Great values bring great multitudes== It's so with our June underwear sale.

Really, the greatest event of the season. Thousands were here to take advantage of offerings that come only at rare intervals. The response to our announcements was just phenomenal-no such demonstration has ever been seen in this city before. Everybody was eager to buy and everybody bore home a trophy of honest enterprise.

If you have not seen our exhibit you must do so this week

See how this grand underwear is made. It's the best to be had. We know of no manufacturers that can show higher quality and newer designs than we are showing here. Incidentally we beg to call attention to our prices. They are lowest and will remain so, no matter how frantic pretending competition may become. We promise for this week some of the most unusual sacrifices—the same will be announced as soon as the goods arrive, and you may depend upon it that no matter what you may see underwear quoted at elsewhere, you will find better goods at lower prices right here in this store. We promise even greater bargains than when we sold nearly a thousand David Harums at fifty-five cents each.

NEW LODGE OF THE KNIGHTS OF HONOR ORGANIZED.

Many Prominent Residents Are Included in Its Charter Membership. Officers Elected and Installed-Picnic Party at the Meadows-Sauquoit Silk Mill Employes to Have Their Annual Excursion on Saturday, August 12-Interesting News Notes and Personals of a Day.

At Storrs' hall, on Alder street, a new lodge of the Knights of Honor was organized last night. William J. Robinson, grand reporter of the supreme lodge of Pennsylvania, was present and officiated at the initiation and installation ceremonies, assisted by A. B. Eyonon, cashier of the West Side bank, and D. M. Thomas, of the West Scranton lodge of the order. Promptly at 8 o'clock all the members who passed the severe medical examination gathered at the hall. Mr. Robinson opened the meeting and went on at length to enumerate the distinguished features of the organization. The Knights of Honor was organized in Detroit, Mich., June 30, 1876, and in that period has paid to the widows and orphans of deceased members $66, 000,000, a total of 34,000 death claims The order is identical in many respects to the Heptasophs and Royal Arcanum, vet its promoters and advocates assert they can give much better inducements in the insurance line. Its fraternal features are strikingly similar to the Elks. Mr. Robinson discussed these several features at length and the gathering went into permanent organization. The officers chosen were: Dr. Albelt Kolb, sitting past dictator; Select Councilman John J. Schneider, dictator: Jacob Baltus, vice-dictator; John J. Gordon, assistant dictator; Deputy Clerk of the Courts Emil Bonn, reporter; Gustave Reppert, financial reporter; ex-Recorder of Deeds Charles Huester, treasurer; Charles Murch, chaplain: August Storr, gulde: Charles E. Phillips, guardian: H. W. Berghauser, sentinel: Dr. Albert Kolb, medical examiner, G. A. Miller, Charles Huester and Captain George Wirth,

The installation ceremonies, which vere highly impressive, followed the election. Mr. Robinson later exemplified the workings of the order and the officers-elect assumed their posts.
