Jimeson Pitched Great Ball for Wilkes-Barre, and Defeated Reading-Richmond Won from Allentown-Lancaster Defeated Paterson in a Featureless Game-Brooklyn Won from Cleveland by a Close Score - Boston Defeated Cincinnati-Diamond Pick-Ups

Scranton's rans were much displeas ed at yesterday's game, when Berger helped Newark defeat Swift's team. I was a steal, and nothing more, and if President Barrows does not furnish a new umpire for today's game, President Finn says "they won't play." The visitors had cause for complaint also Strikes were called on them when the sphere was nowhere near the plate.
O'Connell did not play, as his injure finger would not permit it. O'Neill was out of the game, but is getting better, and will be in shape in two or three days. Keenan pitched well, but lacked support at times.

The Wilkes-Barre Indian pitched for the Barons after Voorhees was knocked out, and Reading never found him Lancaster defeated Paterson in a featureless game, while Stimmel, of Allentown was easy for Richmond. The National League games were well con-

BERGER IS VERY BAD.

Gave an Exhibition of Miscrable Umpiring Yesterday and Helped Newark to a Victory She Hardly Deserved.

Newack took a game from Scranto yesterday afternoon by a score of Newark cen hardly have th credit of winning the game alone I'm pire Berger gave notable assistance Rerger robbed us from start to finish He was so bad that President Firm to egraphed to President Earrows at Ph adelphia that Scranton would not pla today unless a new umpire was furtoday unless a new umpire was fur-nished. Berger is even werse than childs, 2b

Keenan was in the box, and Risley Drauby. 2b again covered second. Newark's bat- stration, rf ting order was slightly changed yes. Cockman, rf terday. Gunson played right field, while Cogan twitled and Roach batted in eighth position. Doherty made two tine foul catches near third base. Flanagan, Scranton's new entcher, made a wood impression. He bats well and Deherty led the batting order, but was thrown out at first by Kloff, and Knoll came next and flew out to Schufler. Dillon followed with his two-base hit, and Eagan struck out, so ending the first. Newark never saw first base for the first two innings. In the secend Risley got his base on balls, but was thrown out at second by Roach. From the second until the sixth Scranton died as fast as she came to bat. In the sixth, Flanagan sent a hot liner into left field, reached second on Keenan's sacrifice hit, and scored on Knoll's three-base hit, Knell coming in

on Dillon's single, making two runs to Scranton's credit

Dillon was called out in this inning for running out of bounds between second and third. There was a general mix-up; everybody seemed to have omething to do with the ball.

In the Seventh, Lippert scored on a single by Planagan and Doherty scored in the eighth, which ended our runs, making a total of four. Newark scored her first run in the fourth. Schiefler singled, went to first on a passed ball by Flanagan, and scored on Weddege's fly to Eagan. In the sixth, Scrantor fell to pieces, and Newark made five uns. There was lots of excitement in this inning, mixed with Berger's awfu lecisions, which made the excitement still worse. In the seventh, Wise add ed another score to Newark's six, making a total of seven runs. In the eighth they died very eagily. There were about 200 persons present. The
