Ceremony Was Performed in St Mark's Church, Philadelphia.

A marriage in which many Scrantonians were interested took place yesterday at St. Mark's church, Philadelphia, when Miss Louise Gregg, daughter of Mr. Eugene M. Gregg, was married to Dr. Alfred Hand, son of Hon. Alfred Hand, of this city. The ceremony was performed at noon, Rev. Dr. Mortimer, ector of St. Mark's officiating, Messrs. Phineas Gregg and Louis Gregg acting as servitors. The bride was attended by her father and was preceded by Miss Helen Gregg, her little sister, who of white satin, trimmed with point lace and pearls. She were a veil and car-

W. J. Hand, the groom's brother, was best man. The ushers were: Miles T. Hand, Mr. Hall and Dr. Steele, of Philadelphia; Wolcott Lanc, of New York; John Butts, of Reading, and Dr. Charles Miner, of Wilkes-Barre,

At the conclusion of the ceremony breakfast was served at the home o the bride's father, which was attended by only the immediate friends.

Among those who were present at the wedding from this city were: Judge and Mrs. Alfred Hand, Mr. and Mrs.W. J. Hand, Misses Charlotte, Helen and Ruth Hand, Miss Hand was unable to be present owing to a prolonged attack of illness. Dr. and Mrs. Hand will spend a portion of their honeymoon in Scranton as guests at Judge Hand's home on Jefferson avenue They will reside in Philadelphia where Dr. Hand has been practicing medicine for some time. His bride is very lovely in personality and temperament and will be welcomed by a host of friends of the family in this city among whom the doctor is exceedingly popular.

MAY HAVE TO SETTLE

Vaughan Bill Applies to the Present County Contest.

THAT IS BURNS' OPINION

If He Is Correct the Men Who Signed the Petition Which Enabled W. S. Langstaff to Begin His Contest Will Very Probably Have to Pay the Costs Which Will Amount to Something Like One Hundred Thousand Dollars-Mr. Burns Says the Matter Appears Too Plain for Any Doubt as to the Action of the

There is a very strong probability that the men who signed the petition of W. S. Langstaff instituting a contest against M. J. Kelly for the office of county treasurer will have to pay the trifle of one hundred thousand dollars or so which the contest will cost. The new election contest law passed by the last legislature, which is known as the Vaughan bill, seems clearly to put the costs on the petitioners in the event of Mr. Kelly winning the contest, which from present indications is more than fikely

The men who signed the petition are W. M. Finn, James Moir, jr., Charles W. Schank, G. R. Clark, John H. Fellows, G. W. Finn, Frederick Fuller, O. B. Schreifer, James Moir, Joseph Oliver, G. W. Davis, M. V. Morris, Walter B. Christmas, J. J. Kaufman, J. A. Lansing, James J. H. Hamilton, John J. McAndrew, P. D. Rhodes, William Hanley, jr., S. E. Lynch, J. F. Williams, Ellery C. Thornley, George W. Beemer, J. Scott Inglis, Willard E. Perry, H. C. Powell, John T. Howe, C. L. Hill, F. L. Hodgson, Walter V. Handrick, G. M. Wallace, C. V. Terwilliger, J. R. Schlager, William Coughlin, W. P. Litts, F. M. Young, James E. Francis rick Peatenby, C. B. Westcott, W. H Williams, Fred Schurman, C. M. Butis Howard W. Hull, Alfred Harvey, Arja

Williams, C. S. Jacobs. THERE WILL BE A RUSH. Many of these men are possessed of large amount of the world's goods and they will have to pay the share of the men from whom nothing can be collected. There will probably be a rush on the part of some of these signers to get tives when they realize they must pay jail of those responsible for the costs in the event of their not being paid.

A Tribune man yesterday interviewed Attorney I. H. Burns upon the Vaughan bill and its effects on the present contest. His views appear plausible to the lay mind unversed in he devious intricacles of the interne tation of the law. His interpretation is substantially as follows:

"The law, which formerly gave the courts a discretion as to the imposition of the costs in a contested election, has so amended by the recent Vaughan act as to take away this disrction so far as concerns contested lections of county officers among oth ers. The following extract from the Vaughan act shows the old law and the

"That section nine of an act (of 1874) which reads as follows: In contested elections of president or additional law judges, senators and members of the use of representatives and of county porough, township or municipal officer n which the court or judge shall not de cide that the complaint is without prob-Miss Helen Gregg, her little sister, who was flower girl. The bride's gown was district or municipality shall be liable to pay all costs and the same shall be promptly paid by the proper authorities upon the order of the court or judge trying the case," be, and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

THE NEW ACT.

"In contested elections of president or additional law judges and of county, bo-rough, township municipal officers or chool directors or school controllers, the contestants fail to establish his o their right to the office to which he o they claimed to have been elected, the petitioners and each and every of them shall be jointly and severally liable for all the costs and the same may be colected as debts of like amount are by aw collectable or payment thereof may be enforced by attachment. In case the contestant establish his or their right to the office in either of the above named axes, the costs shall be paid by the proper district, county, borough, town-hip, municipality or school district."

"It will thus be seen," continued Mr. Burns, 'that the discretion fermerly exercised by the court as to the im position of costs either upon the county or the petitioners is taken away and the liability is fixed by the statute itself. If the contestant succeeds the county pays the costs. If he fails the osts must be paid by the petitioners

This undoubtedly applies to the angstaff and Kelly contest, because, s has been said by eminent authority, the costs in a suit are to be regulated by the statute in force at the time of its termination. Neither court, jury, nor referees can award costs, unless authorized by law; and where the rule is fixed by statute it must be followed strictly.

"A contested election case is now like a trial at law where the jury find either for the plaintiff or defendant, but say nothing about the costs because that is fixed by the law.

"At the end of this contest the court will find that one of the parties was elected. If Kelly wins the costs go on the petitioners. If Langstaff is ahead then the county pays. If the court is asked to make a decree as to costs it will reply that it has no control over the costs as that is fixed by the law, MATTER OF FEES.

"But have not the witnesses and offier a vested interest in their fees that cannot be changed?" "Not at all. There are no vested interests in an officer's fees. The statute that made them can also unmake at any time. Besides this amendment does not deprive any officer of fees. It simply makes a possible change in their collection. Instead of getting them from the county they may have look to the petitioners."

How about impairing the obligation

There is no question of contract in the case. Officers' fees are not founded on contract in any sense whatever." "Is there any question of ex post facto law?"

OPENING SESSION AT WILKES-

Delegates Arrived in That City Yesterday and Were Entertained at a Patriotic Entertainment Conducted Last Night-Meeting of the Board of Directors of Women's Relief Corps-Lengthy Report Made by Mrs. Thomas A. Morrison, the President of the Board.

The delegates to the thirty-third annual state encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic began arriving in Wilkes-Barre in large numbers yesterday. The indications are that the encampment will be the most largely attended in years. The only drawback High school commencement exercises is the intensely warm weather. When the Philadelphia delegation arrived at 2 p. m. they were greeted with salute of twelve guns, fired from the Grand Army of the Republic canon stationed at the Lehigh Valley railroad depot. Afterwards the delegates were escorted to their hotels by members of the reception committee. The first event on the programme was a dramatic entertainment at the Nesbitt theatre last evening. The house was well filled with veterans. The board of directors of the Pennsylvania Memorial home of the Wo men's Relief corps held its ninth an nual session in Memorial hall yesterers at 19 o'clock in the morning. When day afternoon.
