AN AGED SHOPLIFTER

Sixty-Year-Old Greenwood Woman Caught in the Act.

Mrs. M. Gibbons, of Greenwood, a woman nearly 60 years of age, was arrested for shoplifting in Jonas Long's Sons' store at 12 o'clock yesterday. She was detected by Mrs. Frisby and Miss Dougherty, two of the clerks in the store, and Patrolman Palmer and Day placed her under arrest.

When searched the woman had concealed about her person two shirts-waists, seven handkerchiefs, a piece of muslin and muslin undergarment. She made no resistance and quietly walked to the station house with the officers.

The members of the firm were notified and after recovering the goods decided not to prosecute Mrs. Gibbons and she was released from custody. The woman was slightly intoxicated when arrested.

A few days ago the floorwalker at the same store detected two well known women on the elevator with their umbrellas loaded with stolen goods and when confronted with the charge of shoplifting, confessed and pleaded for mercy. The goods were recovered and the women permitted to depart without being arrested.

FULL TIME AT THE D. L. & W. CAR SHOPS

TEN HOURS SCHEDULE HAS GONE INTO EFFECT.

Will Not Entail Any Decrease in the Number of Men—Big Summer Business Looked for by the Local Railroads—Master Car Builder Canfield to Represent the Lackawanna at the Car Builders' Convention—Various Notes of Interest in the Industrial World.

There was joy in abundance yesterday at the car shops in this city of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad company when Master Car Builder L. T. Canfield posted a notice that commencing this morning the shops will work ten hours a day. This order will remain in effect all the year around, with the exception of the winter months, when the darkness will compel work to be suspended an hour or so earlier. Then when the days begin to get longer the ten hour schedule will be replaced.

Master Car Builder Canfield speaking to a Tribune reporter yesterday with reference to the new change, said: "Our going to ten hours a day will be a decided benefit both to the men and the company. We are now working eight hours a day and the men are not satisfied with that plan."

"Will the extra hours necessitate the suspension of any men now employed?" was asked. "No, I don't think so, as we have plenty of work on hand," said Mr. Canfield.

Excepting a few weeks now and then the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western car shops are kept busy ten hours a day in nearly four years. The locomotive and machinery departments of the company have been working ten hours a day for some time and now the whole number of shops will be on the same footing regarding working hours.

THE EXCURSION SEASON.

The Central Railroad of New Jersey will run the opening excursion of the season to Mountain park this morning. The Methodist Episcopal church congregation of Plymouth, Thursday last, held the first outing of the year at that popular mountain resort. Not in many years has Mountain park been booked for so many excursions as this year. Up to yesterday, Division Passenger Agent J. R. Swisher, of this city, booked seventy-eight excursions for the season, with over twenty applications to be acted upon this week. On several dates fully five different associations or churches will congregate at Mountain park, Wilkes-Barre so far has contracted for thirty-four jaunts to that place and Scranton has nearly twenty slated.

Mr. Swisher, of the Central, is enthusiastic over the prospects for summer business on all railroads throughout the state, and pardonably so with reference to his road. As a basis of his belief, he stated to a Tribune man yesterday: "This month we have sold at the Scranton office of our road over one hundred tickets for Atlantic City, Ocean Grove and Long Branch, the popular seaside resorts along our road."

That, I tell you, is a record-breaker, and from this estimate that our season will surpass all expectations."

Division Passenger Agent White, of the Delaware and Hudson company, stated yesterday that he booked over thirty excursions to Farview for the summer, and has several applications yet to be considered.

The local division of the New York, Ontario and Western railroad will run more excursions to Lake Poyntelle, Lake Como and Preston Park this year than any year in its history.

Car Builders' Convention.

Master Car Builder Canfield, of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad company, is the guest of honor at the convention of the National Master Car Builders' association, which opens here this morning. One of the main questions that will be held during the sessions will be the advisability of changing the rules with reference to the interchange of freight cars among the great railroads of the country.

The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company has a freight car in active use. When a vote is taken on the changing of the rules now governing the interchange of cars, Mr. Canfield will have sixty-five votes to cast, each four hundred cars entitling him to a vote. It will be readily seen that our home company cuts no little figure at this convention.

Miscellaneous Notes.

An order issued by General Manager and Second Vice-President William P. Halstead, of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, yesterday will bring to an end an abuse of passes. The order of Mr. Halstead directs the conductors that when they are handed a pass issued for a certain person, and being used by another, they are to take it up and collect fare.

E. E. Loomis, of Jersey City, who has been named as successor to W. R. Storrs, who recently resigned as head of the coal and real estate departments of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company, is expected in the city tomorrow or Thursday to assume his new duties. Mr. Loomis upon his arrival will name the successor to W. H. Storrs, who resigned Saturday, as assistant to his father, the late John C. Cawley, of Price street, has been made assistant outside foreman at the Briggs colliery, under Foreman John Cummins. Mr. Cawley was engaged as docking boss, and has been employed at the colliery since his boyhood. His promotion is a popular one. Edward E. Thomas resigned his position Saturday as outside foreman of the Hyde Park colliery of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company. Former weighmaster George Watkins succeeds Mr. Thomas.

Superintendent Fitzgibbon, of the motive power and machinery departments of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company, went to New York city yesterday. Owing to the fact that his duties demand his entire attention, Mr. Fitzgibbon will not attend the annual convention of the National Master Mechanics' association at Coney Island, which convenes there Wednesday next.

Scranton Has a Delegation of Rooters at Hazleton, Too.

The state convention of the Sons of Veterans will meet in Hazleton this morning at 9 o'clock, and continue in session for several days. A large delegation from this city will attend to boom the candidacy of W. L. Nash for the office of quartermaster.

Two young men called at the county jail last night and stated that a woman was found dead in the grove near the jail. An investigation was made, and an aged woman named Mrs. Miller, nearly 80 years old, was found sleeping under a tree.

The old lady's son moved from Adams avenue to Dumore yesterday, and the family expected Mrs. Miller to join them in their new home, but she evidently lost her way and wandered into the grove.

She was taken care of by some of the neighbors in the vicinity of her old home and will be taken to Dumore today.

SOUTH SIDE SEWER IS AGAIN HALTED

CONTRACTOR BURLEIGH DECLINES TO TAKE CONTRACT.

Even with the Bonus Offered by the Property Holders He Does Not See His Way Clear to Undertake the Job—Vincent O'Hara Has Been Imperturbed to Jump Into the Breach and May Be Secured to Carry Out the Contract—Wants Bonus Increased.

Again are the South Side people doomed to disappointment in relation to their devoutly-wished-for sewer. W. F. Burleigh, the Dumore contractor, who was to take the contract at Dunn Brothers' figures, plus a bonus of $3,000, reports that he will be unable to keep his agreement and advises the promoters of the sewer to look elsewhere for relief.

Vincent O'Hara, who was one of the original bidders, has been imperturbed to take the job, and negotiations between him and the committee are underway. His demand is an increase in the amount of the bonus, claiming that there is positively no profit in the contract at the figure at which Mr. Burleigh proposed to do the work.
