BANQUET OF THE IMPERIAL CIRCLE

WAS HELD LAST NIGHT AT THE HOTEL TERRACE.

Close of the Season of the Chautauqua Circle Was Commemorated by the Event—Those Who Responded to the Toasts—Address of Attorney J. Watson Browning on the "Progress of the Century in Commercial Industries"—Names of Those Who Attended Banquet.

At the Hotel Terrace last evening the second annual dinner of Imperial circle, Twentieth Century class, Chautauqua Literary and Social circle, was held. It was attended by about thirty-five members of the circle, and was a very enjoyable event. It was held to commemorate the close of the circle's season.

A "BABY" CLARKE SCARE

Factoryville Thought It Had a Clue and Sent for Help—Chief Robbing Made an Investigation.

Word came from Factoryville yesterday morning that Chief Robbing was wanted on there to investigate a clue in the missing "Baby" Clarke case. The chief and Secretary Hutton went up post-haste, but came home empty-handed.

Two men, accompanied by a little girl, put up at the Factoryville hotel Wednesday. They left the child in care of the hotel proprietor and went away, saying they would be back the next morning. When they did not return in the morning as promised, attention was directed to the child and some of the people around the hotel began asking her questions.

The child said her name was "Baby" Jones, and that she had a sister named Carrie Jones working in New York. This was enough. She said a good many other things, but these were the terraces that brought on the excitement.

It was apparent at a glance that "Baby" Jones could not be "Baby" Clarke, as the former is five years of age, and the latter not quite two, but then there was no telling but that the kidnapped child might have aged rapidly since its abduction, and then, besides, there was no getting away from the fact that the name of the baby's sister and that of the missing nurse were identically the same. What else was there to do but bring on Chief Robbing?

The chief and Secretary Hutton, after hearing the story, came home on the next train. They took the trouble, however, of inquiring about the two men, who they learned were peddlers, well known in that vicinity. One of them named Jones and he is taking his little girl along on the periodical trip which they are making through the country.

THE GREAT WALLACE SHOWS.

They Will Exhibit in This City This Afternoon and Evening.

The Great Wallace Shows will spread their array of white canvass in this city today on Ash street grounds. And if the advance reports are to be believed, the tented institution this season is one of the largest circuses in America. The press of every city in which the shows have exhibited have been lavish in their praise, particularly the Pittsburgh Post, Chronicle, Telegraph, where the shows reported short time ago. This great newspaper has among other good things the following to say:

"The title of 'The Greatest Show on Earth' has been claimed by many aggregations which annually visit this vicinity, but it is certain that there are none greater than the Great Wallace Shows, which appeared here Monday and Tuesday of this week.

"Not a feature as advertised was omitted and all who attended the performance were led in their praise of the production and the honest way in which the management conducts the gigantic affair.

"Indeed, there is no feature of the great combined show which is not first class and far above the average, and no one need hesitate about going and taking their wives and families or their sweethearts, and they can rest assured they will be well entertained. Anyone who has seen the Great Wallace Shows is sure to go again, because some of the features are so novel and startling that one could not tire of seeing them.

It was attended by about thirty-five members of the circle, and was a very enjoyable event. It was held to commemorate the close of the circle's season.

An excellent menu was served and after it had been discussed to the satisfaction of all present, the season devoted to the "toast of reason and flow of soul" was entered upon. The exercises began with an address by the president, Herschel J. Hall, in which he spoke of the work accomplished by the circle during the year. He introduced Mrs. Lowell M. Gates as the master, and the following programme was then carried out:

- "The Imperialishts".... Arthur L. Collins Music.... Minna M. de Colliensia "Ain—Good-by, my Lover, Good-by, Women of Today." Mrs. Edwin C. Dean "Men of the Hour".... Dr. Daniel A. INDUSTRIAL JOTTINGS.

Ground Broken for the Plant of the Bolt and Nut Works—D. L. & W. Brakeman Are Laid Off.

Ground was broken yesterday for the bolt and nut works by Contractor Schroeder. General Manager W. D. Zehnder turned the first sod and Secretary D. B. Atherton, of the board of trade stood by with the spading.

Another Union Organized. Local union of the National Association of Electrical Workers of America was organized last night at a meeting held for that purpose at 400 Lackawanna avenue. About twenty-five men who are employed in electrical work were present and Martin D. Flaherty, president of the Central Labor union, addressed the meeting.

Union Meetings. Those interested in the reorganization of the Tailors' union are requested to attend the meeting to be held for that purpose at Carpenters' hall Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

This and That. About fifteen of the young brakemen on the coal trains of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad were laid off for an indefinite period yesterday. Several conductors on the trains were reduced to brakemen's position. Superintendent Bogart stated to a Tribune man yesterday that there were too many men for the trains, and the older men were not making full time, hence the laying off of the new men.

JACKSON IS THE NEW INSPECTOR

SUCCEEDS NELSON IN THE DEPARTMENT OF BUILDING.

He Is the Only One of the Six Candidates Who Successfully Passed Examination Wednesday Night. His Name Was Sent to Select Council Last Night by Mayor Moir and He Was Confirmed—Questions That Were Put to the Applicants for the Office.

T. B. Jackson, ex-councilman from the Thirteenth ward, is to succeed John Nelson as building inspector. His name was sent to select council last night by Mayor Moir and was confirmed. He served one term as common councilman from the Thirteenth ward.

He was the only one of the six candidates examined Wednesday night who successfully passed the prescribed test. To secure a certificate of competency the board agreed that a mark of 65 would have to be made. Mr. Jackson made 81 2-3. None of the others made as high as 65, so the board reported only one name to the mayor. One of the candidates made only 17 out of a possible hundred. The questions they were called upon to answer were as follows:

- 1. Give bearing capacity of soils per square foot—(a) Gravel packed and compacted? (b) Clay moderately dry? (c) Good, solid dry natural earth? (d) Compact bed rock? 2. Give weight of substances per cubic foot—(a) Common brick work? (b) Sandstone? (c) Granite? (d) Stone masonry in mortar? (e) cast iron? (f) wrought iron? (g) Southern pine, dry? (h) Hemlock, dry? 3. Give size of floor beams required for 20-foot span, spacing 16 inches e. c.; total load 100 pound per square foot; factor of safety 5—(a) Georgia pine joists? (b) Hemlock? (c) Give weight on each beam? 4. Give strength of Georgia pine girder 8 inches by 16 inches by 20 feet long, using a factor of safety of 5. Give formula—(a) For distributed load? (b) For concentrated load at center? 5. For mill construction 20 foot span 8 feet, spacing of beams e. c. 15 pounds per square foot allowed; factor of safety 8—(a) Give size of Georgia pine beams required? (b) What thickness spruce plank? 6. Should sheathing be put on horizontal or diagonal? Why? 7. Should an under floor be laid at right angle to joist? Why? 8. How should an anchor be fastened to a joist in a brick building? Give diagram. 9. Give diagram of splice in chord of a truss to resist tension and a transverse strain.

STATE FIREMEN COMING.

They Will Hold a Meeting in This City Today and Will Be Entertained at a Banquet Afterwards.

The state officers of the Pennsylvania Firemen's association will be in the city today for the purpose of making arrangements for the state convention to be held here in October. Chief Hickey, who is one of the executive committee, will speak the role of host.

A business meeting will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the St. Charles hotel. The business to be transacted will be to select a place of meeting, pass on the nominations, make rules and by-laws and look after the business of the Relief Firemen's association.

This evening the visitors will be tendered a banquet at the St. Charles hotel at 7:30 by the Scranton Firemen's Relief association. The Lawrence band will furnish music for the occasion.

The following will be here: President, Charles H. Cohen, of Allentown; vice-presidents, J. W. B. Tibbels, of Sharpburg; Edward Elbert, Reading; J. W. C. Austin, York; B. Frank Kaufman, Columbia; recording secretary, W. M. Wunder, Reading.

Executive committee—Gilbert Greenburg, Huntington; P. J. Hickey, Scranton; Abe Lacey, Philadelphia; George W. Muller, Reading; Samuel S. Smith, Norristown; John F. Wittinger, Greensburg; Herbert Heston, Philadelphia.

Law committee—George Nallinger, Philadelphia; A. L. Reichenbach, Allentown; E. Levy Tuttle, Harrisburg; J. A. Hahn, Lock Haven, and B. C. Foster, Bristol.

The chief of the Norristown department, who was the state treasurer, was killed in the recent wreck at Exeter, so that office will not be represented.
