on the First Sunday in August-Congregation Here Look Forward to His Coming - Funerals of Norman Wheeler and Mrs. John Hughes. Children's Day Exercises-Among the Churches-St. Paul's Smoker. General News Notes and Personals.

Rev. D. D. Hopkins, of Wales, has accepted the call tendered him by the members of the First Welsh Baptist church. The letter received by Benjamin Hughes last Thursday was read at the after-meeting service last even-

Rev. Mr. Hopkins' acceptance was written in Welsh, and he referred to the hospitable manner in which he was received by the people of the city and the members of the First Welsh Baptist church during the eight weeks engagement he filled here during March

Rev. Hopkins was tendered an unanimous call to the church about seven weeks ago and was so notified previous to his departure for Wales. He stated that he would decide in due time and after presenting the matter to his congregation at home and serlously considering the call, he decided to accept. In his letter the Rev. Mr. Hopkins stated his willingness to come to the church and asked to be notified when he would be expected to assume charge.

It was decided that he be given until August 1 to complete his arrangements in Wales prior to his departure for this country.

The gentleman is one of the most learned preachers in Water and made a very favorable impression here. He comes exceptionally well recommended and is young and ambitious. During the short time he spent in this country he visited several states and preached every Sunday. He was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Evans, of North Hyde Park avenue, during his

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

[Under this heading short letters of in-terest will be published when accompa-nied, for publication, by the writer's name. The Tribune will not be held re-sponsible for opinions here expressed.]

Reply to E. S. Williams. Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: It seems almost incredible that after five months in which to study and ligest the important features of the Car-penters' demands on the master builders f this city, that so prominent a member f the Builders' Exchange as Contractor S. Williams should express such pro-ound ignorance as that set forth over his signature in yesterday's Republican.
As to his comment on the rights of the contractor to pay his bills, I have nothing to say, but if Mr. Williams had read to track rules a grow of which is availthe trade rules, a copy of which is avail-able to every contractor, he would find mutual protection to contractors and em-ployes from injustices heretofore xisting. Mr. Williams claims that "the Building Trades Council demands an eight-hour day for all union members of that body." Tals is not true, and I cannot understand how he could have been misled into this statement. The reason why the eight-hour movement in Pennsylvania was begun in Screnton, rather than Philadel-phia or Pittsburg, is because Scranton is recognized as one of the very best oris recognized as one of the very best organized cities in the United States, so far as the building trades are concerned; and far and away the best organized city in the state of Pennsylvania. With these facts in view, why should we wait for Philadelphia and Pittsburg? And why should not Scranton be the first in line in the eight-hour movement? In movements of this character it is the strength of the union rather than the size of the city that lends force to the demand for a of this character it is the strength of the union rather than the size of the city that lends force to the demand for a shorter work day.

I two weeks' pay law.

As to his suggestion of threats of armone, etc., I have nothing to say by way of defense of any man who has made use of such language.

After disposing of the eight-hour ques-

f the controversy the increase in wages emanded is just 7½ per cent. It is evi-ent that this statement is made for the purpose of frightening parties who con-template the erection of buildings this season, and it needs no other criticism than the mere lifting of the mantel which the gentleman has so adroitly east about the truth. If the members of the Builders' Exchange purpose awaiting the ar-rival of the last hour, and then bolster-ing up their side of this question with false statements, then indeed must they cel insecure in the position which they

As to the demand that foremen shall be nembers of the union, it is an open ques-ion as to who shall derive the most have nt-the union or the employer-us a result of this rule. One thing is certain that with foremen, educated in the rights of the union men working under him, the employer who is honestly desirous of working in harmony with the union will not be led into unnecessary trouble. "Then," he says, "the contractor must pay every two weeks," Yes, even so; the employer must not violate this one ticular law of the commonwealth of Ponnsylvania. The legislature wisely created this law for the purpose of pro-tecting labor from that class of employ-crs who deem it an outrage for their em-ployes to demand their wages within a reasonable period. If the legislature had not practically invalidated the law in framing it, through their neglect to attach a penalty clause, it would not now be necessary for Mr. Williams to be be wailing the fact that the Carpenters union had taken up the matter, filling it the omission of our state lawmakers by placing a penalty on violations of the of such language as he has placed in quotations. I will say, however, that I do not believe he can produce a union tion. Mr. Williams says: "The next ded on the believe he can produce a union mand is for an increase in wages of 25 to 39 per cent. more than they are receiving at present." This statemnt I believe to be a willful exaggeration of fact, for the gentleman could not have been so grossly misled in his beliefs. The fact is that latter is working up some means of decloping lawlessness among the strikers, If there is a "system that will inculcate thoughts of murder and arson," it lies utide the labor organizations and would require no strong force of detectives to ferret it out. The union does not "com-pel a man to leave his work because that man does not care to refuses to work with him if he

The business agent does not hunt up The business agent does not hunt up trouble. The fact is that his hands are kept so full of trouble by simply taking care of that which comes to him that he has no time to go out looking for it. That he rides a bicycle is true enough, but nly because it is economy-in time; that e is a gentleman goes without saying. The gentleman thinks "that the men will receive more wages and better treatment without the interference of trades unions." Well, he may hold to this opinion, but if would be shaken semewhat if he made a careful myns of the benefits secured to carpenrs since the organization of the union, and then compare it with the losses in wages alone, through unreliable contracors prior to the organization of the
