The Angelus

Plano Player.

When one hears music as rendered on the Angelus with spirit and expression that is almost marvelous one can hardly realize that such music is made by an automatic machine. It is so human-like and artistic to the minutest details of tempo and expression. Through this instrument the most difficult classic of the simplest ballad can be executed by the most unskilled person. The Angelus is not an electric pump-box, but simply does away with the difficult technical work while you regulate the tempo and expression to suit yourself. It is most appreciated by the best musicians who recognize in it a most remarkable instrument. On exhibition at all times at

SOCIETY NEEDS FUNDS.

Badges Entitling Holder to Membership in the Society Are to Be Sold—Hospital for Horses Is Suggested.

The regular monthly meeting of the Society for the Protection of Cruelty to Animals was held in the board of trade rooms last evening. President Kemmerer, Secretary Atherton, Agent Knapp and William Blume were present.

Mr. Atherton spoke at some length about the necessity of arousing the public sentiment to the needs of the society, and of obtaining funds with which to carry on its work. He mentioned the purchase of 150 membership badges and made a motion to the effect that they be sold by the agent of the society at $1 each, the money to go towards the expenses of the organization. The motion was unanimously adopted.

The badges are blue with a white star in the center and entitle the purchaser to membership in the society. It is hoped that a number of them will be sold as there is a pressing need for the money.

Mr. Atherton next moved that the salary of the agent be raised from $45 to $40 a month. This motion was also adopted.

CARPENTERS AND METAL WORKERS

THEY WILL REFUSE TO WORK THIS MORNING.

Demand for More Wages and Shorter Hours Are Not Conceded by Their Employers, and as a Result the Strike Begins This Morning.
Meetings Held Last Night by Carpenters and Members of Builders' Exchange—Statements Made by Men on Both Sides.

The carpenters and sheet metal workers will go on strike this morning. The carpenters want an eight-hour day and thirty cents an hour. They have been working nine hours a day and the maximum wage rate has been twenty-five cents per hour.

There are about ninety sheet metal workers in the city, and they are principally tinner, employed by the plumbing and tinning firms. Five weeks ago they mailed the following circular to the master tinner:

Local Union No. 84, Amalgamated Sheet Metal Workers' International Association, Scranton, Pa., April 22, 1898.

To the Master Tinner of Scranton and Vicinity: Feeling that the conditions of the time of the city of Scranton and vicinity do not compare favorably with those of other localities we present the following trade rules for your consideration. It is presented these rules are confident that their general adoption will result in great benefit to both employer and employee.

Rule 1—Eight hours shall constitute a day's work.
Rule 2—The minimum rate of wages shall be 32 cents per hour.
Rule 3—The shop steward shall see that no man works for less than the minimum rate.
Rule 4—All overtime must be paid for at the rate of one and one-half times, but it is the desire of the union to discourage overtime, except in cases of extreme necessity.
Rule 5—All work on Sundays must be paid at the rate of double time.
Rule 6—Each member must be paid in cash at least every two weeks, and at no time shall he have more than three weeks' wages due him from one employer.
Rule 7—Resolved, that these rules shall go into effect June 1, 1898.

Amalgamated Sheet Metal Workers' Union, No. 84, of Scranton, Pa.

The master tinner refused to grant the demands and the sheet metal workers thereupon resolved to quit work in a body. This they will do today.

LAST NIGHT'S MEETINGS.
Two meetings were held last night in this city, the results of which may have a far reaching effect upon the general public in divers ways. The one meeting was that of the Master Builders' exchange, and the other that of the Joint unions, Nos. 484 and 538, of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America.

At the former's meeting practically nothing was done but to discuss in a general way the outlook of the building trade situation. At the latter's meeting, by a majority vote of over 500 carpenters it was decided to stand by their demand for an eight hour day, increase in wages, etc. This means that almost 600 carpenters will enjoy a general idle day today, tomorrow and perhaps very many more after that.

The demand of the Carpenters' union was made four months ago and was refused by the master builders within a short time afterward. Since that time each side has been preparing for the events which begin by reason of last night's action.

The master builders are a unit on the refusal and express themselves as willing to await the result, feeling, as they say, that they have all to gain and nothing to lose. They also say that what little work there remains to be done to finish up their present contracts was contracted for previous to March 1, 1899, which the carpenters have agreed does not come under the ban.

ATTORNEY BROWN'S MEMORY HONORED

MEETING OF THE LACKAWANNA BAR ASSOCIATION.

Eulogies Pronounced by Judge H. M. Edwards, Attorneys John M. Harris, E. C. Newcomb, Nathan Vidaver and C. W. Dawson—Resolutions That Were Reported and Adopted—Funeral Will Be Held This Morning and Will Be Attended by Members of the Bar.

A meeting of the Lackawanna Bar Association was held at noon yesterday in the main court room of the court house to take action on the death of Attorney Joseph U. Brown, who passed away at Peckville Tuesday from the effects of a stroke of paralysis.

The meeting was presided over by James H. Torrey, president of the bar association, and John B. Collins was secretary. The meeting was held immediately after court adjourned for the noon recess and Judge H. M. Edwards was the first speaker. He said the relations between the court and Mr. Brown had always been of the most pleasant nature. He never heard Mr. Brown say an unkind word about a member of the bar. He was always kind, courteous and considerate in court and his briefs were prepared with great care and thoroughness.

Attorney John M. Harris paid a tribute to Mr. Brown's ability. He was a graduate of Yale, a man of broad and vigorous intellect and it was only his modesty that prevented him from taking a more prominent position at the local bar.

A beautiful tribute to the deceased was paid by Attorney E. C. Newcomb. He said Mr. Brown was a man of large heart and great good nature. Though he was twice possessed of a large share of the world's goods and saw them swept away by business reverses and though he knew he would not be his disposition to do so, but refused and allowed all his property and effects to go to satisfy the claims of his creditors.

Attorneys E. C. Newcomb, Nathan Vidaver and J. C. Vaughan were named a committee on resolutions and reported the following, which were adopted:

Resolved, that in view of the fact that Joseph U. Brown, a native of Northampton county, Pa., was graduated at Yale in the class of 1874 and was admitted to the bar in his native county at Easton in 1876, where for a number of years he practiced his profession successfully and enjoyed a very high degree of popularity. Early in the 80's he left the active practice of his profession to engage in the lumber business, which he followed until 1885 with varied success; at two different times while so engaged in the lumber business he acquired a considerable fortune that in either of those instances he could have retired with a comfortable competency.

He met with serious reverses in the winter of 1885 in a lumber venture where the bulk of his resources were at stake, so that crippled in fortune and with impaired health he returned to the practice of law and located in this city, where he was admitted to the bar on the 24th day of June, 1886, since which time he was engaged in the practice of law here almost to the very hour of his death, which came on Tuesday, the 30th day of May, 1899, as the result of a paralytic stroke which he suffered on Sunday, two days earlier.

MARK OF ESTEEM.

As a mark of esteem in which our deceased brother was held, it is resolved, that in the death of Joseph U. Brown we realize that this bar has lost one of its many and upright members; one who was the soul of honor and loyalty alike to the court, his clients and his friends; who was mainly and sincerely in all his dealings and of marked simplicity of character. With no shadow of deception to him he had no patient with double dealing or hypocrisy; those who know him well had absolute confidence in his integrity and good faith. With all his simplicity of heart he had such a varied business experience that he brought to the discharge of his professional duties an abundance of good sense that has been a useful adviser; reverses in business had produced nothing cynical in him and he remained to the last a whole-hearted, sympathetic friend and counselor.

It is further resolved that a minute of these resolutions be put upon the record of the deceased brother's admission to this bar, and that a like copy be transmitted to his sister, Mrs. Woodard, of Mehoopany, the only surviving member of his family.

The funeral services will be held this morning at 10 o'clock at Peckville, and
