The best is none too good

As in everything else, so in muslin underwear. Having known for many years of the great excellence of the underwear we handle we have at last succeeded in persuading the manufacturers to permit us to show our public just how the same is made—demonstrating in full all its good points, and above all, its proverbial cleanliness.

Come and see the Manufacturing exhibit

It will interest you to see how carefully the underwear you wear is made by fleet-fingered operators who understand every branch and detail of their business and are ready to show and explain what you cannot readily see at a glance.

This is our greatest underwear sale

In assortments, in lowness of price and in magnitude of sales, this event has had no worthy precedent. Our quotations have been the talk of Scranton and have yet to be equaled by other stores.
