DENIER SUIT

IT IS ON TRIAL BEFORE JUDGE F. W. GUNSTER.

Scranton Railway Company Maintains That It Was Not Responsible for the Death of the Child, and After the Plaintiff Rested Asked for a Non-Suit, Which Was Refused-Jury Went to Carbondale to View the Killeen Property-Verdict in the Wrobelenski Case.

Before Judge F. W. Gunster in court room No. 2 a very interesting case was tried yesterday. The plaintiffs are Michael Denier and his wife, Sarah Denier, who reside on Penn avenue, where the husband is engaged in business. The defendant is the Scranton Railway company.

On August 14, 1897, the 3-year-old son of the plaintiffs was so badly injured by one of the cars of the defendant company that he died in the Lackawanna hospital n few hours later.

It is undisputed that the boy was crossing Penn avenue near his home and that an inward bound Providence car run by Enoch Evans was passing along the track from Mulberry to Linden streets. The boy had crossed the track in safety when he collided with n bleycle ridden by Simon Ward. The child was knocked down by the collision and fell across one of the rails The plaintiffs contend that this was some distance in front of the moving ear, which, if in proper hands and supplied with proper safety appliances, could have been stopped in time to save the child from injury.

The defense is that the child and bicycle rider were alongside the track when the little fellow was knocked down and that he fell on the rails between the front and rear wheels of In other words, the theory of the defense is that the bicycle and not the trolley company was the primary cause of the accident. The plaintiffs are represented by Attor-'s Vosburg & Dawson and ex-Judge W. H. Stanton and the defendant company by Attorneys Everett Warren and P. W. Galtagher.

WITNESSES FOR PLAINTIFF. The witnesses who testified for the plaintiff were Simon Ward, the man who rode the bicycle; A. F. Rowley Michael Denier, father of child; Harry Dorshimer, Dr. Feinberg, M. R. Constant, Frederick Phinney and Sarah Denier, mother of the child.

Mr. Ward testified that he crossed the car track in front of the car to avoid a wagon which blocked the road way. Just after he crossed the rails he struck a little boy and knocked him down. He was thrown from his wheel and before he could get on his fect and pick up the child, the car had run him down.

Mrs. Denier said the child was in charge of a boy named Zleman when the accident occurred, After the plaintiffs rested, the defense asked for compulsory non-suit, on the ground that no evidence had been produced to show that the defendant company was responsible for the accident,

The request for a compulsory nonsuit was refused by Judge Gunster and the case for the defense was opened. Enoch Evans, who had charge was the first witness. He said that when the child was knocked down by Ward they were both at the side of the car. He reversed the power and brought it to a standstill as soon as possible. When Mr. Evans' cross-examination was concluded court adadjourned for the day. The case wil probably take up the entire time of

In court room No. 1 yesterday morning a jury was sworn in the case of Thomas Killeen and others against the Carbondale Traction company and the city of Carbondale. The plaintiffs want to recover damages because the defendants changed the grade of a street In front of their property. After a jury was sworn it went to Carbondale in charge of Tipstaff Powell and viewed the property which it is alleged was returned in the afternoon. In the meantime, another case had been called and put on trial. The Killeen case will begin as soon as the former goes to the

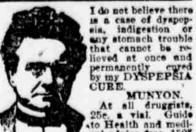

When the Killeen jury went to Carbondale, another jury was sworn to try the case of Mathilda Farhig, administratrix of the estate of her husband, Frederick E. Fahrig, against Eugene The plaintiff seeks to recover $1,360, with interest from 1893, which she says is due her by the defendant on a property, part of her husband's estate, which she sold to Schimpff. The case will be on trial for the greater part of the day. The plaintiff is represented by Attorney C. H. Soper and the defendant by Attorneys C. H. Weiles, J. H. Torrey and Joseph

In the case of Michael Wrobelenski against the borough of Archbald the jury yesterday returned a verdict of $150 in favor of the plaintiff. It was the second trial of the case. On the first trial Wrobeienski was given a verdict of $200.

Wants a Jury Trial.

George L. Wickenhoffer has filed his brought against him by Eva L. Wickenhoffer. He says that since their marriage he has always conducted himself as a husband ought to do and he wholly denies that he ever beat or abused his wife or by barbarous or cruel treatment rendered her condition intolerable or her life burdensome, or that he ever gave her cause or obliged her to depart from his house

He avers that his wife left his house without just cause. All of this the respondent is ready to maintain. He asks for a jury trial.

Suit Against City of Scranton.

Bridget Harvey is the plaintiff in an action to recover $5,000 damages which was brought against the city of Scranton yesterday. Her attorney is H. S Alworth.

Mrs. Harvey was walking along East Market street on April 17 when she stumbled against a post which, it is alleged, protruded three inches above the ground in the middle of the sidewalk. By reason of the fall she sustained a broken arm and other ininjured by the defendants. The jury juries for which she asks damages in

NEW NO. 3 SCHOOL BUILDING INSPECTED.

Viewed Yesterday by a Number of Members of the Board of Control. The Building Committee Will Recommend Its Acceptance at the Next Meeting of the Board of Control-Lodge of Knights of Honor to Be Organized in This Part of the City-Other News Items.

The new No. 3 school building, the most recent acquisition to the many handsome schools in the city, situated on Pittston avenue, corner of Hickory street, was given a thorough inspection by several school controllers and others who figure in that portion of the city's government.

Contractor M. J. Ruddy, who erected the building, and Architect John A. Duckworth, who designal it, guided the inspectors through the school, Controllers Peter Neuls, of the Eleventh ward, where the building is located, Shirer, Roche, Schwass Leonard and Jayne, Superintendent of Repairs Harey and Superintendent of Machinery Harris comprised the party.

The building is a twelve room one with all the modern appointments The rooms are large, extremely well ventilated and have excellent sources of light. A large fan in the cellar sends fresh air through every room The building in its exterior appear ance is very substantial. There is no effort at elaborate adornments.

At the conclusion of the tour of inspection the party expressed much satsfaction at the manner in which the building was finished. A few changes were suggested and at the next regular meeting of the board of control the building committee will recommend the acceptance of the school.

A year ago June 9 excavations were commenced for the crection of the structure. The cost of it is $21,000 and the site was purchased for $15,000, $5,000 for each lot. Controller Neuls stated to a Tribune man last night that he will make a strong effort to have the closing sessions of the term in the new building and in the event that this cannot be arranged, the pupils attending the present No. 3 school will at the opening session enter the new

It has been currently stated that St. Mary's congregation will endeavor to purchase the old school building on River street, which adjoins St. Mary's cenvent.

Ladies' Cycling and Golf Dress

If correct, depends largely on the hang of the skirt. The Bicycle Skirt has been evolving itself from dark and chaos for almost ten years. Do you remember the early attempts that clung and bothered and flew around in spite of the little sand bags and lead weights in the hem? The experiments that failed so dismally, that bagged where they shouldn't and drew where they shouldn't, and "hung" with all the free abandoned grace of a dejected meat bag?

Now see these new styles and acknowledge that the world moves rapidly in these days. These skirts of ours are as near to perfection as such dress can be.
