

JONAS LONG'S SONS. THE BIG STORE. FINE FURNITURE. MUSLIN UNDERWEAR. FINE AGATE WARE. THE BIG STORE. JONAS LONG'S SONS.

A Triple Sale of Great Magnitude==Most Important in Scranton's History

This is the story of the most gigantic merchandise movement of recent years. A sale that has for its object the selling of three particular lines of goods at prices lower than was ever known. Cost of manufacture has not been considered. This morning at 8 o'clock we shall lay before you—

An Auction Stock of Agate Ware, Comprising More Than Eight Thousand Pieces. Summer Sale of Muslin Underwear, a Little More Than Twenty Thousand Garments. Some Tremendous Offerings in Furniture, in Which We Are the Recognized Leaders.

Every aisle, every floor should be jammed this week. If you're a judge of values, you'll come in a rush. We anticipate tremendous selling—but have prepared for it. Extra salespeople will care for you in each department. No waits or vexing delays. Important details follow.

Some Big Values in Our Greatest Show of

Ladies' Muslin Underwear

Here are prices, that, value considered, have no equal in any store in the world. The very same goods are being sold in one of the biggest stores in New York at fully one-third more. Talk about New York for bargains. There are more genuine offerings of merit RIGHT HERE at Jonas Long's Sons than in any other store in the universe. Strong statement to make, but surely true—these facts and figures will surely prove.

Another thing about Underwear buying. No matter where you go, examine the garments carefully. Observe the quality of the muslin, the embroidery and the lace. Be sure that the two latter are not made alone for show. Observe the stitching and the sewing. This for comparison. It will only help you the more to know the general goodness of all the garments we show.

- Corset Covers
 - Plain muslin covers with felled seams; big value 6c
 - Covers with square or V neck, embroidery trimmed 10c
- Undershirts

5 Styles of Gowns at 49c—Great Value

Empire style, handsome full ruffled collar, tucked front made of alternate tucks and embroidery. Another style trimmed with tucks and torchon lace inserting and full ruffle of the latter. Still another has V neck with tucks in fine clusters and finished with inserting and ruffles of torchon lace.

A Mammoth offering of a Big Auction Purchase

Genuine Agate Nickel-Steel-Ware.

Ever been in the big auction rooms in New York City? Ever seen those talky fellows sell thousands of dollars' worth of goods in an hour? Have you ever seen the big stocks of merchandise come rolling in—only to be hurried out to some new owner the next hour. Quite a sight—you may be sure.

There was an extraordinary big sale in the warerooms of E. Bissell & Co. on Friday, May 26th. Into their immense quarters was gathered

Thousands Upon Thousands of Pieces

Of blue and white pearl agate and peerless enamel ware. A collection that never saw its equal in any warerooms in New York City. Every piece made and marked by the makers, The Lalance and Grosjean Manufacturing Company—whose reputation in their line towers above every other firm in the world.

We Bought and Bought Heavy

As we always do when we know the worth of a thing. The result—thousands of pieces are here and ready for your choosing. We can safely say that in this line no such bargains have ever been known. We have priced every article that it may go quickly—offering you an opportunity that may never come again.

CARBONDALE.

SYMPHONY CONCERT.

Second Public Rehearsal of the Amateur Orchestra.

The Symphony orchestra is a recently formed organization made up mostly of Carbondale's best amateur musicians and partly of professionals, under the direction of Prof. Ernest Thiele, of Scranton. They are:

- Violins—Miss Edith A. Davis, George S. Kimball, George Burrell, L. M. Smith, D. L. Crane, F. E. Jenkins, J. Russell Jones.
- Violas—Miss Bessie Teets, A. P. Thomas.
- Violoncellos—Mrs. E. D. Lathrop, A. Rumsby.
- Accompanists—Miss Maude Copeland, G. Frank Couch.

They will give their second public rehearsal in the Burke building Tuesday evening and will be assisted by Mrs. Kathryn Thiele, soprano, of Scranton; Miss Jennie Buchwald, pianist, of Scranton, and Prof. A. P. Thomas, of this city. The programme is appended:

(A) Aria, "My Heart Ever Faithful," Bach; (B) Gavotte, "The Fete a Versailles," Tavan, orchestra; "Romance for Viola," Schill, A. P. Thomas; (C) "Twiss April," (D) "Why the Waves Complain," Nevin; (E) "Spring Flowers," Rebecke, Mrs. Thiele; (F) "Largo," Handel; (G) Polka, "Pizzicato," Strauss; (H) Menuetto, Third Symphony, Haydn, orchestra; "Polonaise," Moszkowski, Miss Buchwald; "Mazurka," Musini, Miss Davies; (I) "Marche Funerale," Chopin; (J) "Carnaval," Nittinger, orchestra; "The Savan Rose," Arditi, Mrs. Thiele; Fantasie, "William Tell," Osborne and DeBeriot, Miss Buchwald and Mr. Thiele; Intermezzo from "Cavalleria Rusticana," Mascagni, (repeated by request) Mrs. Thiele and orchestra.

The funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Skull Crushed.

William Matthews, 39 years old, with a home, wife and two children at Mayfield, was struck on the Delaware and Hudson track near Eighth avenue Saturday night by the 3:55 north bound train and killed instantly, crushing his skull and severing the back part of his head. The remains were taken to McHale's undertaking room.

Bad management keeps more people in poor circumstances than any other one cause. To be successful one must look ahead and plan ahead so that when a favorable opportunity presents itself he is ready to take advantage of it. A little forethought will also save much expense and valuable time. A prudent and careful man will keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house. The afflicted fellow will wait until necessity compels it and then run his best horse going for a doctor and have a big doctor bill to pay, besides; one pays out 25 cents, the other is out a hundred dollars and then wonders why his neighbor is getting richer while he is getting poorer. For sale by all druggists; Matthew Bros. wholesale and retail agents.

TAYLOR NEWS.

A Pretty June Wedding—Musical and Recital—Church Dedication. Other Happenings.

The marriage of Miss Mattie, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Griffiths, and Mr. John Harris, a popular young man, also of this place, was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, 805 Taylor street on Saturday at 8:30 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. H. Harris, Ph.D., of the Calvary Baptist church. The house was tastefully decorated for the happy event. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of friends and relatives. The bride looked exceedingly attractive, wearing a gown of brown silk. They were unattended. At the conclusion of the ceremony a wedding supper was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John S. Griffiths, Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Griffiths, Mr. and Mrs. James Morris, Jr., and Mrs. Seth Griffiths, Mr. and Mrs. Tullie Griffiths, Mr. and Mrs. David Griffiths, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Ebenezer Griffiths, Mr. and Mrs. James Morris, Jr., and children, Misses Sarah Harris, Elizabeth Griffiths, Mamie and Edith Griffiths, Jennie Bowler, Bessie Taylor, Edwin Howells, Annie Reese, Lydia Haskins, Mamie Francis, and Messrs. JERMYN AND MAYFIELD.

A well known resident of Cemetery street while under the influence of drink Saturday night, a disturbance he would do, turned his wife and young children out of doors. He was afterwards arrested and placed in the borough lockup. Yesterday morning he had sobered up and after expressing regrets for what he had done and promising to do better in the future, he was, at his wife's solicitation, allowed to go.

A single man from the East Side unable to stand prosperity, while in a state of intoxication on Saturday evening, assaulted a young man who was passing him on Main street. Officer McKinley was not far away and took him to the lockup. During the evening he made things so lively that the officer had to handcuff him to the side of the cell. Yesterday morning when the man had broken the handcuffs and everything else within reach inside the cell. He was given a hearing before the burgess, but had no money. From the evidence of his boarding boss the man had received a $12 pay, the whole of which he squandered, not even paying anything for his board. The boarding boss promised to pay the damages done the cell and handcuffs and last evening, after having been confined in the lockup twenty-four hours, he was allowed to depart.

The news of the death of Mrs. Patrick Flaherty, wife of Dispatcher Flaherty, of the Ontario and Western company, which occurred at Carbondale Saturday, caused quite a shock to her many friends here. Mr. and Mrs. Flaherty were residents of this borough for several years and much sympathy is felt for her husband and little children.

Miss Maggie Murphy, who, while visiting her sister, Mrs. Michael McDermott, of the East Side, was taken seriously ill of appendicitis, was removed to the home of her parents at the South Side, Scranton.

James Giffen, dramatic posing, Miss Bessie Mayo Sloat, tenor solo, "Dreams of Paradise," Edwin Bowen; recitation, "Jimmy's Mistake," Miss Bessie Mayo Sloat; soprano solo, Miss Phoebe Smith.

AVOCA.

The funeral of William Robert Conkey took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of his brother, Alexander, of the North End. The remains, encased in a handsome casket, were handsome even in death and bore little trace of the terrible sufferings he endured. The cortege was one of the largest ever assembled in that part of the town. The Avoca Hose company and Noy Aug lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, led the procession.

Rev. D. T. Smythe, assisted by the Presbyterian choir, conducted the services. The sermon was beautiful and pathetic, and moved many to tears. The pall-bearers were Edwin Davis, Ebenezer Davis, Edwin Davis, Steryl Keith, William Graham, John Davis, Edward Miller, Thomas Borthwick, William Brown, William Jeffries, James Ralph. At the grave the ritual was read by George Shales. Interment was made in Marcy cemetery.

Mrs. Margaret Bosley, assisted by Ansel House, installed the officers of Lady Kitchener lodge at Wilkes-Barre on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Warner, of Moosic, is critically ill of pneumonia.

Yesterday afternoon a large crowd assembled at Bosley's blacksmith shop, awaiting the arrival of a carrier pigeon to bring the score from the ball ground at Plainville. They were not disappointed. The little messenger arrived with a tiny parcel about its throat. A few were anxious to be the first to take it from the bird, but the wily crea-

GEORGE SPANLE DIES.

Succumbed to Typhoid Fever at the Hospital Yesterday.

About three weeks ago George Spanle, the well known barber, was admitted to the Carbondale hospital. His ailment developed into typhoid fever, with which he died at 11:30 o'clock yesterday morning. The remains were at once removed to the home of his father on Canaan street.

Mr. Spanle was born in this city about thirty years ago. He learned the barber trade with Kahl brothers and later opened a shop in partnership with Joseph Coogan on Church street. Upon the completion of Hotel American the firm occupied the basement with one of the most completely appointed shops in the valley.

Mr. Spanle's death comes as a great shock to his many friends, who have not thought he was fatally ill. He was a member of the Mitchell Hose company and of the Germania Singing club, in which organization he was extremely popular.

He is survived by a father, Frederick Spanle, mother and one brother.
