

OBSERVANCE OF MEMORIAL DAY

Marching was especially noteworthy. The sons of veterans were particularly strong in numbers and were reinforced by a splendid drum corps.

The Eleventh regiment marched with precision and grace and made an excellent appearance, but the real enthusiasm was accorded the Thirtieth regiment and the boys who served in Cuba and Porto Rico.

The police force, under Chief Robling, made an excellent impression and appeared for the first time with spring helmets. The line of march was down Wyoming avenue to Lackawanna, to Adams, to Spruce, to Jefferson, to Gibson, counter-march to Vine, to Washington, to Spruce and dismissed. The parade was reviewed by Mayor Moir at city hall and the chief marshal and his aides reviewed the procession at Washington avenue and Spruce street.

were in memory of those comrades who have passed away during the past year. The Post quarter, composed of the Messrs. Blamie, Noel, McDonald and Scott, rendered "The Vacant Chair" in an acceptable manner. Prayer was offered by the Rev. W. Q. Scott, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Elmhurst and chaplain of the post. The reading of orders was given by Adjutant George S. Brock after which Commander Asa B. Stevens delivered an address. He spoke feelingly of those who had died since last Memorial day. The quartette gave another selection, "Calmly Asleep," and an address was made by the chaplain. The exercises were brought to a close by the singing of "When the Boys Are All Gone," by the quartette.

The Colonel William N. Monie post, No. 319, G. A. R., conducted an excellent entertainment in Guernsey's hall, on Washington avenue, last evening. An audience that taxed the capacity of the auditorium was in attendance and showed by its generous applause that the programme was excellent.

The Village Bell quartette rendered "The Song of the Steeple on the Hill" in a charming manner. Mr. Thomas Monie contributed two songs, "The Olden Story" and "Just as the Sun Went Down." Miss Clara Haas, a young Miss nine years old, gave a whistling selection and also rendered a piano solo, proving herself a most versatile young lady.

Miss Mary Fisher, of West Stranton, executed several difficult violin solos and maintained the excellent reputation she already bears as a violinist of rare power and feeling. Mr. George Hartman gave a humorous selection, entitled "A German in Dutch," and was loudly applauded. Miss Blanche Thimble, who sang the "Fruit of the Virginis" and was well received. The accompanists were the Misses Tillie Kenwood, Alice Williams and Rosenzweig. After the entertainment the Lady Oakland union, No. 10, Women's Veteran Relief union, served refreshments.

LADIES' MEMORIAL SERVICES. At 10 a. m. the members of the G. A. R. circle, No. 19, Ladies' auxiliary to the Colonel Monie post, met in A. O. U. W. hall and conducted memorial services. The circle has lost ten members since its organization, thirteen years ago. The departed are: Mrs. Tunis Thomas, Mrs. Abram Polhemus, Mrs. William Polhemus, Mrs. Asa Polhemus, Miss Mary Sullivan, Mrs. Margaret Rogers, Mrs. Avra Beaman, Mrs. Sade Kreator, Mrs. Charles Appwater, Mrs. E. A. Seull had charge of the services and was assisted by the chaplain and junior and senior vice-presidents.

At noon the ladies served their annual Memorial day dinner. The members of the circle all assisted and Mrs. Lottie Graff was in charge. There was a plentitude of all sorts of good things and over 250 comrades and Sons of Veterans were dined.

At the conclusion of the parade, lunch was served by the ladies of Lieutenant Ezra S. Griffin Women's Relief corps, No. 59, at the post rooms on Lackawanna avenue. Cake, coffee, lemonade and sandwiches were provided. The executive committee of the corps, comprising Mrs. Randolph Jones, Mrs. Fred Amundsen, Mrs. A. Strong, Mrs. Fred Warner, Mrs. Anna Hand and Mrs. T. H. Allen, were in charge.

OTHER GRAVES DECORATED. The four resting places outside of the cemeteries assigned. Here flags and flowers were placed. To the Griffin, McDonnell and Von Storch cemeteries went two or three of the G. A. R. detail for the Cathedral cemetery, and from the Sons of Veterans were W. N. Cole, D. D. Davis, William Jenkins, H. H. McKeehan and M. J. Graham. For the graves at the Lutheran cemetery on North Washington avenue from the G. A. R. went Joseph Harper, and from the Sons of Veterans, Henry, William, John, Charles and Fred, R. Leber and C. A. Burke.

A large audience greeted the Pastor Star Lyceum company who entertained last night at the Lyceum under the auspices of Ezra Griffin post, G. A. R. Miss Mattie Holmes, soprano soloist and elocutionist; Albert Smith, violinist and prestidigitator, and J. Leonard Van der Meer, organist, pianist and monologist, were the entertainers and they proved equal to the occasion, furnishing a clean, up-to-date and pleasant entertainment. The affair was concluded with a series of viagraph views of war scenes in Manila, Cuba, Haiti, Rio de Janeiro, and during the war served in the Sixty-seventh regiment.

Notes of the Day. WILLIAM Moore, who is at present staying at the Soldiers' Home at Newport News, Va., and who comes here every year regularly to parade with the "boys," turned up as usual yesterday and carried the colors in the parade at Petersburg in the morning. Comrade Moore is 74 years of age now and was a member of the old James Raub post, No. 101, G. A. R., and during the war served in the Sixty-seventh regiment. Every year, if sickness does not prevent, Philip Geiger, who is staying at the Soldiers' Home in Erie, comes here to participate with Post No. 319 in Memorial day exercises. He is 79 years of age, but does not appear to be over fifty and he thoroughly enjoys his annual vacation. Howard Davis and Harry Angie, of Company C, Thirtieth regiment, went to Archbald to decorate the grave of Henry Raub, G. A. R., and William and Oscar Wright, Louis Schmidt and Louis Sisco, of the Sons of Veterans, looked after the graves of the comrades at Elmhurst. A detail from Company D went to Marcy cemetery, Lackawanna, to decorate the grave of Walter G. Porter. The Sons of Veterans sent a firing squad, comprising William Hamlin, commanding, John McGraw, William Belles, Ambrose McGraw, Robert Vanduzer, Louis E. Reed, William J. Reed, Frank H. Sampson, and the following detail, Benjamin Jenkins, Thomas Armstrong, Harry Sweet, William Armstrong, Edward Sweet, James Morris, Howard Steevers, to assist Captain Lyons post, No. 540, O. A. R.

Corporals Homer Pease and Bernard Haggerty, Company A, Thirtieth regiment, went to Clark's Summit yesterday to decorate the grave of Privates Harry E. Pease and William Staples. Company F, Thirtieth regiment, looked after the grave of Sylvester Detrick at Forest Hill. Sergeant Major W. S. Gould and Private Joseph Ross represented Company C at the decorating of Private Alvin Evans' grave in the Washburn street cemetery. Flowers were sent to soldiers in Stroudsburg to be placed upon the grave of Obed A. Michaels, of Company C.

Members of other companies did not forget to provide for the decorating of their dead comrades' graves. It seemed to be the general opinion that the three companies of the Eleventh regiment never marched in more faultless style than yesterday. The quartette, or what there was of it in line yesterday, was applauded along the whole route, but perhaps the greatest notice was bestowed upon the Engineers and Regular Infantrymen, who saw actual service on foreign shores. They wore their campaign clothes and looked quite natty.

In many important particulars, Hood's Sarsaparilla is a medicine as far ahead of the usual preparation as the electric light is ahead of the tallow dip. The ingredients used in making it are selected with the greatest care, and are gathered for us at the greatest remedial value. The peculiar Sarsaparilla combination, produced and used in Hood's Sarsaparilla, are unknown to any other, thus making Hood's Sarsaparilla peculiar to itself. The value of this peculiarity is best shown by actual results. And Hood's Sarsaparilla has a record of cures unequalled in medical history. Has more of them, greater successes in serious cases, better gone, unsolicited testimonials than any other medicine in existence. It cures extreme cases of blood disease, scrofula, salt rheum, rheumatism, catarrh, and all other troubles traceable to impure or vitiated blood. Possessing great stomach-toning qualities, it cures indigestion, dyspepsia, flatulency, and all other ailments of the stomach, etc. It builds up the nerves, and all other strength and curing nervous prostration. As a natural tonic, it strengthens the whole system and cures that tired feeling. It has done all this for others and what it does for others it will do for you. All we ask for Hood's Sarsaparilla, is a necessary, an opportunity to be a fair trial. Be sure to get Hood's, sold by druggists. Prepared only by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. It never disappoints.

Ladies' Cycling and Golf Dress. If correct, depends largely on the hang of the skirt. The Bicycle Skirt has been evolving itself from dark and chaos for almost ten years. Do you remember the early attempts that clung and bothered and flew around in spite of the little sand bags and lead weights in the hem? The experiments that failed so dismally, that bagged where they shouldn't and drew where they shouldn't, and "hung" with all the free abandoned grace of a dejected meat bag? Now see these new styles and acknowledge that the world moves rapidly in these days. These skirts of ours are as near to perfection as such dress can be. Graceful, suitable, practical and becoming, made from the right kind of goods, and made as they must be to get our tag on them. The Best of It All Is the Price Story. It's short, and should be interesting to every lady with athletic tendencies. Six Skirts at $1.00 each. Value $2 to $2.50. Four Skirts at $3.50 each. Value $5.50 to $7.50. Seventeen Skirts at $5.00 each. Value $8 to $12.00. Fifteen Skirts at $7.50 each. Value $12.50 to $20.00.
