WHAT THE WAR IS COSTING.

This Revenue District Contributed $91,030.54 Last Month.

Nearly $100,000 a month is contributd by the Twelfth Internal Revenue district to help defray the war ex-pense. These figures are arrived at by a comparison of the receipts for this year with those of a corresponding period of last year, previous to July 1 when the war tax went into effect. The collections for last month, as compiled by Collector T. F. Penman amounted to $150,702.47. In May, 1898. the collections were $59,672.93, or $91. 030.54 less than this year. New York, June 5-Hoh Fitzsimmons and Jim Jeffrics have finished all hard work in preparation of their big fight at the Coney Island Sporting club Friday Their work from now to Wedneeday will be of the lightest kind. Al-though little attention has been paid to the training of the puglists, compared with that showered on the work of con-testants in previous championship but-tles, both have put in woeks of hard, conscientious training and are in good Fitzsimmons claims to be as fit to fight a champions that is to be as it to have a championship buttle Low as he ever was in his life. Jeffries, paced by Ross O'Nell on a bi-cycle, walked ten miles on the stone road at Asbury Park, bright and early today.

Returning, he went to work in the gymmasium and it was 12 o'clock before he finished. He used the punching baz, medicine ball and wrist machine; jumped the rope, sparred a few rounds, played handhall and was rubbed down.

The bollermaker remarked today that "When the going sounds on Friday night at Concy island there is going to be trouble." He is of the spinion that one of ble for the form
