HOSPITAL IS OVERCROWDED.

Conditions of Affairs at the Lackawanna at Present.
President J. P. Dickson of the Lackawanna hospital has announced that owing to the crowded condition of that institution no patients except accident or emergency cases will be received there until further notice. The hospital is now crowded to its capacity and convalescents are scattered over all parts of the building.

A case of diphtheria broke out Thursday and the child afflicted was immediately isolated in a remote section of the hospital and three or four children were sent to their homes as a precautionary measure. The ward was immediately disinfected and repainted, removing all danger of contagion.

AFFAIRS OF THE FREE KINDERGARTEN

CONSIDERED AT THE ANNUAL MEETING.

It was held in the Albright Library Last Night—Mrs. E. L. Fuller, the Treasurer, Reported as to the Financial Condition of the Association—The Reports which were Made Showed the Splendid Work for the Little Folks that is Being Done.

Whether the much-talked-of fight, or general apathy regarding the welfare of little children was responsible, certain it is that but a small number of people gathered in the Albright Memorial library last night at the annual meeting of the Scranton Free Kindergarten association. The room presented an attractive appearance, with many bowls of roses, and the vines from outside creeping in at the windows. Mr. A. D. Hines presided. The following report of the treasurer, Mrs. E. L. Fuller, was read:

THE OFFICERS.

Judge Hand then announced the report of the nominating committee and the following officers were duly elected: President, Mr. A. D. Hines; vice presidents, Mrs. Thomas Dickson, Mrs. Alfred Hand, recording secretary, Mrs. William Matthews; corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. M. Marple; treasurer, Mrs. E. L. Fuller; advisory board, Hon. Alfred Hand, Colonel E. H. Ripple, Colonel H. M. Boies; executive committee, Mrs. C. S. Weston, Mrs. James Archibald, Mrs. E. L. Fuller, Mrs. J. A. Price, Mrs. Alfred Hand, Mrs. C. D. Simpson, Miss Elizabeth Howell.

MISS UNDERWOOD'S REPORT.

Miss Underwood gave a beautiful report. The pleasant, low voices of all the kindergartners are a marked contrast to the average feminine accents in public places. Fifty children, of foreign descent, attend the Penn avenue kindergarten. The nature work has developed much gentleness, kindness and thought, through the study of insects, flowers and birds. Mr. Fox has supplied visitors in the shape of gold fishes, chickens, etc., by which the little ones have learned much.

GENERAL REPORT.

A general report of the system in the city followed, giving a most interesting view of the magnitude and importance of the work. It closed with an earnest appeal for more universal recognition and aid of this real missionary effort.

Lackawanna county is receiving an unusually large share of attention throughout the state just now because of the candidacy of Hon. H. CHAMBER CONCERT.

Guernsey's hall is most admirably adapted to chamber music, but perhaps that is not the solitary reason why the second concert of the season was the best ever given by the Homberger quartette. The program had plenty to do with the pleasure afforded is undoubted, it was a program to enrapture an audience and the great pity of the whole affair is that so few were present to enjoy it.
